FROM DEPOT TO COLLEGE.

The drive from the depot to the collage was a pleasant one. It seemed like only the best horses—and Cache is noted for fine horses—and the best carriages and the most intelligent driv-ers had been pressed into sorvice, and every one of them was a booster for Lagent

Logan Before entering the college buildings the members of the party were taken for a drive over the fields and through for a drive over the fields and through the orchards on the college grounds which was much enjoyed. At the en-trance to the college stood President Kerr, who personally received the guests and bade them welcome. The arrangements for entertaining the huge crowd were perfect. There was no noise, no confusion. Every man and woman on the committees knew their duty and performed it without osten-tation, and in this manner the visitors were guided through the various da-partments of the big institution.

It would not be possible to enumer-ate in detail the splendid work exhibit-ed to the visitors in the numerous de-partments of the school. Some of the ore prominent features noticed were more prominent features noticed were the soil and moisture testing equip-ment, the engineering department, the mechanic arts, dairying, and the do-mestic arts department. Some of the mission furniture and carved panel work turned out by the woodworking department would do credit to any fac-tory in the world, while the farmfbg implements, cultivators, etc., made by the college iron workers, were pro-nounced unexcelled by members of the legislature who understand those al, that pulled in to the Oregon Short Line depot at 1 o'clock Sunday morning on the legislative train from Logan. Twenty hours has been consumed in the trip, but never in the experience of legislative junkets had more genuine, wholesome enjoyment been crowded into a similar length of time. Every one of the 300 passengers was pleased with the reception accorded them at the college, and with the whole souled hospitality evinced toward them by the people of the capital of Cache.

It was a success from the start. In charge of the train was Mr. D. S. refreshments were served as a kind of appetizer for the feast that was com-ing. The mayor and head of the com-mercial club of Logan boarded the train at Brigham City with badges for all the passengers-red ones for the legislators, white ones for the guests and blue for the committees. DO NOT CROWD THE SEASON. The first warm days of spring bring with them a desire to get out and enjoy the exhibitating air and sunshine. Chil-dren that have been housed up all win-ter are brought out and you wonder where they all came from. The heavy, white flothing is thrown aside and many shed their flannels. Then a cold wave comes and people say that grip is epidem-ic. Colds at this season are even more dangerous than in mid-winter, as there is much more danger of pneumonia. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, however, and you will have nothing to fear. It al-ways cures, and we have never known a cold to result in pneumonia when it was used. It is pleasant and safe to take. those from a three weeks' trip in the interests of his firm, the Intermountain Electric company of this city. There has been some question in the minds of ocal mer-chants as to their ability to compete with SanFrancisco for the Nevada busi-ness, but Mr. Haddock reports the sales of his house of three carloads of elec-trical supplies at Ely, and states that he met with very favorable consid-eration at each place he visited on his trip throughout the state. He returns firmly convinced that to get the busi-ness in Nevada all that is necessary is for Salt Lake business men to "go after it hard."

Mr. Haddock was among those having Mr. Haddock was among those having return tickets over the Sait Lake route and upon arriving at Las Vegas was informed that owing to a washout be-tween that point and Calientes the com-pany had arranged to transfer its pas-sengers to the Southern Pacific by way of Los Angeles. Mr. Haddock spents several days in the City of the Angels. He reports that city as being on the high tide of a boom, with train loads of tourists arriving daily. Business men there have a very friendly feeling for Sait Lake, especially do they appre-ciate the solidity of its growth as acthere have a very friendly feeling for Salt Lake, especially do they appre-claie the solidity of its growth as ac-centuated by the mines, and smelters, its attraction to tourists, as well as its large agricultural resources. Salt Lake manufacturers are beginning to place their goods apon the Los Angeles man-ket. Noticeable among these were the chocolates which McDonald is now feeding the people of lower California, having opened a house on Lower Spring street, there with Chas Pike as man-ager, and J. R. Squires, another Salt Lake boy, as solicitor, and their work has been such as to fill the local candy men there with alarm. One thing which Mr. Haddock con-siders as one of the foremost factors in the phenomenal growth of Los Ange-les is the clusters of electric lights placed on ornamental two standards that line either side of the principal business thoroughfarcs, giving a bright-ness to the city that is indescribably beautiful. In this latter respect it is worthy of note that the business men along Main street here are now agita-ting a movement of this kind, as they realize that Salt Lake's - principal theroughfare is not nearly so well light-or as some of the side streets of other cities, by resent hids promise of the test.

Up to date, it has been impossible for any-thing short of a light milk wagon to make the climb, and even that was not free from peril. On the first of the month, active reconstruction of the street will begin, the intention be-ing to make of it, one of the most at-tered to the state. note at the bank would be due Tuesday --changed his mind. Senator Love read some wireless telegiums from Harry Robinson and Mr. Newhouse, the for-mer giving him carte blanche to talk all he wanted to, and the latter telling him to vote against cousoildation. Mr. Love's remarks were brief and witty, and were generously applauded one of the most attractive thoroughfares in the west.

Mr. Tolton, becoming serious, said the questions confronting the leg-slature were of great importance, and hone of greater moment than the one pertaining to the college.
