

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—To-night, the Fall season will commence at the Theatre. The opening piece, by a gentleman connected with the press in San Francisco, has attained considerable celebrity in the Theatrical world.

THE MASS MEETING POSTPONED.—The mass meeting appointed for Monday next, will be postponed for a few weeks; when it is desired to convene it due notice will be given.

MISS LOCKHART'S BENEFIT.—We understand that sometime during the coming week, Miss Annie Lockhart, so long and favorably known to the public of Salt Lake City, will take a benefit at the Theatre.

A CURIOUS FINISH TO A RUN-AWAY.—Yesterday afternoon a span of horses, hitched to a wagon standing near Col. Little's Co-operative Wagon Manufacturing, started off at a furious rate.

ARRIVAL AT LIVERPOOL.—By a letter from Elder John Jacques, who left this city a short time since for Liverpool, we learn that he arrived off Queestown, Ireland, on the evening of Wednesday the 11th ult., and reached Liverpool at 3 o'clock on the Friday morning following.

BEAR LAKE COMING UP.—We had a fine specimen of turnips, three in number, left here this morning, from St. Charles, Rich County, Bear Lake Valley.

OUR WESTERN BOUNDARY.—The Omaha Herald of the 31st ult., contains the following: "Mr. D. Van Etten, of this city, has been selected to survey the boundary line between the State of Nevada and the Territory of Utah, and if certain stipulations which he has made be approved, he will accept the position and commence operations as soon as his partner, Mr. Bradburn, returns from his surveying tour, making the southerly portion of the line during the winter."

HEALTHY PLACE—SPLENDID REPORT.—The Colorado, (Denver) Tribune of the 1st inst., says, that during the month of August "There were seven births, seven marriages and two deaths in the month of August, in Denver." Salt Lake City can beat that by far.
