A Testimonial.

The Saints of Almy Ward, Wyoming, in token of their respect to the memory of the late Elder Henry Cummock, recently adopted the following preamble and resolutions:

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

WHEREAS, This ward is called to mourn the departure of our beloved brother, Elder Henry Cummock, who departed this life on October 17th, 1887, through injuries received when at his employment in mines on the 22d of September, 1887; and

Whereas, Realizing how inadequate are words to fully express our sorrow on the sad occasion, we yet desire to place on record a memorial of the departed; therefore be it

Resolved, That the many admirable qualities of heart and intellect which distinguished Elder Henry Cummock, his integrity, sagacity, energy and sympathy and labors for the development of the best interest of his fellow men, make his death a misfortune; while his lively interest in the Third Elder's Quorum, and Sunday school, of which he was secretary, together with his wisdom and keen appreciation of the needs of the people, render our loss in him a misfortune.

Resolved, That our regret for his departure is tempered only by thankfulness for his relief from his protracted suffering; and while convinced of his present happiness and future glory, we submit in this, as in all other things, to the decree of our Heavenly Father, in the assurance that His purposes are wise and beneficent, and that while our brother's death is our loss, it is his gain.

Resolved, That we condole with the bereaved family and the many warm and personal associates of our departed brother, in their grief in parting with so kind a husband, father and brother, and that they have our most earnest sympathy.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread on the record of the Quorum and a copy sent to the family of the deceased.

Van Meyer Gets Six Months.

This morning's Ogden Herald gives the following concerning a case that was disposed of in the First District Court yesterday:

Chas. H. Van Meyer, who had been brought from the penitentiary to plead to a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, entered a plea of guilty.

Van Meyer is a doctor who gained considerable notoriety during last summer by his fantastic operations in several connections. He was arrested on a charge of fornication, and lived at the government boarding house at Salt Lake City for a short time. He evaded the law against fornication by marrying the girl with whom the crime was alleged to have been committed, and who is a resident of Farmington. Upon his release from the "pen," he was charged with having served a dishonest trick upon the family of Mr. Daniel Rawson, who was in the penitentiary at the same time, by obtaining some money from them upon a forged note, which he alleged had been written by Mr. Rawson. Upon this status of affairs being discovered, a warrant was issued or his arrest. Sheriff Belnap went to Oxford and found his man, and on the way found him to be a rather scaly prisoner. At one time he escaped and gave the officer a long chase, and was finally found in a slough covered up to his neck in grass and rushes, and thoroughly saturated with water.

He was indicted by the grand jury. Being unable to find bonds he has since remained in the "pen," where it is said he was very roughly treated by the other prisoners, for the reason that he had defrauded one of their number. He was very anxious to be sentenced at once and the court set 2 o'clock yesterday as the time for judgment to be passed.

He presented a particularly light and airy appearance, yesterday, being in the full summer garb he had worn when arrested in July, and his attire accorded strangely with the evercoats and winter apparel which surrounded him. He is a young man, wears spectacles, and it is said the girl he wronged and afterwards married, is infatuated with him.

Soon after 2 o'clock he was sentenced by the court to imprisonment in the county jail for the period of six months. He offered many assurances to the court, before sentence being passed, as to his future good behavior, if he could be granted his liberty, but as he had already made similar statements to Judge Henderson, when arrested for fornication, that tribunal had little faith in his promises, and sentenced him as stated. Van Meyer was given over to the care of Sheriff Belnap, and is now situated in the county jail in this city.

FIRST DISTRICT COURT.

Business Before Judge Henderson Yesterday.

In the First District Court, at Ogden, yesterday, the trial of James Christensen, of Newton, Cache County, was proceeded with. He was accused of unlawful cohabitation.

Peter Christensen testified that the general reputation among the neighbors and friends of the defendant was that the latter had lived with his two wives during the time named in the indictment.

Deputy Marshal Whetstone stated that he has arrested the defendant at Newton some time ago, and that the defendant had spoken as follows on that occasion: "I know who gave me away, and if you had not come just when you did I would have got out of your way," and other language to that effect.

Assistant District Attorney Hiles made a short speech for the prosecution, and the case was then submitted after the charge of the court. The jury retired and shortly after returned with a verdict of guilty.

In the case of the United States vs. Samuel Rideout, of Hooper, Weber County, for unlawful cohabitation, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty by direction of the court.

The case of Gustave Anderson, for unlawful cohabitation, was reported ignored by the grand jury.

In the two cases of the C. P. R. R. Co. vs. C. Ducheneau, the defendant was given twenty days in which to die and serve notice of motion for new trial.

In the civil suits in which Moses Thatcher and others were the plaintiffs, and Josiah Hendricks, Job Webb, James Cowley and Niels Nielsen defendants, an order was entered dismissing each case at cost of plaintiff.

U. S. vs. Mads P. Jensen; unlawful cohabitation; December 17th set as date for sentence.

U. S. vs. Lars Mortensen; unlawful cohabitation; arraigned and took the statutory time to plead.

U. S. vs. Andrew W. Stratford; unlawful cohabitation; plea of guilty. Judgment will be passed on December 23d.

U. S. vs. W. L. Watkins; unlawful cohabitation; arraigned and took the statutory time to plead.

U. S. vs. W. L. Watkins, adultery; arraigned and took the statutory time to plead.

U. S. vs. T. J. Jensine Watkins, fornication; arraigned and took the statutory time to plead.

U. S. vs. Francis Patterson, bigamy; arraigned and took the statutory time to plead.

U. S. vs. James Bywater, adultery; arraigned and took the statutory time to plead.

U. S. vs. Hannah J. Bywater, fornication; arraigned and took the statutory time to plead.

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY, DECEMBER 10.

Grand Larceny.

On Wednesday Calvin Allred and David Rostron, indicted for grand larceny by the grand jury of the last term of the First Judicial District Court held in this city, were brought to this city and released on giving bonds in the sum of $1,000 each. The charge against them is for stealing wool.—Provo Enquirer.

Discontinued.

By letter from Teton, Bingham County, Idaho, we learn that the post office at that place has been discontinued. The people at that place number about forty families besides a number of ranchers near by, and are very much displeased at the injustice done them. It is alleged to be the result of a bitter feeling on the part of Bingham County politicians, because most of the people of Teton are "Mormons." The matter will be brought to the attention of the Post Office Department.

Primary Conference.

The quarterly conference of the Primary Associations of Salt Lake Stake was held in the Salt Lake Assembly Hall at 10 a.m. today, and was well attended. A very nice programme was rendered by the children, interspersed with reports of the condition of the associations and short addresses by Sisters Zina D. Young, Mary A. Freeze, Maggie C. Shipp, Louise Felt and Clara C. Cannon. The Primary organization is meeting with deserved success in its useful labors.

Passed Away.

The many friends of Sister Elizabeth Lewis, of the Thirteenth Ward, will be surprised to learn of her death, which took place this morning. She has been ailing about a week, the immediate cause of her demise being heart disease. For the past ten years her husband has been an invalid, and her daily labor has been the chief source of support for the aged couple. She was in her 69th year. The funeral will take place at the Thirteenth Ward Assembly Hall on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Charles Livingston Pardoned.

A short time since a numerous signed petition was forwarded from this city to President Cleveland, asking for executive clemency in the case of Charles Livingston, who was sentenced by Judge Zane on the 14th of October to six months in the penitentiary and to pay a fine of $100, on a conviction of unlawful cohabitation. Today Isador Morris, Esq., one of the petitioners, received a telegram from Delegate John T. Calne, informing him that President Cleveland had granted the request. Mr. Livingston will be given his liberty as soon as the official notification is received by the Marshal's office.

Probate Court.

In the Salt Lake County Probate Court, yesterday, the oath of office and bonds in the matter of the incorporation of the Geminal Mining Company were filed.

In the matter of the estate of Robert L. Campbell, deceased, order fixing day for hearing petition for order for sale of real estate.

James Watson, Joseph Watson and George H. Taylor were appointed appraisers in the matter of the estate of John Taylor, deceased.

In the matter of the guardianship of Joseph Melton Allen, the account of the guardian, his resignation, and the petition and nomination of John S. Barnes as guardian, were filed.

The marriage certificate of Ernest Herbert Greene and Jane Holdsworth was filed for record.

First District Court.

In the First District Court yesterday, at Ogden, Thomas Young pleaded guilty to the charge of unlawful cohabitation, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $150 and be imprisoned in the penitentiary for six months.

United States vs. Lars Mortensen; unlawful cohabitation; defendant arraigned and pleaded guilty; sentence fixed for December 17.

United States vs. Alvin Nichols; unlawful cohabitation; case dismissed.

United States vs. Jacob Struh; fornication; jury returned a verdict of guilty; sentence on December 12.

United States vs. Francis L. Patterson; bigamy; trial set for December 12.

United States vs. Anna J. Bywater; fornication; plea of not guilty entered.

United States vs. Harmon D. Pearson; unlawful cohabitation; defendant pleaded guilty and promised to obey the law; sentenced to pay the costs of the prosecution.

United States vs. B. C. Critchlow; unlawful cohabitation; continued for the term.

Oliver Johnson vs. S. W. Molen, et al.; enticement away a wife; dismissed on defendants paying costs.

United States vs. James Bywater; fornication; defendant arraigned and took the statutory time to plead.

Emma P. McClinton vs. W. H. McClinton; decree of divorce allowed.

EARTHQUAKE AT KANAB.

The People Frightened and Some Damage Done.

Under date of the 6th inst. "Norman" writes as follows from Kanab:

"This morning, at 8:30, this place was visited by an earthquake. The motion seemed to be from southeast to northwest. The shock lasted perhaps ten seconds, and in several houses dishes were shaken from the cupboard shelves, clocks stopped and bricks fell from the tops of chimneys. Persons walking in houses or on streets were, in some cases, thrown down. Tons of rock fell from the cliffs, raising a dust along the mountain chain. Many people were considerably frightened, and ran hither and thither, apparently trying to find their tickets. No serious damage occurred, only a few cracks in houses. Later in the day rumbling sounds were heard, but no other shocks were noticed."

On the same date, "J. B. H." of the same place, wrote the following:

"This morning, just at 15 minutes past 8 o'clock by my time, a heavy shock of earthquake was witnessed here all through this city. It came with a loud, rumbling sound, and a wonderful heaving and shaking of everything. I immediately looked at my clock; it was fifteen minutes past eight, and the clock there and then stopped. All the tinkling things hanging round the house played a lively tune. The house door slammed as if a horse or some other big, heavy substance had fallen against it with great force. The house shook so as to scare the inmates very much. My wife was about to faint. I then looked round the outside of my two-story house, and on the west side I found three cracks or rents in the wall, running straight from the roof. One of them runs straight down through the rock foundation into the earth, and two on the east side are much the same.

"I went up through town, and everybody was somewhat shocked about the event that had taken place."

BENEFITS OF "MORMONISM."

A FRIEND has handed to us the following clipping from a New Zealand paper, the name of which, however, he was able to give.

"It will surprise many of our readers to learn that the work of the Mormons, or Latter-day Saints, among the natives of New Zealand, is making great strides. If their success in the future is to be anything like that of the past few years, there is little doubt that Mormonism will be the religion of the Maoris. At the present time there are between thirty and forty teachers engaged in this colony in propagating the faith and doctrines of this Church, two of these being women. All these have been sent from Salt Lake City. In addition there are several native workers. The native and European adherents now number about 2,500, the greater number by far being natives. The North Island has been divided into seven districts, namely, Waikato (where there are 600 members), Tauranga, Waipatu, Poverty Bay, Mahia, Hawkes Bay, and Wairarapa. The work at present is confined chiefly to the North Island, though in the South there are a few professing the faith. Whatever opinions there may be concerning the doctrine of polygamy, there is little doubt that a large number of natives have been led to give up the use of strong drink through the teachings of the Saints and this is testified to by natives who have not joined the church and by the proprietors of public houses in different parts of this island. In many ways there is a manifest improvement in the general conduct and living of those who have embraced the faith. Among the most earnest workers is Mr. Geo. S. Taylor. He arrived in New Zealand about three years ago and entered upon the work of preaching the Gospel with such success that upon a profession of faith he has baptized by immersion close upon 100 natives. He spent nine months in Napier, a year and nine months in Mahia, and the remainder of the term in the Wairarapa. In the Wairarapa many converts have been made and regular services are held at several places, the natives being apparently very devout in their religious exercises. Mr. Taylor is about to return to the city of Europe, and his work will be carried on in this island by N. S. Bishop. Mr. Wm. Paxman, the President of the Australasian Mission in connection with the Church of Latter-day Saints, is now on his way to the Waikato, and from what we can learn there is every prospect of the church being daily added to owing to the persistent and self-denying efforts of its zealous workers."

It is pleasing to note such a testimony as the above of the results of the teachings of our missionaries in checking intemperance among their converts.

PAINTING A PAIN

A New Parisian Artist's Canvas Story of a "Rheumatic."

"Tell me, Mr. Wight," asked a reporter of the well-known art connoisseur of the Everett, New York, "is American art improving in character and excellence?"

"Very much so."

"Do Americans much patronize foreign art?"

"Yes. And as they pay the best prices, their private galleries contain gems of all the modern masters."

"Which are preferred, works of the modern or ancient masters?"

"The modern. Historical scenes, real and ideal landscapes, and decided characters in figure are the most popular."

"The last time I was in Paris I picked up a very strong bit of drawing, which depicted a middle-aged man belted up in a much be-cushioned chair, his face and surroundings indicating intense agony."

"His table is crowded with many a physician's phials, abandoned bandages, and used-up blisters. Before him a tub of steaming water derisively sends its incense into his face, and the grate fire cheerily blazes in mockery of his unhappiness. His nurse is a type of dismay."

"I really enjoy looking at this picture!"

"I know how the old fellow feels! I myself was for twelve years a victim of inflammatory rheumatism. Every spring and winter perfect torture twisted me for two or three months, during which I was often unable to sleep for a week at a time; was tormented by continuous agony, and at one time was totally blind for a fortnight, the disease having settled in my eyes. I had the best medical skill, used all the most approved scientific specifics, visited the famed mineral springs of America, of Carlsbad and Paris, but every year the same mad fire literally burned me alive!

"I often laugh to myself as I think what an old 'bear' I too must have been, when suffering as that old fellow seems to be."

"Aren't you tempting fate by making sport of your old enemy?"

"Oh, no, I fear him no longer! My last tussle with him was over two years ago, and all the agony of the years of remission settled on me then. My physicians gave me no hope of recovery. I had faith in myself, however."

"Well, how did it work?"

"The rheumatism was in my case, as in nearly all others, caused by a disease of the blood, probably produced by unsuspected inactivity of the kidneys, for I had never had any pain in them. Twenty bottles of Warner's safe cure, however, completely purified my blood, and I never have enjoyed such robust health as now. Hundreds of friends in Europe and America have, on my recommendation, used it for general debility, malaria, rheumatism, etc., and I have never heard an unsatisfactory report from them."

Mr. Wight has a personal acquaintance with the best art lovers of Europe and America, and his experience gives weighty testimony to the remarkable power of the celebrated preparation named.

"You think, then, Mr. Wight, that there is substantial art development in America?"

"I certainly do, and I have confidence that when the true American idea is settled upon, our development will be both rapid and excellent."—[ADVT.]
