STAGE ANTICS.

Some years ago, when Macready was performing in Chicago, he was unfortunate enough to offend one of the actors, a native American of Western type. This person, who was cast for the part of Claudius in "Hamlet," resolved to pay off the star for many supposed offenses. So in the last scene, as Hamlet stabbed the usurper, the monarch reeled forward, and after a most spasmodic finish, stretched himself out precisely in the place Hamlet required for his own death. Macready, much annoyed, whispered:

"Die further up the stage, sir!"

The monarch lay insensible. Upon which, in a still louder voice, Hamlet growled:

"Die further up the stage, sir!"

Hereupon Claudius, sitting up, observed:

"I believe I'm King here, and I'll die where I please."

So the tragedy concluded.

Paris is getting sick of legs. There is actually a demand for brains in theatrical circles.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

YEAR 1868.

WE return our sincere thanks to the People for the liberal Patronage we have received, and in view of the great scarcity of money and the decline in the value of some kinds of Goods east, we have determined to offer our Stock at a heavy Discount for

CASH!

We will allow a Discount of TEN PER CENT, on all Groceries, except Tea, Sugar, Coffee, Candles and Soap.

A Discount of TEN PER CENT, on all Dry Goods, Clothing and Hardware, except Nails, Horse and Mule Shoes.

A Discount of TWENTY PER CENT, on Hoods, Nubias, and all Goods of this description, including Hats and Caps.

A Discount of from TEN to TWENTY PER CENT, on all kinds of Dishes, Plates, Cups and Saucers, Glassware, Castors, &c., &c.

ARGUMENT:

THIS we think better for the Customer than Enterprises on the Lottery Plan, these having been tried elsewhere and not found profitable to the investor.

The People know quite well already who sells the Cheapest and Best Goods, and when they get them, knowing them to be cheap, and then get a Discount of from Ten to Twenty per Cent, we think they will come to the conclusion that it is better to have the full benefit of what they spend at once and on the spot, than take ONE chance in FIFTY of drawing something, some time in the future.

You are not required to purchase "Ten Dollars" worth to entitle you to the Discount, but we will allow it in all cases, whether the purchase be large or small.

This is to give the poor man or poor woman, who cannot get hold of "Ten Dollars," a chance to buy Goods Cheap.

COME AND TRY IT.

WHY DO WE OFFER THESE TERMS? Because we are like most of our neighbors wanting money badly.
