

SOCIETY

SOCIAL SOCIETY

The largest social event of the week was the reception celebrating the golden wedding anniversary of Judge and Mrs. J. C. Royce which took place at the studio of their daughter, Mrs. Martha Royce King, in the Commercial club block, and was attended by about 200 guests. The rooms were brilliantly lighted and decorated and the affair was a truly brilliant and memorable one.

Another large affair of the week was the reception last night given by Mr. and Mrs. E. Eberhardt, in honor of their son, Alex Eberhardt, and his bride, whose marriage took place last week at the bride's home in Montana. The rooms were bright with a variety of flowers, palms and smilax artistically arranged and the entire affair was delightful.

Mr. J. M. Marriot gave a dinner at the Commercial club on Monday night, covers being laid for 14 guests.

Mrs. Thomas Marionaux gave a delightful luncheon on Thursday, assisted by Mrs. W. G. Tuttle, the rooms being prettily decorated with fruit blossoms and the table and place cards done in the same idea. Brides followed the luncheon, the prizes going to Mrs. J. W. Sharp, Mrs. Lafayette Hanchett, Mrs. J. W. Houston, Mrs. Clarence Warnock. The other guests were Mrs. A. H. Bower, Mrs. M. B. Whitney, Mrs. J. W. Delano, Mrs. George Savage, Mrs. R. E. McConaughy, Mrs. George W. Putnam, Mrs. H. G. Brockman, Mrs. F. E. Johnson and Mrs. W. R. Tyndale.

About 20 guests enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. M. E. Lipman on Thursday, at a card party the prizes in the contest being won by Miss Edna and Miss Harriet Cohn.

Miss Alice Needham was guest of honor at a party given on Thursday, assisted by Mrs. W. S. Hudson and Mrs. E. A. Hanna at the home of the former. The decorations were pink and white tulips and prizes were won by Mrs. F. L. Harding and Mrs. T. E. Newman. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. L. C. Pearson and Miss Helen Hanna.

An important social as well as musical event of the week was the Symphony Orchestra concert, the best element of society being represented.

Mrs. H. M. Wells entertains this afternoon in honor of Mrs. A. R. Hager, who leaves next week for the Philippines.

Mrs. W. H. Dale entertained her card club on Thursday.

The University club on Thursday night added another to its list of delightful dancing parties, a large number enjoying the affair. The decorations were tasteful and appropriate and an excellent orchestra furnished the music.

Mrs. C. W. Field will entertain at bridge next Monday afternoon at her home.

The Monday Afternoon Bridge club will meet next Monday with Mrs. C. D. Moore at the Fifth East hotel.

Mrs. W. E. Fife has issued invitations for a luncheon Monday at the Alta club.

Mrs. Abeline Barnes will entertain at Kensington on Wednesday afternoon, May 1, in honor of Mrs. Gerda Anderson.

Mrs. J. B. Cottrill entertained on Thursday at a large bridge tea, about 50 guests being present. The rooms were decorated with a profusion of lilacs, and the hostess was assisted by Mrs. W. E. Fife, Mrs. Thomas Weir, Mrs. W. C. Alexander, Miss Elizabeth McMillan and Miss Charlotte Holmes. Prizes were awarded the winners at each table including Mrs. F. J. Fabian, Mrs. L. C. Robinson, Mrs. Richard Savage, Mrs. J. J. Broughall, Mrs. A. T. Easton, Mrs. W. D. Donohoe, Mrs. S. D. Evans, Mrs. L. D. Bache, Mrs. F. E. McGurran.

Mrs. H. C. Brownlee was also hostess at a bridge party on Thursday, her function being in honor of Mrs. Hugh L. Thomas and about 20 guests being entertained. The rooms were bright with spring blossoms and prizes were awarded Mrs. F. L. Oswald and Mrs. H. C. Edwards. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. W. T. Benson and Mrs. G. T. Patman.

Mrs. J. L. Townsend was guest of honor at the delightful luncheon on Wednesday given by Mrs. F. J. Richards and Mrs. J. T. Richards, the decorations being in lilacs of the valley and ferns, and covers laid for 12 guests.

This afternoon Mary Gilmer entertains a number of her little friends at a party at her home, games and dancing being among the features.

Miss Josephine Botsford entertained at dinner on Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Mabel Druehl of Chicago.

Mrs. C. E. Penrall entertained her card club this week.

Mrs. C. R. Hill was hostess at a luncheon on Tuesday given in honor of her sister, Mrs. Hendricks, the rooms being prettily decorated and covers laid for sixteen guests. A card game followed in which prizes were won by Mrs. G. W. Putnam and Mrs. H. C. Edwards.

Miss Florence Robbins whose marriage takes place in the near future is guest of honor at a tea this afternoon, given by Mrs. G. M. Douglass.

Mrs. C. C. Crismon entertained the Utopia Club this week.

Mrs. Richard Singley entertained her bridge club on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Leichart gave a luncheon at the country club on Monday in honor of the noted author George

Mr. and Mrs. Grant H. Smith are

JULIA WARD HOWE

WOMAN GUEST OF HONOR.

Julia Ward Howe, famed for two generations in American literature, was the guest of honor at the Peace congress in New York. Famed in patriotism as well as in literature, Mrs. Howe has ever been prominently identified with all movements looking toward peace among the nations and her selection for the honor by the Peace congress is tribute not only to her as a leader but to all American womanhood.

Ade, the table being decorated in pink, and about a half dozen guests being present.

Mrs. L. D. Bache of Omaha was guest of honor at a luncheon given by Mrs. Russell Tracy on Monday, the decorations being in tulips and ferns and covers laid for 12 guests.

Miss Lisadore Taylor was guest of honor at a party given on Thursday, the rooms being bright with flowers and a delightful evening spent. Miss Ruth Taylor assisted the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Masson, of San Francisco, are guests at the home of Mrs. Masson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. McMillan.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Young and children, of Denver, are visiting at the Lawrence home.

Mrs. C. C. Higgins, of Reno, Nev., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will C. Higgins.

Dr. and Mrs. Warren Benjamin have returned from a short visit to the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Moore have moved, and are at home for the present at 13, The Grace.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Scott are now at home at No. 112 Del Mar avenue.

Hooper Dunbar is here from Los Angeles for a visit of a few weeks with friends.

Mrs. Leroy A. Palmer is here from Stockton, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Clint B. Leigh.

Miss Josephine Devereaux has returned from a visit of several weeks in Chicago.

Mrs. A. P. Sinclair will leave the last of the week for Oakland, and later will go to southern California for a time.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Schrott, formerly of Denver, are at home at No. 15 the Wilby.

Mrs. Ralph R. Bittinger is back from a stay of some two months in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Gustin will spend several weeks in Los Angeles.

Mrs. G. K. Ott and her daughter, Mrs. F. G. Clark, leave during the week for Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Thompson have returned from New York.

Mrs. Rachel S. Miller and her daughter, Miss Marie Miller, have returned from a visit of some months in British Columbia. For the present they are at home with Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Beale, 77 K street.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant H. Smith are

THE ALL WHITE EVENING COAT.

A dainty creation of white chiffon and Irish crochet lace is this Maurice Mayer evening coat, in which the lines of the surplice of the Roman church, from which designers borrow so many ideas this season, are readily traceable. There is a poke of plaited white satin, and from this depends the berth of lace. Heavy cotton cords and crochet buttons fasten the garment over the bustline.

will visit with relatives and friends for several weeks.

Mrs. Howard R. Perry of Logan, who has been the guest of Mrs. Benjamin Lockwood at Fort Douglas, has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Gordon have returned from their bridal trip.

Mrs. M. H. Sowles has returned from Los Angeles, where she has spent the past two months.

On Wednesday night Miss Ada B. Swanner and Mr. Ralph W. Flannery were married, the ceremony being performed by Judge Armstrong at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Swanner where a large reception was held, the rooms having a profusion of spring blossoms, cut flowers and palms, and a number of the family and intimate friends assisting. Miss Effie Swanner was bridesmaid and Mr. Irving best man. Mr. and Mrs. Flannery will be at home after June 1 at 411 Eighth East street.

Another wedding of the week was that of Miss Mae McCoy and James Edwards celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McCoy on Tuesday night with Rev. Benjamin Young officiating. A large reception followed, the rooms being beautifully decorated for the event. Miss Zola McCoy acting as bridesmaid and Mr. Fred Davidson best man. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards will reside at 725 Wellington avenue.

The wedding of Miss Birdie Arnold and W. H. Wehwer takes place today at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Arnold.

The marriage of Miss M. Orilla Kearns and Stanley L. Mayer takes place next Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Crismon.

Two Denver weddings of the week of interest to Salt Lake took place in Denver this week when Mr. Paul

L. Beemer and Harry Coombs both of this city, were married, the bride of the former being Miss Mabel Duff of the latter Miss Jeanne Lottimer both of the Colorado capital. Both couples will make Salt Lake their home.

The date set for the marriage of Miss Harriet Cohn and Daniel W. Lipman is Wednesday, May 8.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES
OGDEN.

The brilliant social event of the week was the marriage Wednesday in the Salt Lake Temple of Miss Winifred Edwards of Ogden to Mr. Walter J. Poulton, of Salt Lake City. The happy young couple returned to Ogden in the evening and were given a reception at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. H. E. Woodmansee on South Washington Avenue which was attended by the relatives of the contracting parties, and a few intimate friends. A sumptuous wedding repast was served in the dining room. The home was prettily decorated for the occasion with cut flowers, ferns and evergreens. The evening was spent in vocal and instrumental music, and sociality. The bride and groom are among the most prominent and highly esteemed young couple of the state. Miss Woodmansee is a young lady of charming personality and talented in many ways. She has been one of the most active members of the Weber Stake Sunday School board, and was a leader in social circles. Mr. Poulton is one of Utah's most capable young musicians, is assistant to Prof. McClellan and has classes both in Salt Lake City and Ogden. They will make their home at the capital.

The Sego Lily Circle Women of Woodcraft, will give a reception and card party Friday May 19 at their hall.

Mrs. Nellie Dufur a popular lady of Ogden, was married Thursday to Charles Anderson, of Denver, a well known traveling man for the F. H. Hill company of Chicago. They will make their home at Denver. Mrs. Dufur was well known in social circles in Ogden.

Among the delightful social events of the week was the reception and ball given last evening at the new army building, which was the first social event to be given in the large hall. It was under the auspices of the High School senior class, who did themselves up in showing the large number of guests an evening of real pleasure. An orchestra of 25 pieces under the direction of Prof. Coop furnished excellent music to which the light fantastic was danced until after midnight. The ball was prettily decorated for the occasion with the school colors.

Miss Martha Ellis and H. G. Hosmer, two popular young people of Pleasant View, Weber county, were married this week.

Miss Ella C. Ballard of Los Angeles is visiting in Ogden for a few weeks, with her brother, James Ballard and family.

Miss Laura Ellsworth, and George H. Business, stenographer and bookkeeper, respectively, for the Sidney Stevens implement company, quietly stole away to Salt Lake City Wednesday and were married. After a brief visit at Salt Lake, they will return to Ogden to make their future home. Both of the young people are well known and highly respected in Ogden, and their many friends unite in wishing them every possible happiness.

F. N. Hess accompanied by his wife and children left Ogden this week for Long Beach, California, where Mrs. Hess and the children will spend the summer.

The pupils of the State Industrial school were given a most enjoyable evening Thursday evening when the Fourth ward choir visited the institution and rendered an excellent program of solos, duets and choruses.

Mr. and Mrs. Ritter of Riverdale, gave a telly-sho party last Sunday to the employees of the N. L. Griffin company, and served a spring chicken dinner.

Surveyor Thomas Hull and Douglas Swan of Salt Lake City, were Ogden visitors this week.

Apostle Heber J. Grant was an Ogden visitor Monday at the Weber Stake academy.

PROVO.

The Nineteenth Century club met Friday with Mrs. E. E. Corfman, and listened to an interesting paper by Mrs. George Talmage on "Education the Blind."

The Sorosis met Wednesday with Mrs. E. D. Farrington. Nineteenth Century club rendered the program. Mrs. J. Challen Smith presented an interesting paper on Frances Willard and Mrs. John Marwick one on Florence Nightingale.

The following officers have been elected by the Priscilla club for the ensuing year: President, Hattie Walker; vice president, Hannah Dunn; secretary and treasurer, Fern Smoot.

The Pallas club met Thursday with Miss Maud Beesley and enjoyed an interesting program and refreshments.

The Sixth Ward M. I. A. Sewing club met Wednesday with Mrs. Eliza Nelson. Refreshments were served.

The Five Hundred Card club will meet Tuesday with Mrs. Sam Schwab.

Mrs. E. H. Sparkes was the pleasing hostess at a small dinner party at her home Wednesday afternoon. Covers were laid for twelve. Among the guests were Mesdames Nepht Bates, Parley Magleby and Flora Malben of Richfield.

Chairman Nels Johnson, of the waterworks committee, entertained Mayor Frisby and members of the city council and other city officials to an excellent country dinner at Heist's, in Provo canyon, Wednesday, the occasion being the inspection of the new waterworks system.

Mrs. Simon P. Eggertson entertained a few of her lady friends at her home Monday afternoon. A pleasant social afternoon was passed and a sumptuous dinner enjoyed by all.

Postmaster and Mrs. James Grove were guests of Mrs. H. M. Douglass and family at Springfield Thursday.

Mrs. William T. Jones entertained in honor of the fifth birthday anniversary of her little daughter, Gladys. About twenty children made merry the evening with games and out-door sports. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. John McAdam and mother, Mrs. Ruth Bailey, spent Sunday in Springfield, the guests of Mrs. William Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Daniels entertained at a family dinner at their home Sunday afternoon. Covers were laid for twelve. A sumptuous dinner was served and a pleasant afternoon passed.

Mrs. F. G. Gust of Salt Lake City has returned home after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in this city.

Master Orwin Groneman was the recipient of a pleasant surprise party given Saturday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Groneman. About thirty young people made merry the event which was given in honor of the twelfth birthday of the guest of honor. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Alfred Booth entertained at dinner Thursday, Mesdames Flora Malben, Nepht Bates and Parley Magleby.

Mrs. G. H. Heinzelman entertained at a family dinner at her home Thursday afternoon. Covers were laid for six.

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harris was fittingly celebrated at their home Sunday afternoon by the relatives and a few invited friends. At 5 o'clock a sumptuous dinner was served, after which a social evening was passed.

Postmaster Grove entertained U. S. District Attorney H. E. Booth at Olmstead Wednesday. A pleasant drive up the canyon and a sumptuous dinner was enjoyed.

Miss Lillie Brown has returned from Los Angeles, where she has spent the winter with great benefit to her health.

A large family gathering was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Park of Timpanogos ward, the occasion being Mr. Park's fifty-second birthday anniversary. The day was most pleasantly spent and a fine dinner was enjoyed.

The pupils of Miss Maud Beesley's department in the Franklin school gave a pleasant party in her honor Wednesday in the school. Refreshments were served.

Miss Nettie Knudsen returned today from Heber, where she has been spending the winter.

The banquet given Saturday night in the first ward social hall in honor of the stake M. I. A. officers was a very enjoyable affair, attended by a large number of guests, some of those present being from Salt Lake City.

Mr. Lafayette Holbrook and Miss Florence Holbrook have gone to California, where Mrs. Holbrook is already visiting.

Mrs. W. B. Searle and Miss Elsie Moore were Salt Lake visitors this week.

Mrs. Martha Davis, of Colonia Pachea, Mexico, and Mrs. Mary D. Salisbury of Bingham Junction, are visiting their sister, Mrs. Sarah Monk of this city. The reunion is an interesting and enjoyable one, it being the first time for 25 years the sisters have been together.

Miss Ida Tietjen of Santaquin is spending a few days in Provo.

Mrs. B. F. Fleiner of West Tintic, is visiting friends in Provo.

Miss Esie Reese's class in the Franklin school gave a party in her honor Friday evening. Refreshments were served.

LOGAN.

Logan, April 25—Miss Effie Smith was hostess at a most charming evening party given to a number of her girl friends on Friday last, at which she announced her engagement to Mr. Percy Barrows of Ogden, the marriage to take place in June.

The evening was spent in playing 600 and enjoying a very dainty luncheon. Miss Smith's guests were: Mesdames W. W. McLaughlin, Lorena Mowbray, Henry Gled, Orrin Cousins, the Mesdames Grace Fisher, Nellie Hayball, Allie Bowen, Laura Nebeker, Hilda Elason, Annie Elason, Eunice Jacobson, Janie Roberts, Ina Stratford, Pearl Stratford, Nora Egbert, Maud Egbert, Julia Nibley, Nan Nibley, Amanda Holmgren, Stella Egbert, Josie Munk, Bessie Harwell, Clara Smith, Bertie Johnson, Eva Nebeker, Rose Sorenson, La Vern Worley, Fae Matheson, Ella Stuart, Pearl Gled.

Mrs. Geo. H. Champ was the hostess at the meeting of the U. A. C. Woman's club on Wednesday. It having been the annual business meeting the officers for the coming year were elected.

The Usona society of the B. Y. C. held an interesting meeting on Friday. The program consisted of a book review of the "Sky Pilot," by Miss Dora Wright.

Mr. H. S. Beattie and Mr. Horace Engsign were Logan visitors on Wednesday, having come up from Salt Lake with the M. & N. excursion.

Mr. Herschvogel, manager of the Columbia Phonograph Co. in Salt Lake, spent Wednesday in Logan.

Mrs. D. H. Thomas and Miss Phyllis Thatcher have returned from a visit to Salt Lake.

President Nepht L. Morris and Bishop Roscoe Eardley of Salt Lake were in town on Wednesday.

The reception which was held at the rectory of St. John's church on Thursday evening was a most enjoyable affair.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Matlock of Nevada stopped in Logan a few days this week on their way east.

Miss Carrie McAllister entertained informally in honor of Miss Radio Ormsby of Rexburg one evening this week.

Mrs. Newell Kimball is at home, after

Blacksmiths
and others whose work requires great physical strength and endurance need tissue building foods. Among these there is none so good or so sustaining as

Ghirardelli's Cocoa

delicious

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott and their two sons leave shortly for an European trip, which will extend over three months.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie L. Savage, are here from Goldfield, and are guests at the Goodwin home.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Moore have gone to Ely, Nev., for a few days.

Mrs. C. R. Aley is back from a visit with her parents in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pritchard have for their guest Miss Lawrence of Brooklyn.

Mrs. F. L. Albritton of Montana will arrive early in May to be the guest of her mother, Mrs. E. Bonnemort, for a month.

Mrs. W. R. Wigham has gone to Indianapolis to visit relatives. Later she will go to Niles, Mich.

Rabbi and Mrs. Charles J. Freund are stopping at the Keith apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Pease have returned after a spending most of the winter in California.

Miss Minnie and Miss Lillian Lambourn will leave in a few days for Los Angeles, where they will visit friends for a month.

Mrs. C. W. Macdon of Fort Douglas left this week for New York, where she

GOING! GOING!! GONE!!!

HERPICIDE WILL SAVE IT. HERPICIDE WILL SAVE IT TOO LATE FOR HERPICIDE

(N. B. These drawings are protected by U. S. Trade Mark.)

SAVE YOUR HAIR

WITH

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE.

The time to save your hair, is while you have hair to save. Newbro's Herpicide kills the germ that causes dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair, after which the hair is bound to grow as nature intended (except in cases of chronic baldness.) Herpicide stops itching of scalp almost instantly.

I find that Herpicide will do all you claim for it. I am now on my second bottle and it has cleansed my head nicely and I can see new hair coming in. It also stopped my hair from falling out and I am well pleased with it and will do recommend it to all. (Signed) H. L. LEIGH, Hopkinsville, Ky.

I wish to say that I have used part of the bottle of Herpicide that you sent me and I think it is a good tonic and have recommended it to quite a number of my friends. I believe it will cure dandruff, and it is a splendid and delightful hair dressing. (Signed) H. J. FORDSICK, Memphis, Tenn.

I have given your Herpicide a thorough test. I can cheerfully say that it is the best Hair Tonic I have ever used. It will be one of our household remedies from now on and will surely recommend same to all my friends and acquaintances. (Signed) PETER PEHL, Sedalia, Mo.

You very kindly sent me a bottle of your Herpicide and I gladly answer your inquiry as to its qualities. I have used it now for some time and know it to be the best thing for my hair I have ever used and it keeps my hair free from dandruff and as soft as silk. I have induced several of my friends to use it and they are pleased with it. (Signed) W. M. SHOOK, Nashville, Tenn.

Two Sizes—50c and $1.00 at Drug Stores.
Send 10c in stamps to The Herpicide Co., Dept. L, Detroit, Mich., for a sample.
Z. C. M. I. Drug Co. Special Agents. See Window Display.

Be sure you get Herpicide.
Guaranteed under the Food and Drug Act, June 30, 1906. Serial No. 915.