A Good Old Age .-- Sister P. Ses sions, of Bountiful, was in the city, today; she is in good health and able to attend to her business though she is now in her ninety-second year.

Benefit Entartainment .- The ad vertisement of the "Day Nursery and Orphans' Entertainment" will be found in this issue. It is to be given at the Salt Lake Theatre on May 20th, and a very attractive programme has been provided, as will be ascertained by an examination of it. It will be a feast for the lovers of good music.

An Alarming Accident - On Friday evening a serious and distressing accident occurred to Tacy Hardy, eight years of age, daughter of Bishop W. B. Hardy, of Mountain Dell. When in the act of drawing a bucket of water she leaned against the boarding that protects the well. She was seized with a sudden pain in the breast, ran into the house told her mother, and shortly after swooned. She was in a restless condition during all of Thursday night. On Friday moraing Drs. Bichards and Bower cut into the locality of the distress and found a needle imbedded in the cartilage, the point reaching the heart. It was extracted and the patient is about all right again. It was an alarming and bonds by Justice Pyper, to await the dangerous accident.

An Excelient House .- In to-day's issue will be found a mammoth advertisement of the extensive house known as the Woolley, Young & Hardy Comcountry. pany-a combination of the firms of Hardy Bros. and Button, L. D. and A. Young & Woolley Bros. & Co. All the gentlemen connected with this large concern are well known and highly respected men of business, and the house is worthy the patronage of the people. They carry a very large stock of general merchandise, every department being complete. They announce that their goods will be disposed of at lowest prices. The large establishment is in the Old Constitution Build Burglar Bound Over .- Of Thursday morning Mr. Wm. W. Winegar, of South Bountiful, Davis County, went away from his home for a few hours, and on returning about noon, discovered that the house had been broken into, and a razor, hat, hatchet, some soap and other articles taken. He suse pected an individual whom he saw going northward along the railway track, and mounting a horse, followed, and captured him with the stolen goods in his possession. The thief refused to give his name, and was booked as John Doe. He was taken before Justice R. E. Egan, who bound him over in $300 to await the action of him over in $300 to await the action of the grand jury. As he was unable to give bonds, he was brought to the city jail this morning by Sheriff D. O. Willey, for safe keeping.
