

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

TABERNACLE CHOIR.—Brother George Careless, having been appointed Conductor of the Tabernacle Choir, is desirous of obtaining a hundred or a hundred and fifty good voices, so as to organize an efficient choir for the services in the Tabernacle on Sundays. He therefore invites male and female singers who may desire to join the choir, to meet him at the Tabernacle on Friday evening at 7 o'clock, that he may make selections of those most capable. This is an excellent opportunity for all who wish to improve in singing as they will be through such a course of training as will make them efficient chorists.

PROBATE COURT.—John McIntyre, charged with attempted rape, having been found guilty was sentenced by His Honor Judge Smith to six months' imprisonment in the Penitentiary and to pay a fine of $50.

Robert Hughes, found guilty of larceny, was sentenced by the court to two years' imprisonment and $250 fine.

W. M. Moulding and Charles Sheffield, found guilty of attempting to rob James Weston, at the shoe shop of Sheffield in South street, by cutting Weston's pocket and taking therefrom his purse, were sentenced by the court to six months' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $50, and Moulding to pay a fine of $100.

RAPE.—On Sunday, July 26th, a picnic was held at Wagner's California Brewery, at the mouth of Emigration Canyon. Amongst the guests was a certain E. W. Pratt, formerly host at the Revere House, who had prevailed upon a Miss Nancy Brimhall, residing at the house of Mr. Mundy on the State Road, to accompany him, evidently with the intention of carrying out the base purpose which he afterwards accomplished. Having persuaded the young lady to drink of the liquor provided at the brewery, he, under the pretext of getting her some water to quench her thirst, took her to a secluded spot and there, notwithstanding her determined resistance, in which the clothes of both parties were torn, succeeded in violating her person.

Upon the representation of Miss Brimhall, Pratt was arrested upon the charge of rape, and brought before Alderman Clinton, when the case was adjourned in order that the defendant might obtain the services of an attorney, and he was held to bail in the sum of $500. Before the re-assembling of the court, Pratt got three of his friends, men of like stripe with himself, "whose deeds take hold of hell," to go to Miss Brimhall and bribe her not to appear. She at first refused, but on their threatening to damage her character and in other ways intimidating her she consented to accept $200 and leave the city, they engaging on Brewer's backs to take her to her parents at Union Fork.

On the re-assembling of the court, Miss Brimhall, moved by the discharges, as the prosecuting witness was not present. His Honor, however, again adjourned the hearing of the case until this morning to enable the police to find Miss Brimhall.

This morning the hearing of the case was commenced but the defendant, having heard of the success of the police in finding the young lady had decamped and taken his flight to Omaha. In the mean time all that could be done was to declare his bonds forfeited.

To-morrow we expect to have more to say on the further developments of the case.

SAINT THOMAS.—Bro. Curtis E. Bolton, of St. Thomas, on the Muddy, called in today. He left his home in the far South three weeks ago, arriving in this city about a week since. He will leave here for the South next Monday morning. He gave us a pretty full report of St. Thomas and the citizens there; the latter, he thinks, cannot be excelled; he says they are very industrious, full of "Mormonism," live their religion, and are satisfied with their mission.

When Bro. Bolton left St. Thomas good health prevailed among the people, the only exceptions being the sickness of two or three infant children. No grasshoppers had visited the settlement up to the day of his departure. The people were busy planting corn and sugar cane. There with little or no cost raised, and only about half a crop of wheat, owing to the "trifling" with the wheat, the people having been, at one time, three weeks without water, arrangements have been made to obviate a recurrence of such difficulties. They have had but one rain this season, which came just in time to save the wheat crop. The Virgin River was almost dry between St. Thomas and the Colorado; the latter river is also very low. The Indians on the Muddy were peaceable, as usual; they were about leaving St. Thomas at the time Bro. Bolton left, to go down the Virgin to plant five families remaining in St. Thomas this summer; twelve heads of families have come north, five on business, by the consent and advice of the Bishop; the other seven to please themselves.

The improvements made during the past years at Leeds, Washington, Kanarra, Summit and many other places are wonderful, showing that the people are fully alive, and determined to make "Dixie" a desirable portion of the Territory. A much improved prosperity attend their labors, and may they never grow weary in well doing.

Correspondence.

COALVILLE, August 12, 1909.
Editor Deseret News.—Dear Sir,
In the last issue of the Weekly DESERET News appears an editorial headed "Sickness at Coalville" which contains some items that your informant was in error in, and should be corrected.

The young man who is supposed to have introduced the small pox into this vicinity has never been to Corinne. The young woman who is reported to have "visited" the family afflicted with that dreadful disorder, was there several days before she was taken sick, and before the nature of the disease was known, waiting and attending upon them.

The author of the story about a certain person being in a store shut, a hand-to-hand transaction, and at the same time informing them that he was going to have the small pox, drew largely from his imagination. Recently given the story is this: Bro. S. T. Pratt, formerly host at the Revere House, who had prevailed upon a Miss Nancy Brimhall, residing at the house of Mr. Mundy on the State Road, to accompany him, evidently with the intention of carrying out the base purpose which he afterwards accomplished. Having persuaded the young lady to drink of the liquor provided at the brewery, he, under the pretext of getting her some water to quench her thirst, took her to a secluded spot and there, notwithstanding her determined resistance, in which the clothes of both parties were torn, succeeded in violating her person.

Upon the representation of Miss Brimhall, Pratt was arrested upon the charge of rape, and brought before Alderman Clinton, when the case was adjourned in order that the defendant might obtain the services of an attorney, and he was held to bail in the sum of $500.
