Democratic Committee Members Do Not Like Coinage Bill.

TO MAKE MINORITY REPORT.

Impossible to Get Sufficient Gold to Meet All Obligations if the Bill Passes.

Washington, Jan. 19.—The Democratic members of the House committee on coinage, weights and measures have agreed on a minority report on the bill, directing the secretary of the treasury to exchange gold for legal tender silver dollars, and the report will be presented to the House tomorrow by Mr. Sharkey. The report takes the position that the passage of the bill is certain to produce financial disturbances. The following general proposition is set down:

"Our government has never conceded the right to the holder of silver dollars to demand from the treasury gold in exchange for the silver dollars. It is therefore, not to the holder of gold to demand silver dollars therefor. Such demands always have been refused at the treasury. It is the notes and the gold certificates of the government that are payable in either gold or silver, at the option of the holder."

The following resolutions why such a measure should not be enacted are given:

First.—It will require a large increase of the gold reserve of the treasury, as if the obligations on a reserve of gold are increased, the reserve should be correspondingly enlarged. If it requires $100,000,000 of gold to act as a reserve for the redemption of $400,000,000 of United States notes called greenbacks, it will require $1,000,000,000 of gold to act as a reserve for the redemption of $4,000,000,000 of silver dollars.

Second.—It will create a sort of endless chain upon the gold reserve of the treasury and thereby plunge the government deeper into the banking business. If the endless chain upon the treasury caused by the redemption and release of greenbacks is a continual drain upon the gold reserve, and a severe strain upon the government, how much more of a drain and strain will the $200,000,000 of new obligations on the reserve impose?

The government now has the power to call in the gold reserve by raising upon it a reserve by imposing the greenbacks and treasury notes, but if silver is made redeemable in gold it cannot do so until it impounds also the gold certificates of the treasury and silver certificates.

When there is a run on the treasury for gold it is the salvation of commerce and the reserve to have in circulation a currency which is not subject to further demand on that metal. The bill will place the government deeper into the banking business.

Third.—It will facilitate the exportation of gold. As the gold reserve is scattered all over the country, it is difficult for large exporters of gold to collect sufficient of that currency to prepare for the exportation of gold. But if silver certificates, which form the great bulk of the currency that circulates, can be redeemed for payment in gold, then it becomes an easy matter to collect the gold reserve and produce either for exportation or to the commerce.

Fourth.—It will cause the retirement of the silver dollars and produce either a violent contraction of the currency or the introduction of printed promises to pay. It will convert assets into liabilities, dollars into debts.

Fifth.—Other things remaining as they are, such a measure would cause a fall in the price of commodities and their property, falling prices would cause a depression in the value of exports and imports, and the price of the goods would fall. The price of the goods would fall, and the price of the goods would fall.

Period of Royal Mourning Over Victoria Coming to an End.

New York, Jan. 19.—In the course of a few days the royal mourning of the royal family for the late queen will be over and the court will resume its brighter aspect, cables the Tribune's London representative. West End is full of preparations for the new order of things and it is clear from many indications that the royal family will be as cheerful as the conditions will permit. Many families are mourning because of losses in South Africa and for various reasons. It is presumed that Queen Alexandra, Princess Christian and Princess Henry of Battenberg will continue their predilection for mourning, but the ordinary wear, but the aspect of mourning will be gay for many a year, and intimations are already made to show that the king intends to make frequent appearances in places of amusement during the coming months. The Victoria memorial fund is still well below $200,000, and is increasing very slowly toward the $500,000 required. The reason for this state of affairs is supposed to be that people livocked of London have a strong objection to subscribe for the erection of the memorial in the metropolis. In all probability the memorial which was set in case of the memorial to the prince consort will be followed, and parliament will be asked to vote the necessary funds.

Formidable Insurrection.
Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 19.—Advices by the Tacoma Telegram from the insurrection movement in Tacoma is much more serious than at first supposed. Twenty-five hundred natives in Southern Tacoma have taken up arms against the Japanese authorities. The prevailing conditions are similar to those in the Philippines making it almost impossible for the Japanese troops to follow the insurgents into the swamps and jungles where the latter are able to live. In the last battle the Japanese lost twenty-one killed and twenty wounded. Twelve insurgent leaders and 150 of their followers were killed or captured. Neither party gained any advantage by this battle. The insurgents are carrying forward such a vigorous campaign that the Japanese have sent seven companies of militia against them.

The knowledge of gold, silver and coal was discovered recently at Waymansville, Ind., and samples were sent to Prof. J. Stanton, principal of the Mines at the University of Chicago. A certificate from him shows an assay of 2.50 ounces gold and .60 of silver, which will yield $4.10 to the ton. On the strength of this assay a company has been organized to develop the mine.

It is reported at Willemstad, Island of Curaçao, that a fierce engagement between the insurgents and the government forces has taken place not far from the Barquisimeto, in the state of Lara, in which the insurgents were victorious. It has been fighting between the insurgents and the soldiers of the government in the state of Maracibo.

B. B. Hunt of Huntsville, Mo., was shot and killed at Shawnee, Okla., yesterday by John Seville, who mistook him for an enemy. Hunt went to Seville's home and demanded admittance. Seville had experienced trouble Saturday with other parties, and he was angry that they had returned to open the quarrel, refused to admit Hunt, and shot through the closed door. Hunt dropped dead on the steps.

Reliable news has been received at Constantinople that Miss Helen M. Stone, the Turkish her companion, and the latter's baby, are well. Negotiations which, it is said, will result in the early and safe return of the captives, are in progress at the Turkish capital. The Turkish minister here is now directing the negotiations. He declines to say anything for publication, but admits there is ground for the above report.

It is a new record in the history of the labor movement. The strike was a success, and the workers have won a victory. The strike was a success, and the workers have won a victory."

W. H. Whitaker, a prominent attorney of Cincinnati and his wife were visiting yesterday and left only child, a five-year-old boy, with Annie Lane, who had been with the family only a short time. When they returned the child was found dead, hanging to a gas pipe in the room of the servant. The child was killed by the gas pipe, and the servant was charged with the murder. A westbound Missouri Pacific passenger train that left St. Louis Saturday night, collided head-on with an east-bound freight train near Etilah, Mo., after midnight. Engineer William Mace of the freight train had fallen asleep. He awoke just after Etilah had been passed. He had been ordered to meet the passenger at that point, and realizing that he could not pull back, he stopped his train and ran into the freight train. He was too late. The baggage car was damaged badly and several freight cars were wrecked. The passenger coaches and Pullmans jumped the track, and but one person was injured, James Elfish Robinson of Kansas City, who escaped with severe bruises.

ARE QUICK TO SEE. Good Doctors Are Quick to See and Appreciate Real Merit in New Medicine.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a discovery of great value to the medical profession and the public. They are an unfailing specific in all cases of dyspepsia and disordered digestion. Almost everybody's digestion is disordered more or less, and the commonest thing they do for it is to take some of the many so-called food purifiers, which in many cases get them into stronger straits. Such things are not needed. If the organs are in a clogged condition, they need only a little help and they will right themselves. The tablets irritate the sensitive lining of the stomach and bowels and often do more harm than good.

Purgings is not what is needed. The thing to do is to put the food in condition to be readily digested and assimilated. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do this perfectly. They partly digest what is eaten and give the stomach just the help it needs. They stimulate the secretion and excretion of the digestive fluids and relieve the congested condition of the glands and membranes of the whole digestive system in condition to do its work. When this is done you need take no more tablets unless you eat what does not agree with you. Then take one or two tablets—its own needed help and you will have no more trouble.

It is a common sense medicine and a common sense treatment and it will cure every time. Not only cure the disease but cure the cause. Goes about it in a perfectly sensible and scientific way.

We have testimonials enough to fill a book but we don't publish many of them. However, we publish a few. # COMMERCIAL CLUB START.

Meeting at the Knutsford on Saturday Night Successful Affair.

THE INCORPORATION PAPERS
Board of Governors to be Chosen on Saturday Evening Next—Question of Club Headquarters.

The Commercial club got a good start Saturday night, at the Knutsford hotel. There were forty prominent citizens present and all took an active interest in the final moulding of the articles of incorporation. Governor Wells presided and Charles Reed was secretary. The evening was spent in discussing the various articles of the incorporation instrument, and at the close, all present signed their names to an agreement to incorporate, and a committee of five was chosen to secure the signatures of the other members of the committee of 100 who were not present at the meeting, or to ascertain their reasons for declining. It was then decided to hold a meeting of the organization Wednesday evening next, at the Knutsford hotel, when a board of governors will be elected, to be followed the next day, by the filing of incorporation papers. This last will be the organization of the club into motion.

The general impression left by the meeting was that the enterprise was to be a success, and possible differences manifested in the early part of the evening had all disappeared by the close of the session.

Business opened with the acceptance of the report of the committee of fifteen and the discharge of the committee. Then the consideration of the articles, section by section, was taken up. George M. Cannon offered the first amendment, objecting to a portion of article three, stating the purpose of the organization was to "unite them as friends instead of dividing them as enemies," contained a wrong impression as to the relations of capital and labor. He asked that the clause be amended to read, "uniting them as friends, mutually interested in each other's welfare." Mr. Cannon held that the clause raised issues that did not exist. Postmaster Thomas explained that the phrase was taken from the constitution of the old Zion's Board of Trade, but Mr. Cannon's amendment was adopted.

The article making the initiation fee $50 and annual dues $40, provoked animated and extended discussion. J. C. Leary and George M. Cannon argued for the reduction of these figures to one-half. Mr. Leary desired lower fees and dues in order that the club might be larger, and he wanted a membership of 300 to 350. He advised an early understanding as to whether a large or small membership was desired. He feared high fees would make the club exclusive. Moreover, if the social feature was to be the main thing, there would be no room for the large number in existence to all the social enjoyment needed. Mr. Leary wanted it stated, definitely, what kind of a club was proposed. Mr. Cannon supported Mr. Leary's position. The chairman, Neil L. Morris, W. H. Bantz, O. G. Hennaway, Arthur L. Thomas, William Elphinstone, Joseph A. Silver, Fred W. Davis, John J. Daly, W. J. McIntyre, J. D. Wedel, J. C. Leary, and others.

There were seven other gentlemen present whose names will be added later, as they had gone home before the agreement was presented for signature. Postmaster Thomas moved that a committee of seven be appointed to nominate a board of governors and report to the club next Wednesday evening at the Knutsford. The chairman, Neil L. Morris, W. H. Bantz, O. G. Hennaway, Arthur L. Thomas, William Elphinstone, Joseph A. Silver, Fred W. Davis, John J. Daly, W. J. McIntyre, J. D. Wedel, J. C. Leary, and others.

The committee of 100 then adjourned until next Wednesday evening, when the incorporation papers will be filed. The chairman, Neil L. Morris, W. H. Bantz, O. G. Hennaway, Arthur L. Thomas, William Elphinstone, Joseph A. Silver, Fred W. Davis, John J. Daly, W. J. McIntyre, J. D. Wedel, J. C. Leary, and others.

SALT LAKE BOY HONORED
Leon L. Looftbour wins Place on Stanford Debating Team.

Leon L. Looftbour of this city has won distinction for himself at Leland Stanford Jr. university by securing a place on the college debating team. This triumph for the young Salt Lake boy was won a few days ago in a preliminary contest that was held for the purpose of selecting the best speakers and most skillful debaters for the Carnot medal contest with the University of California, which will occur later in the winter. The two universities have been pretty much a tie for some time in the past and the interest in these contests therefore is exceedingly keen.

Young Looftbour is of the class of '02.

with dues at $10 a year. But this was lost. Mr. Leary stated that he had consulted with thirty Salt Lake business men who expressed themselves in favor of a large club.

The restaurant feature was then injected into the discussion, and Mr. Cannon registered an objection to the same. He said there were plenty of good restaurants in the city, and the establishment of a restaurant by a club would be encroaching on the business of a strong and valuable element in the community. But Mr. Dooly favored strongly a noonday meal at the club, and this feature was adopted. The club would follow in the wake of the old Chamber of Commerce. Without the restaurant feature, the club scheme might be dropped altogether. In the evening, substantially the same ground, Mr. Shelp held that the club ought to furnish lunch, and not only that, but that it ought to be a place for business men to smoke after luncheon and enjoy some of the comforts of life. He thought that the furnishings of the proposed club would cost $4,000 or $5,000. The social side of the club could be so conducted that business men would feel that they could not afford to remain out of it.

The motion to reduce the fees and dues to half was then put and lost by a decisive majority. An amendment offered by Mr. Weiz to reduce the fee to $25 and make the dues $40 was put and dropped by the way.

Postmaster Thomas moved that corporations be admitted to membership. But this was not received with favor, as Mr. Shelp explained that such a plan had not been favored by the constitution. The motion was then given some of the larger corporations the benefits of the club for a greater number of members. Others of the committee present held that this would give the corporation the right to elect members, breaking the best previous record by 38-15 miles. This record, 366-3-10 miles, was established two years ago by McFarland and Elkes in Madison Square garden.

Five minutes before the finish the tail-enders retired, giving the track to Freeman, Monroe, Leander and Wilson. The four men started away with Leander leading, followed by Freeman, Wilson and Monroe, in the order named. Monroe was poked by Wilson, but in the last spurt he edged his way through and finished second, with Leander third and Wilson fourth.

The teams finished as follows: Freeman and Maya, Monroe and McEachern, Leander and Ruiz, Wilson and Gough, 1,004 miles, 10 laps; Leander and Wilson, 1,004 miles, 10 laps; Hatfield and King, 1,004 miles, 9 laps; Mueller and Barclay, 1,003 miles, 9 laps.

RYAN AFTER SHARKEY.
Tommy Had Better Go and "Get a Reputation" First.

Tommy Ryan's talk about tackling Sharkey brings to mind the time that Ryan was in the sailor's corner when the latter beat McCoy at the Lenox Athletic club. Tom O'Rourke has always maintained that if Ryan's advice had prevailed Sharkey would have been knocked out. Ryan, who believed that he had McCoy's style down fine, insisted that Sharkey should stand up and be clever, that is, box with the shifty Hoosier. O'Rourke let Ryan have his way, with the result that McCoy not only made Sharkey look like a lumbering elephant, but also knocked the sailing down twice in rapid succession in Four teams covered the same distance, 1,004 miles, in 10 laps, breaking the best previous record by 38-15 miles. This record, 366-3-10 miles, was established two years ago by McFarland and Elkes in Madison Square garden.
