Why Mullett Resigned—Court of Appeals—Indian Census.

Secretary Bristow being asked the cause of supervising architect Mullett's resignation, pointed to the revised statute, which direct that the chief clerk of the Treasury department shall act as superintendent of the treasury building, and that no account for contingent expenses shall be allowed except on a certificate by the clerk that they are necessary and proper, just and reasonable, all the expenditures for furniture being subject to the has been in the hands of a lawyer this contingent fund, amounting to about one hundred thousand dollars, and when his attention

would rather resign than lose control of this fund. The Secretary remarked that he was only doing his duty in accordance with the law, and that if Mullett was not willing to be governed by the law he would accept his resignation, which Mullett accordingly prepared, and it was accepted. The Secretary did not intend to resign, but

on complaint of a N. Y. shot and
