WASHINGTON, 30.—Commissioner five per cent tax upon their scrip dividend, and directed Collector Bailey to proceed at once to collect $1,151,800, the original amount, without penalty.

book Concern.

ALBANY, 30.—The German Peace

Julie to day was one of the most imposing demonstrations ever seen here.

The procession was nearly two hours in passing a given point.

BUFFALO, 30.—The German Peace

Festival was a success. Immense number were present from the country adjoining. The streets in the route were thoroughly decorated.

NEW YORK, 30.—The New York yacht club has conceded the claim of Ashbury that his vessel is not required to race the whole American yacht fleet, in order to receive the Queen's cup.

The Methodist book concern continued their postponed to June 15th an investigation of the charges against

Dr. Lanahan.

Blahore Jones, Simpson, and

Ames are invited to meet with the committee of investigation. Dr. Carton's affidavit was filed to day in ready to Lanahan's petition for a mandamus to enable him to gain access to the books of the concern. He alleges that the only object of the present proceedings is to interfere with the full examination of the trials lately begun by the direction of Carson.

Rodney Sorenson, formerly a prominent official in the Democratic, Brooklyn, died on Saturday.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Decades Act.

BOSTON, 30.—Decoration day was observed with greater solemnity than ever before. The banks and business houses were closed and the courts adjourned.

TEXAS.

Horace Greeley expressed similar sentimentality.

GALVESTON, 30.—Horace Greeley made a speech of political topics on Saturday last, to a large audience gathered in front of the hotel. He expressed sentiments of friendship for the South and a strong belief in the prosperity and growth of Texas. Said he would testify that life and property were safe here. He urged the cultivation of friendly relations with the North and Southern States in favour of a general and speedy means of bringing about a better understanding between the two sections.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Conventions of the p. section.

PITTSBURGH, 30.—Every man is to go out of the pit alive yesterday in an imminent disaster. Most of them can live but a few hours, and are already dead.

The fan by which the air was supplied with air being destroyed, the men who were behind the barricades and taken out alive, were so long deduced by physicians to be fatal.

MARYLAND.

German Catholic Union.

BALTIMORE, 30.—The annual convention of the German Catholic Union of the United States assembled yesterday.

Delegates were present from all the German Catholic societies in the United States. They celebrated to-day with an immense procession.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, 30.—Supervisor Rail-land's report of the operations of the newly elected commissioners, in the Board of Supervisors, has elicited much comment. The cost of the new commmissioners has been expended in paying for show it beyond the spending of the lot, at an expense of $24,000.

What he claims could be done for one half the money is commented upon very seriously.

The turn out of the Grand Army of the Republic to-day was not very extensive. No regular troops acted as an escort, but there was a company of souvenirs and the negro companies.

The Mexican veterans and the Californians hundred, with their magnificent banners inscribed with the names of numerous actions on the Potomac and the Peninsula in which they participated, were conspicuous in the procession. Bouquets and beautiful wreaths of flowers were contributed in abundance by the citizens before the procession started along the line.

N. A. Spalding, alias Crocker, of Sacramento, this morning waived an examination on the charge of forging the name of Sharp, carpet dealer at Sac-rramento, to a check for $1,000, and grand larceny in stealing the original check. He is under arrest.

J. Keas, an ex-police officer, charged with robbing an accomplice of gamblers in action as door-tender at Congress

Hall, a known establishment, was examined in the police court to-day, and discharged.

Judge Sawyer said that he was informed that the game of faro was extensively played in San Francisco, on the most prominent streets, and it seemed singular that the gamblers could not be got at, while the new game of keno was posted up at the very start.
