A MAN

WHO IS UNACQUAINTED WITH THE GEOGRAPHY OF THIS COUNTRY, WILL SEE BY EXAMINING THIS MAP, THAT THE CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND & PACIFIC R. R.

IS THE GREAT CONNECTING LINK BETWEEN THE EAST AND THE WEST!

Its main line runs from Chicago to Council Bluffs and Omaha, passing through Joliet, Ottawa, La Salle, Geneseo, Moline, Rock Island, Davenport, West Liberty, Iowa City, Brooklyn, Grinnell, and Des Moines, the capitol of Iowa; with branches from Sheridan Junction to Peoria; Wilton Junction to Muscatine, Washington, Fairfield, Eldon, Belknap, Centreville, Princeton, Trenton, Gallatin, Cameron, Leavenworth and Atchison; Washington to Sigourney, Oskaloosa and Knoxville; Keokuk to Farmington; Bonaparte, Bentonsport, Independence, Eldora, Ottumwa, Eddyville, Oskaloosa, Pella, Monroe, and Des Moines; Des Moines, to Indianola and Winterset; Atlantic to Audubon and Avoca to Harlan. This positively the only railroad which owns, controls and operates a through line between Chicago and Kansas City.

This Company runs and controls the Sleeping Cars, which are inferior to none, and give you a double berth between Chicago and Council Bluffs, Leavenworth, or Atchison for Two Dollars, and Elegant and a section for Five Dollars, while all other lines charge between the same points, Three Dollars for a double berth, and Six Dollars for a section.

What will please you most will be the pleasure of enjoying your meals, while passing over the beautiful prairies of Illinois and Iowa, in one of our magnificent Dining and Restaurant Cars that accompany all through Express Trains. You get an entire meal & good as is served in any first-class hotel, for twenty-five cents; or you can order what you like, and pay for what you get.

Appreciating the fact that a majority of the people prefer separate apartments for different purposes, (and the enormous passenger business of this line warranted it,) we appended to our train a Palace Car, where you can enjoy your "Havana" at all hours of the day.

Magnificent Iron Bridges span the Mississippi and Missouri Rivers at all points crossed by this line, and transfers are avoided at Council Bluffs, Leavenworth and Atchison, connections being made in Union depots.

THE PRINCIPAL R. R. CONNECTIONS OF THIS GREAT THROUGH LINE ARE AS FOLLOWS:

At CHICAGO, with all diverging lines for the East and South.

At ENGLEWOOD, with the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern and Pittsburg, Ft. Wayne & Chicago R. Rds.

At WASHINGTON HEIGHTS, with Pittsburg, Cincinnati & St. Louis R. Rd.

Grand Grant Reception—He Sails for Oregon.

SAN FRANCISCO, 9.—The reception to General Grant by the Chamber of Commerce and Board of Trade in behalf of the merchants of San Francisco, took place at noon to-day in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce. There were from 500 to 600 of the leading merchants of the city present. To accommodate this number it was found necessary to remove all the seats. At five minutes past 12 the General, who had been driven in a carriage from the Palace Hotel, was escorted into the Chamber by M. J. Jones, James DeFremery, J. C. Patrick and W. F. Whittier; Governor-elect Geo. Perkins representing the Chamber of Commerce. Jacobs Faber, on behalf of the Board of Trade received the distinguished guest. Mr. Perkins addressing the General said:

GEN. GRANT: The merchants of San Francisco, represented by the Chamber of Commerce and Board of Trade, have the honor to pay you their respects, desiring as merchants to express their appreciation of your services to our common country. Recognizing the fact that universal prosperity is best promoted by domestic and national intercourse, and that through commerce and trade the nations of the world are brought into the most intimate relations, to which great and peace is absolutely essential, they regard you as the great chieftain whose military genius restored domestic peace and civil law throughout our country. In your hour of triumph your magnanimity did not allow you to forget that the good will of all our countrymen was as necessary as the success of the armies under your command. When entrusted with the highest office in the gift of the people, you proved to the world how war could be avoided and peace secured by friendly arbitration. We regard you as an honorable representative of our republican citizenship, more especially to be so esteemed because, although successful in war, you have so fully appreciated the advantages of peace, while the honors bestowed upon you by foreign potentates have never caused you to swerve from the path of republican simplicity and true American citizenship.

The merchants of San Francisco welcome you to your native land, wishing you a happy return to your home, many years of happiness, and an old age which shall command the continued honor and reverence of your countrymen.

Perkins then presented the address he had delivered to the General on a scroll, on the back of which was the inscription: To General U. S. Grant, from the Chamber of Commerce and Board of Trade of San Francisco, October 9th, 1879." Underneath were the signatures of the Presidents and Secretaries of the two bodies.

General Grant, addressing Governor Perkins, said he was very much gratified to meet the merchants of San Francisco, and have the pleasure of being introduced to them. He had remarked with pleasure the wonderful growth of this city, and complimented the merchants for having done so much towards building up this community. They all know he had traveled extensively during the past two years, and nowhere did he see greater evidence of prosperity than here. The condition of the laboring classes seemed to be better than in any place he had been. Labor left to itself grew debased; and he had in no part of the world seen such evidence of the prosperity of the laboring classes, which was the highest compliment he could pay to the merchants of the city. In conclusion, he thanked them for the reception they had tendered him.

The merchants then were introduced to the General, and at the conclusion of the ceremony he was escorted to his carriage and driven back to the Palace Hotel. Shortly after 1 o'clock the General was driven to the wharf and embarked on the St. Paul, which this afternoon steamed out of the Bay on her voyage to Oregon. The shipping in the harbor dipped their colors as the steamer steamed past the city front.

In consequence of the death of his father in Philadelphia, the Hon. Russell Young has left the Grant party and starts overland Friday.

MINUTES

Of a two days' meeting held in Haywood Valley, Chatooga County, Georgia, Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 27 and 28, 1879.

10 a. m.

Present on the stand: Elder J. Morgan, President of the Southern States Mission S. C. Stephens, N. L. Shurtliff, T. W. Heward and J. J. Barbor, Traveling Elders of the Georgia Conference, and Elder Joseph H. Parry of the North Carolina Conference.

Elder Morgan stated his joy and satisfaction in meeting with the brethren and sisters in as good health and circumstances as at present. Related the circumstances of his leaving Salt Lake City, his arrival at Manassa, Colorado, the meetings held there, and the circumstances and feelings of the Saints. All were feeling well in the cause.

The efforts of the adversary so strenuously put forth in the past few weeks would only help to spread the Gospel by creating inquiry and a greater interest in the work we represent. It is calculated to do much good and not so much harm as many suppose.

Singing, Benediction.

7 p. m.

Singing and pray er.

Elder Shurtliff stated that he and Elder Stephens had visited the Branches, and found the Saints living up to the Gospel as well as they could under the circumstances. They visited some who were not of our faith. Held meetings both among the Saints and strangers. All had treated them well. He closed by bearing his testimony to the Latter-day work.

Elder Heward remarked that the Gospel was spreading rapidly. Some of those who came out to hear us were seeking for the truth; these are the ones that we are after. We teach the same doctrine that Christ and his disciples taught. The salvation of the world depends upon their acceptance of this gospel and their living up to its principles.

Elder Parry felt glad to be with the Saints here again and gave some of his experience in North Carolina. The prospects of the work in that Conference were very encouraging, notwithstanding the mobbing and persecutions.

Our brethren and sisters who had been driven from their homes and despoiled of their property were feeling well in the gospel, and were at the present time in Burton County of this State, at work in the cotton fields, and were getting along pretty well, hoping for some help before the winter came on, to be gathered out to a land of freedom. Since the outbreak of hostilities up there, many who had heretofore been indifferent had taken a firm hold on the gospel. His expressions went to prove that the noble, the honest and the upright were the bulk of our converts and adherents, men and women who were looked up to in the communities they came from. The time would soon come when all the world would look up to and respect the priesthood and the Saints of God. He spoke on the first principles, and encouraged the Saints to patiently endure all things for the gospel sake, for in a little while our reward is sure.

Meeting adjourned until Sunday 10 a.m.

Singing; benediction.

Sunday 10 a.m.

Singing and prayer.

Elder Parry delivered an interesting discourse on the first principles of the Gospel, and spoke very pointedly on the necessity of new revelation, in order to be made partakers of the joys of the Gospel in its fulness. He closed by bearing his testimony to the divine mission of the Prophet Joseph Smith.

The sacrament was then administered. Singing. Benediction.

7 p m.

Singing and prayer. Elder Morgan delivered an excellent discourse on the subject of our pre-existence, our relationship to God and our obligations to him while we live in this probation, and which we shall continue to have towards him in the future. He touched on the first principles and also on the subject of the gathering, its object and importance.

Singing, benediction.

An excellent spirit was enjoyed throughout the meetings, and the instructions given were much appreciated by the goodly number of Saints and stangers present, many of whom had come from the surrounding branches. Three baptisms occurred. The prospects for emigration are good.

S. C. STEPHENS, Clerk.

Catarrhal POISON

Wei De Meyers' Treatise on Catarrh, explains the following important facts:

1. That Catarrhal Colds become a poisonous infection, at first local, and finally constitutional.

2. That, being Constitutional, the infection is beyond the reach of mere local remedies.

3. That whatever impurities exist in the nostrils, are necessarily swallowed into the stomach and inhaled into the lungs, thus poisoning the digestive, the respiratory and the genito-urinary organs.

4. That Catarrhal virus follows the mucous membrane and causes Weak Eyes, Deafness, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, bronchitis, Leucorrhœa and Consumption.

5. That Smokes, Douches, Inhalations and Insoluble Snuffs, taken into the nostrils and throat, cannot possibly remove infectious inflammation from the organs named.

6. That an antidote for Catarrh must possess an inoculative affinity for, and the capacity of being absorbed by the purulent mucous wherever located.

Acting upon these theories, Dr. Wei De Meyer has found a remedy for Catarrhal diseases, which proves to be infallible. His Treatise, with overwhelming proofs and full explanations of the most important medicinal discovery since vaccination, is sent free and Post-paid to anybody. Wei De Meyer's Catarrh Cure is not yet in the hands of all Druggists. Where not thus procurable, it will be delivered to any address at $1.50 a package. To Clubs, six packages for $7.50. To the trade, liberal terms.
