The Eintracht Singing society and a host of its German friends went to Lagoon yesterday and succeeded in promoting considerable pleasure. There were contests of various kinds, includ-ing races for children as well as adults. The winners in the latter races were Mrs. A. Brox and John Tren. An excellent musical and literary program was rendered in German by members of the society, and the numbers were thoroughly enjoyed by the assembled hosts of the land of the Kalser. The program was begun by the rendition of the German national hymn, "Wocht am Rhein," on the orchestrion. Mr. Schwartz did well in a delineation, which was followed by the choir singing "Dear brother, let us wander." A comic reading, "The Irish Letter," was well done by Fritz Wys. John Tren and A. Brox created considerable mirth in a rendition of "Two Capital Liars." Miss Millie displayed her ability on the plano forts in a good execution of "Cascades de Roses," and Purest Snow.

"The Unlucky Painter," a pantomime, was given by Herman Kratzer and A. Brox. The program concluded with "The Beautiful Song," by the choir.
