United States Courts and Departments.

Claims prosecuted in the Supreme Court of the United States, Court of Claims, Court of Commissioners of Alabama Claims, Southern Claims Commission, and all classes of war claims before the Executive Departments.

Arrears of Pay and Bounty.

OFFICERS, SOLDIERS and SAILORS of the late war, or their heirs, are in many cases entitled to money from the Government, of which they have no knowledge. Write full history of service, and state amount of pay and bounty received. Enclose stamp, and a full reply, after examination, will be given you free.

Pensions.

All OFFICERS, SOLDIERS and SAILORS wounded, ruptured, or injured in the late war, however slightly, can obtain a pension; many now receiving pensions are entitled to an increase. Send stamp and information will be furnished free.

United States General Land Office,

Contested Land Cases, Private Land Claims, Mining, Pre-emption and Homestead Cases, prosecuted before the General Land Office and Department of the Interior.

Old Bounty Land Warrants.

The last Report of the Commissioner of the General Land Office shows 2,397,500 acres of Bounty Land Warrants outstanding. These were issued under act of 1855 and prior acts. We pay cash for them. Send by registered letter. Where assignments are imperfect we give instructions to perfect them.

Each department of our business is conducted in a separate bureau, under the charge of experienced lawyers and clerks.

By reason of error or fraud many attorneys are suspended from practice before the Pension and other offices each year. Claimants whose attorneys have been thus suspended will be gratuitously furnished with full information and proper papers on application to us.

As we charge no fee unless successful, stamps for return postage should be sent us.

Liberal arrangements made with attorneys in all classes of business.

Last Night's Dispatches.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Eastern War News.

LONDON, 24.—A Constantinople dispatch says, Suleiman Pasha telegraphs that on August 21, three of his brigades ascended the heights of the Schipka Pass, and in spite of a shower of Russian projectiles, drove back the Russian outpost, and advanced to within 100 yards of the enemy's entrenchments. There was desperate fighting for fourteen hours, and although the Turks retained their ground, the conquered enemy still held their fortified positions, which were defended by fourteen cannon and a large force. The telegram concludes: "To-morrow we shall bring up our siege guns and renew the struggle. We hope to be successful."

Bulletins from the Russian general commanding the Schipka Pass, show that on August 22, the Turks erected two batteries of long range artillery and made trenches, through which they approached the Russian positions. The Russian loss on Aug. 21 was 200, and on the 22nd much less.

The latest bulletin recounts the operations of Thursday: It says, the Turkish fire commenced at half-past four in the morning, and lasted with great violence until noon; meanwhile the Turks made several desperate assaults, but were repulsed. Our heroes did not yield a foot. At noon the firing slackened, and the reserves, under Radetsky, began to arrive. Our losses have been great. The population of Giurgevo has been ordered to leave because of the cannonade between Rustchuk and the Russian batteries, on the northern bank of the Danube.

Accounts of the battle before Eski Djuma are very fragmentary and conflicting. The numbers engaged do not appear to have been very great, although the battle was stubbornly contested.

A Vienna special says, the Russians numbered 7,000 and the Turks 14,000. According to the Russian official account the Turks took the offensive in great force, on August 22nd, and drove back two Russian battalions from Jaslar. Skirmishing continued throughout the night. Next day, the 23rd, the Turks made three attacks in the neighborhood of Jaslar, but these were brilliantly repulsed. A renewal of the attack is expected.

A dispatch, dated Eski Djuma, Thurday night, reports that steady fighting has been going on for the last thirty-six hours between the Turkish advanced posts and the Russians, who are attacking in force along the line from Jaslar to Popkoi. The Turks were at first driven in, but were reinforced, and retook their original positions, which they hold at this moment.

Misery and Destitution.

Mr. Fawcett, sent by Layard, the British Minister, to report upon the condition of the fugitives south of the Balkans, and to distribute relief, writes "Even all that is written gives no adequate idea of the extent of the misery and destitution among the refugees, or the barbarities perpetrated on both sides. The British Relief Committee at Adrianople, after careful investigation, have ascertained that over 10,000 fugitive women and children need relief at once. Of these 1,700 are Jews and 5,000 Turks."

Freedom of the City.

GLASGOW, 24.—The town council has unanimously resolved to present the freedom of the city to Gen. Grant, on the occasion of his approaching visit.

GERMANY.

Plague.

BERLIN, 24.—Plague having broken out in Russian Poland, the German frontier has been closed by a strong military guard.

You can buy land in Texas for forty-five cents an acre; but the trouble is, that in most localities you can find use for only about six feet of it.—Rochester Democrat.
