AMERICAN.

THE BREVISED FAMILY.

CLEVELAND, 28.—Mrs. Garfield, her children, and Grandmother Garfield, accompanied by Private Secretary

Brown, General Swain and Col.

Rockwell and their ladies, were driven to the Union depot, this morning, in close carriages, where a special train had been made up to take them to Mentor. The train consisted of a baggage car and the elegant Pennsylvania coach which brought the party from Washington. They wended their way quietly through the crowd that thronged the depot, and entered the car, soon after which all were ready to start. The ladies were all heavily veiled, so that they escaped the curious gaze of the crowd. A few minutes after 11 o'clock the train pulled up and started for Mentor, ahead of the regular accommodation.

Crowds still linger around the Park, and so many are continually passing through the pavilion, a force of police is necessary to prevent confusion and guide curious spectators.

Although the body has been removed to the cemetery, thousands of people seem not to tire of gazing on the place where the remains lay, and where most of the floral decorations, though somewhat withered from the heat, are yet in place. Electric, calcium and gas lights illuminate the place to-night the same as last night.

Guarding the Dead.

There is no danger of Garfield's body being stolen. Every safeguard is applied.

The Garfield Monument Fund committee to-day passed the following:

To the People of the United States:

A movement to secure funds for the erection of a monument over the grave of James A. Garfield is being expedited from all sections of the country, east, west, north and south. In order to make it popular and successful, it is desirable and will be necessary for citizens of different States to organize.

The committee hereby requests all national banks, private banks, savings banks, newspapers and postmasters to call attention to the movement by posting notices.

Otherwise receive contributions and send the same to the Second National Bank of Cleveland, Ohio, which has been designated as a treasury for the fund, also send names of contributors. These names will be recorded in books, that they may be presented in the monument. All contributions will be receipted for by the Second National Bank.

(Signed)

J. H. RHOADS, Secretary,

225 Superior Street, Cleveland,

Speculations.

Had Garfield lived there is little doubt that Chief Justice Horace Gray, of Massachusetts, would have been named to fill the vacancy in the Supreme Court created by the death of Clifford. Attorney General

Devins had some pretensions to fill the vacancy, and was strongly urged by the Supreme Court to accept it.

However, appointed Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Massachusetts by Governor Long, and will be satisfied, it is said, by appointment to the position of Chief Justice of the same court in the place of Gray, should Arthur carry out the arrangement made by his predecessor.

Senator Davis is a man of large wealth and of the best blood of Massachusetts. He studied law from pure love of the profession, and was admitted to the bar at the age of twenty. He has been a member of the bar for many years, and has been employed by railroads and other corporations. He is a Republican, but has taken no part in the organization of the party or in its machinery. In person he is a magnificent specimen of manhood, and his bearing is that of a man of high rank. He is Charles Sumner. Judge Gray has the hearty support of Governor Long and both senators from Massachusetts, and probably will have no opposition from New England, which is entitled to the vacancy, that section being now without a representation. Senator Johnson says: Senator Ben Hill will probably never be able to fully discharge the duty of senator, although he may be able to appear at the called session of the Senate and vote. Senator Platt, of Connecticut, who is ill, will pair with Senator Hill, should the latter appear.

Prior to Murder President Arthur.

A. M. Bagley, who is employed in the Army Medical Museum, has created a sensation in the police and official circles by his sworn statement, with the chief of police, that he had seen the assassin of President Arthur, who was a Republican and that he had seen him on the avenue he heard him talking of the assassination of President Arthur.

Bagley states that his window blinds were closed and he was leaning
