

west of Port Arthur, the Japanese have 200 guns concealed in a corn field.

RUSSIANS FELL BACK.
Liao Yang, Aug. 29 (Delayed in transmission).—Throughout Aug. 27 and 28 the Russian eastern divisions continued to fall back in good order on Liao Yang, but the movement was slow on account of bad roads and the difficulty of transporting the heavy artillery. The Japanese pressed closely several times with light batteries, dragging guns to the hills and shelling the troops whose retirement was covered by Russian gunners. Consequently there were frequent artillery duels.

Gen. Marston was wounded and there were other losses of about 200 men.

The Japanese scored an extremely active today (Monday). Rain is falling, but the rumble of artillery can still be heard on the eastward.

The Russian retreat from Anshan-shan was ordered for strategic reasons, practically no resistance being offered. A light screen of batteries facing the Japanese guns beautifully disposed on a chain of hills marked the withdrawal of the main force. When night fell the batteries also took up their retreat, their rear-guard lighting bivouac fires to conceal the movement. But the Japanese soon discovered this ruse and pressed forward, coming up with the Russian rear-guard Sunday morning. For an hour the light batteries were hotly engaged. To the lot of the Omak Tobolsk and Krasnovorsk regiments fell the duty of covering the retreat of Gen. Zaroubait's fourth Siberian army corps. The task was difficult, as the enemy continued to advance, deploying light mountain guns against the Russian rear and left flanks, and it was imperative that the enemy should be held back to permit the removal of the baggage and artillery trains. The rails were washed out and heavy with mud produced by the deluge of rain preceding Friday. Many guns were mired and the horses exhausted. "Con-sack" and infantrymen were harnessed to the guns and managed to haul them along. It was slow work, but was successfully accomplished. The greatest difficulty of the retirement on the east front was experienced at Van-huipass, where it was necessary to hold the Japanese in check until the artillery train passed through and also to keep in touch with the Tenth army corps, commanded by Gen. Herschel-mann, to the north, as well as with the southern division, in order to prevent a turning movement.

From dawn until dark the eastern troops, although fatigued by four days' fighting, sustained a rear forward action.

EARL OF EUSTON ARRIVES IN CITY.

Representative of King Edward Of England Comes in From The East.

D. & R. C. HANDLES TEMPLARS.

Bureau of Information Working Over-Time at the Depot—All Trains Two Sections.

This afternoon a distinguished party of Englishmen and American Templars arrived in Salt Lake over the Rio Grande in the private car of President A. B. Stickney of the Chicago Great Western railway. In the party were Rt. Hon. the Earl of Euston, M. E., and Supreme Grand Master of the Knights Templars for England and Wales, personal representative of his majesty King Edward of England. Accompanying him were Charles Fitzgerald Muller, Thomas Fraser, A. J. Thomas, Rev. C. E. L. Wright, T. P. Dorman and Abraham Woodruff. The party was met at Provo by L. O. Rhoades and Clem Schramm, thirty-second K. C. of I. I., who accompanied the visitors to Salt Lake where the rest of the local committee appointed was on hand to greet the strangers. The local committee was composed of Mrs. C. E. L. Wright, H. M. Cushing in addition to those already named.

After arriving here the party was driven to the hotel where a reception had been arranged. They will remain over night in the city continuing on their way to San Francisco on No. 3 tomorrow morning.

In addition to those the Harper Commandery of Indianapolis and the Montpelier lodge of Chicago, the latter 40 strong and in charge of W. H. Poole, came in in a swell Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul sleeper on No. 5.

All trains today from the east came in two sections and the Rio Grande depot presented a very animated appearance. The information bureau established by the Rio Grande with Harry Smith in charge, was besieged early and late by the tourists who asked for all kinds of information and things, from how many Chives Mr. Smith had to a request for an ambulance to take a sick lady to the hospital.

Special arrangements have been made with practically all of the railroads of the United States for transportation to and from the convention.

DIVORCED IN LESS THAN A DAY

Quick Record in the Case of Viola L. Rhine Against Harry Rhine.

SUIT WAS FILED YESTERDAY.

Elizabeth Griffiths Granted a Decree From Joseph Griffiths—Other Cases.

A pretty quick record was made in the divorce suit of Viola L. Rhine against Harry Rhine which was filed in the district court yesterday. Today Judge Morse rendered a decree of divorce in favor of plaintiff in the case. Plaintiff and defendant were married in this city on Oct. 13, 1903 and ever since the marriage defendant has refused to provide for her. The decree allows her to resume her maiden name, Viola L. Layne.

HUSBAND WAS CRUEL.

Elizabeth Griffiths was granted a divorce today by Judge Morse from Joseph Griffiths upon the grounds of cruelty and habitual drunkenness. They were married in this city on July 18, 1895, and defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards plaintiff for more than 10 years past. According to the testimony in the case he has called plaintiff out by a jury. A rather strange coincidence in connection with the two cases is that the attorney who defended him in that case appeared as attorney for the plaintiff in the divorce case. The decree of the court restores to her her maiden name, Sarah F. Wright.

THE GERBERS SEPARATED.

Judge Stewart today granted Sarah F. Gerber, a divorce from A. E. Gerber, on the grounds of non-support. They were married in this city on Dec. 22, 1897. Gerber was tried during the last term of the district court for criminal conduct with a young girl but was acquitted by a jury. A rather strange coincidence in connection with the two cases is that the attorney who defended him in that case appeared as attorney for the plaintiff in the divorce case. The decree of the court restores to her her maiden name, Sarah F. Wright.

HAWAIIAN FEAST.

Members of Iosepa Colony Commemorate Pioneer Anniversary.

On Friday, Aug. 26, President Henry P. Richards, Vice President L. John Nuttall, Secretary and Treasurer John T. Caine of the Iosepa Agricultural & Stock company left by train for the colony in Skull valley. At Grantsville they were joined by Director Samuel W. Woolley and President and Manager Thos. A. Waddoups, and had dinner at the home of Director Woolley, his estimable wife and daughter making the party most enjoyable. The object of the colony was made to attend the usual annual feast in commemoration of the arrival of the native pioneers to the colony; also to attend the annual meeting of the colony, and the welfare in the gathering of the crops and proper care thereof and the general management.

On Monday evening the Relief society met and held a social. A beautiful quilt had been made by the native sisters, which they desired to dispose of to raise funds in aid of the society. The quilt was made of native materials and was placed in a box. The purchase would pay 25 cents for each ticket, which he would pick out of the box. The quilt was taken up on the wall, a number having been placed upon it, and covered with a white sheet. The social opened by singing and prayer, after which the first counselor explained the object of the meeting. Two native sisters then entered into a dialogue. A small boy and girl sang a duet, and a sister gave a brief outline of the organization of the Relief society at the meeting. In which they were working, which was very commendable. Then there was a mandolin and guitar duet and benediction. The feast was then uncovered and all holding tickets were anxious to see the number thereon. Sister Larson, daughter of Brother and Sister Larson, who have charge of the "Deer" ranch, was the lucky purchaser. Eighty tickets were sold at 25 cents each, realizing $20.

Saturday morning, Aug. 27, was spent viewing the stacks, barbed wire lands, etc., belonging to the colony. In commemoration of the fifteenth anniversary of the arrival of the pioneers at Iosepa, the day being the 15th day of August, the usual feast having been prepared by the natives, assisted, of course, by Manager Waddoups, the ceremonies commenced at 1 p. m. In the house, which had been nicely decorated, Old Glory being in evidence. A few remarks were made by Manager Waddoups pertaining to the feast and after a program of exercises, and his blessing the food, all present entered upon the festivities of the occasion. The company was seated at ten tables, each 35 feet long, upon which were spread roast pig, roast beef, poi, potatoes, bread, pies and cakes of various kinds and other luxuries.

The pig, weighing about 125 pounds, and some 25 pounds of beef, had been roasted in the manner in which food is prepared in their native land. A hole was dug, then nearly filled with dry wood, which was covered with rocks. Fire having been put to the wood made the rocks quite hot. Then the rocks were covered with corn stalks, the pig and beef were laid thereon, a little water was poured over the meat, and the meat was then covered with corn stalks over which was placed some heavy cloths and then covered with dirt. In about two and a half to three hours the feast was ready to be eaten, and in the most approved style.

After the feasting, a program which had been prepared, was carried out. Elder J. K. S. Madsen delivered a brief address pertaining to the pioneers and their early days. Four elderly pioneer sisters sang, and Sister Elena Makala followed with another pioneer address, more in detail, giving a history and the names of the pioneers, those who have moved away, the number born, those who have died, and those who still remain. There was a song by four young men, also pioneers. President Henry P. Richards made a brief address in the Hawaiian language, followed by music, a mandolin and guitar duet, which was encored. The surviving pioneers were called to the stand and Elder Nuttall congratulated them and recommended that a complete record be kept of the colony. The survivors were called to the stand and Elder Nuttall congratulated them and recommended that a complete record be kept of the colony. The survivors were called to the stand and Elder Nuttall congratulated them and recommended that a complete record be kept of the colony.

There were 22 of the natives, men, women and children present. 65 of whom are now residents of the colony; also 18 white residents, and 10 white visitors making a total of 100. The remnants of the feast were taken care of by the committee, and afterward distributed by them to the several Hawaiian families.

In the afternoon the directors drove to the "Deer" ranch, and found the fruit orchards, grape vineyard and the ranch in general in good condition. Some apples and plums and considerable grapes will be gathered.

On Sunday, Aug. 28, the Sabbath school opened at 10 a. m. The usual opening exercises and the department exercises were entered into. The primary department consists of nine boys and five girls, natives, and five boys, white. Counselor Willard J. Cole and a native sister are teachers.

The Second Intermediate department consists of seven young men and seven young women, natives, and three young men and two young women, whites. Manager Waddoups teacher.

The Theological department consists of 12 elderly sisters, and five brethren, two of whom are non-support. The Sunday school outlines are up-to-date. Elder Nuttall visited the departments and spoke to the school, followed by Elders Richards and Caine in encouraging remarks.

The conference convened at 2 p. m. in the bovery which had been nicely prepared and seated.

The usual opening exercises were rendered at the Sacramento meeting. The general and local authorities were presented and accepted.

Elder Samuel W. Woolley was the first speaker, his address being interpreted by Elder William Waddoups who returned from a mission to the Sandwich Islands about three months since.

Elder Henry P. Richards spoke in the Hawaiian language, and John T. Caine then spoke followed by Elder Nuttall, whose remarks were interpreted by Manager Thomas A. Waddoups. Elder William Waddoups then spoke in the native tongue.

By action of the members of the board present in consideration of the indebtedness of the brethren of the colony in the raising of their crops and the caring of them, Manager Waddoups announced that when the crops are all gathered and the grain thrashed the company would provide a "harvest home" feast, to conclude with a dance, to which every member of the colony, also the people of the neighboring ranches were cordially invited. A time of good feeling and refreshment was enjoyed by all.

Some matters of business were attended to on Saturday evening. The members of the board with Manager Waddoups left on Monday morning and were again made welcome by Sister Woolley and daughters at their home at Grantsville. They arrived in Salt Lake at 5:35 p. m.

INVESTIGATING MURDER THEORY.

The coroner's inquest over the body of Wilford A. S. Virmlion, who was killed in his drugstore on the night of Aug. 22, was resumed before Coroner Clark today.

Frank Gilland, proprietor of a lunch stand testified that he had been in town on that night with his two daughters, and that he had returned to his shop at 10:30 o'clock. He said that he had gone to the back of the shop and that he heard a shot, and looking toward the drug store, from which direction the sound seemed to come, saw a man run past Dr. Hazell's corner, turning into Fourth West street from Second South street.

The man was running rapidly, according to Gilland, and turned, after crossing Fourth West street, into the alleyway between the drug store and the corner. He was then lost to sight in the shrubbery. On the following morning Gilland went over the ground covered by this man, and he says, found several foot marks, and an adjournment was taken to the latter part of the week.

ALUMINUM CLAY.

Discovery of Large Deposits near Cullisac, Idaho, Creates Excitement.

(Special to the "News.")
Cullisac, Idaho, Aug. 30.—Considerable excitement prevails here over the reported discovery of large deposits of aluminum clay near the brick plant north of this city. The extent of the deposit has not yet been determined, but land owners in all parts of the country are prospecting for the clay, and it is stated that discoveries have been made in several localities, showing that a large area may be expected to carry the valuable metal.

It is understood the organization of a separate company is now under way to exploit the land held by the brick company and to determine the extent of the deposit. The company will also arrange for the extracting of the aluminum, if the first investigations reveal the necessary values.

WHOOPIING IT UP FOR RALLY TONIGHT

Two Thousand Small Flags Are Bought for This Evening's Demonstration.

LOCAL REPUBLICANS GET BUSY

Fine Musical Program and Long List Of Party Speakers—General Political Notes.

The Young Men's Republican club is whooping things up big and hard for tonight's rally in the Theater. If there is a frost it will not be the fault of that organization. But there is small likelihood of a frost so far as attendance or interest is concerned. The workers say it will be warm enough and that they will leave the frost making business to the organ that is doing its best to blot without saying so direct.

There is a fine musical program and a long array of speakers—men whose names appeared in the "News" last night. The committee on arrangements today purchased 2,000 small flags that are to be used in some patriotic demonstration during the evening. Every effort is being made to fill the Theater to its utmost, and if there is failure it will not be because of lack of work or advertising.

LIKES THE NOMINATION.

What California Paper Has to Say Regarding John C. Cutler.

According to this morning's press dispatches, the Republican party of Utah has placed in nomination Hon. John C. Cutler of Lake City for governor of Utah. We are pleased to learn of the nomination of Mr. Cutler, who has the reputation of being one of the most progressive men in the state of Utah.

Something like a year ago Mr. Cutler visited San Pedro, at which time he purchased some valuable property, among which is the southeast corner of Fifth and Center streets. Mr. Cutler is very enthusiastic as to the future of San Pedro, and predicted a wonderful growth upon the completion of the Salt Lake road and the government breakwater.

Mr. Cutler is a member of the Mormon Church; however, San Pedrans who were former residents of Utah, say that he is very liberal in his views, and that the Republican party has made a wise nomination. Success to you, Governor John C. Cutler!—San Pedro Times.

MARKET IGNORED LONDON HEAVINESS

First Prices Were Improvements, But Snap and Vigor of Yesterday Was Lacking.

IN AFTERNOON TENDED DOWN.

Movement Occasionally Checked by Covering Purchases—Union Pacific Sold Off.

New York, Aug. 30.—First prices of stocks today were at improvements over yesterday's figures, the market ignoring the London heaviness. But little of yesterday's snap and vigor attended the early dealings and fluctuations were comparatively narrow. Selling orders in St. Paul and Anaconda Copper depressed the market half a point immediately after the opening, and there was a sympathetic easing off at other points. Bidding up of Reading and United States Steel preferred to 61 rallied the market, but the general response was slight.

An advance of 1/4 in Brooklyn Transit bled out a widely exploited uptrend and facilitated a number of large block deals. The direction of prices being back discouraging to the bull operators, including St. Paul, Missouri Pacific, Union Pacific and Copper, all of which sold below yesterday's closing. The market for stocks, such as Northwestern, Kansas & Texas preferred, New Jersey Central and C. & O. & St. Louis, fell, the effects of retelling and lost 1/2 to 1 points and Hocking Valley, A. Chicago and San Francisco preferred advanced 1/2. The market at noon was heavy in tone.

Bonds were steady at noon. Both the Metropolitan stocks were forced down 1/2, but trading generally was comparatively light.

The direction of prices in the afternoon was downward, although the movement was occasionally checked by covering purchases. The St. Paul and southwestern stocks received the least support. St. Paul and Atchafalpa yielded 1/2. St. Louis, Southwestern 3 and the preferred 1/2.

Closing: Prime mercantile paper, 2 1/2 per cent.

Exchange steady with actual business in bankers' bills at 47.50-48.50 for demand and at 48.50-49.50 for 60 day bills; posted rates, 4.85-4.95; commercial bills, 4.84-4.94.
