Wool Market.

BOSTON, 5.—Wool has been steady the past week. Prices were well sustained, as stocks of all desirable kinds are comparatively small. The transactions of the week were 1,423,000 pounds, including 450,000 pounds of Ohio and Pennsylvania at 40 @ 41 for medium and X Ohio and 46½ for X X. A lot of 29,000 pounds of very choice X X X New York sold at 42, but good average does not bring over 35 @ 37; 65,000 pounds of New York and Vermont sold at 35 @ 36. Some 78,000 pounds of Michigan, Wisconsin, and New Hampshire sold at 36 @ 37½, this is a fair range for good average lots. Pulled wool is in fair demand. The principal sales of super and X have been in the range of 35 @ 40, with sales of choice eastern and Maine super at 42½ @ 45, down to 30 for low. Western combing and delaine is very scarce, a little has been done and quotations are almost entirely nominal. In combing, the pulled sales have been 14,000 pounds at from 45 @ 48½, the latter being for fine. New California continues to arrive freely. The stock of Fall is considerably reduced. Sales of this description have been 588,500 pounds at from 15 @ 25, mostly from 15½ @ 18; in new Spring sales have been 27,000 pounds at from 21 @ 26 for good choice lots of southern, up to 30 for choice northern, and latter price is the extreme quotation for most desirable lots of northern.

Pinney Surrenders.

SAN FRANCISCO, 5.—George M. Pinney surrendered himself to the authorities to-day, and was held in bail of $20,000 to answer two charges of forgery of Government securities. Pinney is very reticent and decines to be interviewed. As to the object of his return it is admitted that he comes by the intercession of prominent bankers and capitalists of this city, who hold certificates of purchase bearing the alleged signature of Pay Inspector Spalding. Capt. Lees, state detective, says Pinney took away with him about $10,000. Pinney says that the stories to the effect that he has returned with the purpose of getting even on his enemies and stirring up a terrible tempest in political circles is all nonsense. He has a story to tell, but declines to make it public until called upon to give his testimony in court. United States District Attorney Coghlan says he has received no instructions to proceed against Pinney and is cognizant of no negotiations for the suppression the suits. It is understood, however, that Government has given Pinney assurances of protection provided he became States witness in the suit for the recovery of the amounts loaned on the certificates. He knows who got the money, and can render valuable aid in recovering it. He will be arraigned early next week, but the trial may not commence until the next term of the court.

Australasian News.

News per the steamer Zealandia, from New South Wales, says the ministry went out on a vote of want of confidence, and Mr. Parke, who moved it, took the office as premier, his postmaster general being Hon. Mr. Samuel, who negotiated for a mail contract with the Pacific Mail Company, in concert with Thomas Russell, of New Zealand. The new ministry was re-elected, and the business of parliament proceeded with.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The "Times" on the War Question.

LONDON, 5.—The Times says Gladstone's resolutions threaten to do something worse than throw the Liberal party into confusion. In ordinary times the breaking of party bonds might doubtless be borne with serenity, but these are not ordinary times. The government must soon come to decisions of incalculable importance tending to make peace secure or place the country on that slippery incline of menace which too often ends in war. Bitter personal animosities are enlisted in favor of a course which would be disastrous. Political rivalries are aiding reckless advisers, and it may be the dissensions of Parliament are not entirely absent from ministerial councils, although the good sense of the public will, we believe, defeat the promptings of passion. It certainly cannot afford to lose the Parliamentary influence which has been most powerfully exerted on the side of peace, yet by destroying the effective force of the Liberal party at this moment, Gladstone has put his great authority at the command of traders. In the passions of war, the Liberal party is split into factions, some of which will vote for Gladstone's resolutions and others for the previous question. The rent may easily grow wider, one section becoming more and more ready to combat against Turkish misrule, while another may drift towards those Conservatives who are as wax in the hands of the government. The immediate effect of this disunion must be not only to give the ministry a great majority, which is a matter of little consequence, but we fear to strengthen the faction which is clamoring for war.

Last Night's Dispatches.

EASTERN.

Surrender of Crazy Horse and Other Hostile Chiefs, with their Bands.

CAMP ROBINSON, Neb., 6.—The surrender of Crazy Horse's band took place at this point at 2 p.m. to-day. The whole affair passed off very quietly. The band numbers nearly 1,300 souls, under Crazy Horse, Little Hawk-he-dog, and Little Big-man. Crazy Horse said he was making this peace to last. The ponies surrendered are estimated to number nearly 3,500. They seem to be in very good condition, and there are many American horses and mules among them. As soon as the lodges were erected, a detachment of Indian soldiers, under Lieut. Clark, of Gen. Crook's staff, went to each one and obtained the number of its inmates, as well as the surrender of all the arms. This task is not yet completed, but up to the time of writing over 100 guns have been obtained, chiefly improved breech-loaders. Crazy Horse gave up three Winchester rifles, and Little Hawk gave up two. The Indians present a good appearance, but their village shows signs of unceasing pursuit the past year. Many of the lodges are very old, and almost in rags. Great numbers of this band have never been on a reservation before. Little Hawk, one of the principal chiefs, wears about his neck the silver medal presented to his father by President Monroe, in 1817. This arrival makes the aggregate number of northern Indians who have surrendered to General Crook at Red Cloud and Spotted Tail agencies since March, nearly 3,600, and does away with the necessity of a military expedition the coming summer. General McKenzie will hold a council with Crazy Horse and the other chiefs to-morrow or the day after.

The Extra Session — Proclamation by President Hayes.

WASHINGTON, 6.—The objections to postponing the extra session of Congress have all been waived, and the following was issued this afternoon by the President:

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, The final adjournment of the 44th Congress without making the usual appropriation for the support of the army for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1878, presents the extraordinary occasion of requiring the President to exercise the power vested in him by the Constitution to convene both Houses of Congress in anticipation of the day fixed by law for their next meeting;

Now, therefore, I, Rutherford B. Hayes, President of the United States, do by virtue of the power in me vested by the Constitution, convene both Houses of Congress to assemble at their respective chambers at noon on Monday the 15th day of October next, then and there to consider and determine such measures as in their wisdom and duty the welfare of the people may seem to demand.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my name, etc.

(Signed) R. B. HAYES,
By the President.
WM. EVARTS,
Secretary of State.

Gen. Crook and the Indians.

Brigadier Gen. Crook had a long conference, to-day, with the Secretary of the Interior and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs in regard to the removal of the Sioux agencies to the Missouri river, and on the Indian question generally. Secretary Schurz and Commissioner Smith entirely concur with General Crook in his view that the Indians should be compelled to work for their rations, and the conference, to-day, was mainly with a view to ascertain how the labor of the Indians could be utilized in the interests of both the Indians and the Government. No definite conclusion was reached as to the precise location of the new agencies, but it seems certain that the Indians will not be removed until next autumn, as during the warm season the Indians will be disposed to straggle off on hunting expeditions, but will be easily collected and held together on the approach of cold weather.

The Indian Renegades.

Indian Agent Clum telegraphs to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs that the military have rendered him valuable aid in his mission for the return of the renegade Chiricikuas to the San Carlos agency and that the number he is taking back there exceeds 450.

Government Advertising.

Postmaster General Key, Secretary Thompson, of the Navy, and Secretary Schurz, of the Interior, have made a commendable move concerning the advertising in their departments. The departments will, as usual, designate the papers, but the advertisements will be placed by a firm of advertising experts, who will examine and correct all bills in the light of experience obtained in the commercial advertising business. Under this system Government will pay no more for advertising than a commercial firm pays for the same service, and whatever abuses may have been possible in former years will exist no longer. The leading papers of the country endorse this system.

Mail Service.

The post office department has issued orders to place mail service on the Southern Pacific Railroad from San Bernardino to Yuma, and curtail the present stage service between San Bernardico and Prescott, by making it leave the railroad at Los Palmos.

No Official Information of War.

The department of State has not yet been officially informed through the proper Russian source of the existence of war between Russia and Turkey. Every proper measure will be taken to strictly observe our neutral relations, while yielding no rights of our citizens under the treaties and international law. There is reason to believe that the Russian ships will soon depart from our waters.

Debt Statement.

The official statement issued by the Treasury department, shows that the decrease of the United States debt from March 1st, 1869, to April 30th, 1877, was $255,104,642.

$10,000 Fire.

CINCINNATI, O., 6.—The residence of J. N. Doniphan, of East Walnut Hills, was burned to-night; loss $10,000.

Tweed's Confession.

NEW YORK, 6.—Tweed's confession, was recently submitted to Attorney General Fairchilds, and Wheeler H. Peckham. Tweed's release depends on Peckham's report to the Attorney General on the confession.

The Papal Jubilee.

The Herald's London special says a delegation, headed by the Duke of Norfolk, left London yesterday for Rome to attend the Papal Jubilee. He bears a congratulatory address, with five hundred thousand signatures. The Pope will receive the delegation on ascension day.

Emigration—Shipment of Horses.

Of all the emigration during the past three months, forty-eight per cent. has gone to America and thirty-five to Australia.

Fifty-four horses, shipped from California, to-day, to England, have reached here within a few days. They arrived in good condition, and their coming is believed to be the presage of a large importation in the future.

A Confidence Game.

Nicholas McCoy, an Oregon cattle dealer, arrived here on Saturday with $5,000 in gold, intending to sail for Europe, but lost all his money by a confidence game.

The Missing Man Found.

WOODSIDE, L. I., 6.—The body of a suicide was found hanging in an old house near this place, and has been recognized as John T. Daly, the missing proprietor of the Windsor Hotel.

The body was found by a young man who was passing the spot, and went into the house to explore it from curiosity. The police were notified and took possession of the remains. Mr. Daley's money and jewelry were in his pockets undisturbed. He had fastened himself by his handkerchief. There was a bullet wound in his head and at his feet lay a revolver from which it is evident that before hanging he had attempted to commit suicide by shooting.

Steamer Disabled at Sea.

BOSTON, 6.—The steamship China has arrived from Liverpool and reports that on April 30th, in lat. 42 deg, 21 m., lon. 33 deg. 20 m., she signalized the steamer Sidonian, of Glasgow, from New York to Bristol, disabled; she required a surgeon; sent the ship's surgeon on board, who reported that on the 29th the boilers exploded, killing the captain, three engineers, two firemen, and one trimmer, and injuring the cook.

When the surgeon of the China went on board the men fatally injured were all dead but one fireman, who, when asked the cause of explosion, he answered, "I will tell you in the morning," but he died in a few minutes, and it was impossible to learn the cause. The Sidonian proceeded under sail, and will not arrive at its destination under two weeks.
