

DESERET EVENING NEWS

WEATHER REPORT.

Record at the local weather bureau for the 24 hours ending at 6 a. m. today.

Barometer reading at 6 a. m. 25.65 inches; maximum, 85; minimum, 68; mean, 70; which is 7 degrees below normal.

Deficiency of daily mean temperature since Jan. 1, 71 degrees.

Accumulated excess in precipitation since Jan. 1, 3.76 inches.

FORECASTS TILL 6 P. M. TUESDAY.

Local forecast for Salt Lake City and vicinity:

Fair tonight and Tuesday; warmer to-night.

For Utah (forecasts taken at Denver, Colo.):

Fair north portion with warmer to-night; local thunderstorms south portion tonight and Tuesday.

For Wyoming (forecasts taken at Denver, Colo.):

Generally fair tonight and Tuesday.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The barometer is highest over the Middle Pacific and South Atlantic States, the Central West and extreme Northwest; and lowest over the North Pacific and North Atlantic States and the Plateau region.

Precipitation occurred principally over portions of New Mexico, North and South Dakota, Minnesota, Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas, Illinois, Tennessee, Georgia, South Carolina, Florida and New York, with heavy rain at Oklahoma, 1.10 inches and Asheville, 1.14 inches. It was raining this morning at Oklahoma and Asheville. Thunderstorms were reported quite generally.

R. J. HYATT,
Local Forecaster.

TODAY'S TEMPERATURE.

6 a. m.	61
7 a. m.	65
8 a. m.	67
9 a. m.	70
10 a. m.	77
11 a. m.	83
12 noon.	84
1 p. m.	84

The Semi-Weekly News.

THE GREAT COUNTRY PAPER OF THE WEST.

Is issued Mondays and Thursdays and contains all the cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The trustees of the county school district have filed their bonds with County Clerk James.

Hugh Saterlee of the Independent Telephone company has gone to Butte on company business.

Warden Arthur Pratt and Mrs. Pratt left yesterday morning for Los Angeles. They will be absent a couple of weeks.

Leo Parker, aged 8, of 1302 West Second South street, fell while at play, yesterday, and dislocated his left arm and fractured it in another place.

Bids will be opened Aug. 9 at Fort Duchesne by Col. C. A. McCauley of the quartermaster's department for a mess room and kitchen for two companies.

The Veteran Firemen's association will meet tonight, to arrange for the reception of the Pacific coast veterans on the occasion of their stop over in this city.

The Catholic cathedral architect will advertise for bids the current week for roofing for the structure, and this will be followed by bids for contracts for the interior.

E. A. Kirby, for three years day clerk at the Kenyon, has severed his connection with the house and left last evening for Omaha. He will visit the fair before leaving.

Lloyd T. King, organizer for the endorsement of the Knights of Pythias, has had California added to his territory, and leaves with his family this evening, for the coast.

Richard Grant, formerly of Salt Lake and now of Boise, Idaho, is in the city to have an operation performed by which to save his sight. He has already lost the use of one eye.

Mrs. Agnes Krokman, and Miss Adele Becker of Hamburg, Germany, are at the Wilson with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grant Shaffer of New York. They are touring the west and will visit the coast.

All of the companies of the Twenty-ninth infantry at Fort Douglas have now their quotas of 45 men each. There is a review every evening, in preparation for the advent of Lieut. Gen. Chaffee.

Rev. Frank Barnett preached his farewell sermon last evening, in the East Side Baptist church before a crowded house, and with his family leaves tonight for Greeley, Colo., to enter on his pastorate there.

Word from Brooklyn, N. Y., announces the death from consumption of the throat, of Benjamin C. Cartwright, formerly a reporter on the Tribune. Mr. Cartwright was married only a few days before his death.

The following foreigners were admitted to citizenship Saturday by Judge Morse: Tommaso Miravelli, Italy; Heber Cox, William C. Hill, Harry Hill, William Wonnacott, England; Hyrum H. Evans, Wales; August Wulshieger, Switzerland.

The cables of the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company on Second South and West Temple streets, were cut by workmen employed by P. J. Morgan, the contractor, and not by city employees as erroneously stated in Friday evening's "News."

Brigade Commander John Q. Cannon will decide this week whether the annual encampment of the national guard of this state is to be held. Both Provo and Ogden are rivals for the choice, with the odds in favor of Ogden. The guard is holding target practice every Sunday at Fort Douglas.

Rev. T. H. Scruggs of Provo preached in the First Baptist church last night, from the text, "Ye must be born again." The discourse was on regeneration, how it is accomplished. Mr. Scruggs is the clergyman who proposed recently to pay $100,000 to buy and hear him preach. The discourse was very evangelical.

Mansell Trotter, aged 8, of 665 State street found a .38 caliber cartridge in the house yesterday, and proceeded to examine the same with an axe and a stone. He succeeded in his analysis far beyond his expectations, and a doctor shortly afterwards extracted the bullet from the arm of Mansell's elder brother Ray, where it had severed an artery.

Ex-State Treasurer Hill of Nebraska, ex-President Tolles of the Utah State Christian Endeavor union, Dr. Silver, and Miss Ruth Paul of the Collegiate Institute were speakers at yesterday morning's meeting of the State Prison Christian Endeavor. Dr. Silver led the singing, and the meeting was one of the best ever held there. Miss Paul presided.

Harry N. Tolles of New York, manager of the Book Lovers' Library, and wife, who have been visiting in this city with Mr. Tolles' parents, returned east yesterday afternoon, after a very pleasant stay here. Mr. Tolles was formerly president of the Utah State Union of Christian Endeavor, and a prominent and well known worker in the local evangelical field.

Delegates Burns, Kain and Davis of the U. A. R. to the annual encampment at Boston will endeavor to bring the next gathering to Salt Lake City. The Boston encampment will be held during the week beginning Aug. 15, and Utah headquarters will be at the Vendome hotel, Salt Lake City. Mr. Burns will dispense Utah literature during their absence.

Sheriff Bailey of Weber county has applied to Gov. Wells for papers regarding the extradition of Michael Daly, now under arrest at Green River, Wyo. The man was captured by the Wyoming authorities, July 28, at the request of the sheriff of Ogden, where he is accused of housebreaking. He is charged with breaking into a Southern Pacific car, July 28, at Hubert, Wyo., and goods belonging to a brakeman.

There was a crash of broken glass on Saturday, as a contractor's team loaded with scaffolding attempted to enter the driveway under the Windsor hotel on East Temple street. The driver, J. C. Cleveland, made his load too broad, and moreover, the driveway was in an imperfect condition. The result was a sag of the wagon, and away went a $40 pane of plate glass in the window of the Hubert hotel, trunk factory. The glass was insured.

The Retail Liquor Dealers' association will present a petition to the city council to increase the license of drug stores and restaurants, who are said to deal heavily in liquor. The license is $500 per annum. They will also demand, it is understood, that they be permitted to allow women in their saloons after 7 p. m., or that the ordinance be enforced at the Salt Palace where it is said, women are sold beer during the restricted hours.

Sidney H. Morris, a well known Salt Laker, left for New York this morning. He will remain there a week or two, and then depart for Chicago, where he goes to enter the employ of A. W. McCune, identifying himself with the engineering corps of the Cerro de Pasco railroad, of which his brother, V. Morris, also of this city, is now the engineer. Mr. Morris' stay in the southward is indefinite. The likelihoods are, however, that he will remain for a protracted period.

Rev. John Richelson resigned yesterday his Westminster Presbyterian pulpit, to go to New Cumberland, West Virginia. In a recent interview he says: A field for activity has been opened to me in which I can reasonably hope to find enlarged usefulness for myself, increased health for my wife and greater comfort to all. The call to this other church seems to me to be the voice of Providence. I pray for Westminster church God's richest blessings and the continued guidance of our master.

Although Salt Lake has been improved recently by the erection of many beautiful and expensive flats, investors still seem to think there is room for more. The new building, which is placed therein will be well invested, C. A. Judd, who lately came here from Los Angeles, is one of those who has faith in the future and permanent growth of this city. As evidence of his confidence he is about to erect a fine three-story flat on the old Brigham H. Young property, corner of Third East and First South streets, which he recently purchased for $45,000. The new building will be up to date in every particular, and will cost about $14,000.

We pay 4 per cent interest per annum on $1 to $5,000. Zion's Savings Bank & Trust Co. Joseph F. Smith, President; George M. Cannon, Cashier.

J. M. HIGLEY, HONEST PLUMBER
Reliable Electric Wiring.
109 E. First South. Phone 762.

Genuine ROYAL BREAD, pure and bears our label with the crown. At all Grocers and first class Restaurants.

CHURCH NOTICES.

The regular monthly meeting of the Priesthood of the Pioneer stake will be held Monday, Aug. 1, at 7 p. m., in the Seventh ward assembly rooms. A full attendance is desired.

WILLIAM M. LACHLAN,
SYLVESTER Q. CANNON,
CHARLES H. HYDE,
Stake Presidency.

The High Priests' quorum of the Liberty stake will hold their monthly meeting in the Second ward assembly hall, Monday evening, Aug. 1, at 7:30 p. m. Apostle C. W. Penrose will deliver a lecture on the "Redemption of Zion."

JOS. KEDDINGTON,
WILLIAM WOODRUFF, JR.,
FRANCIS SCHOLLES,
Presidency.

A meeting of the officers of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. associations of the Liberty, Pioneer, Salt Lake and Eden stakes of Zion will be held in the L. D. S. U. Memorial building on Monday evening, Aug. 1, at 7:30 o'clock.

M. L. HODGINS,
ALEX. BUCHANAN,
GEORGE Q. MORRIS,
Stake Presidents.

The Tenth quorum of Seventy will hold its regular monthly meeting on Monday evening, Aug. 1, at 7:30 o'clock in the Second ward meetinghouse annex.

East Jordan, Salt Lake Co., July 29.—The regular monthly Priesthood meeting of the Tenth ward assembly hall, Monday evening, Aug. 1, at 7:30 p. m. The quarterly conference of the Jordan stake will convene Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 13 and 14, in the new meetinghouse at East Jordan. Meetings will be held each day at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m., with the M. L. A. conference on Sunday at 5 p. m. NIELS LIND, Clerk of the Stake.

There will not be a meeting of local officers this month of the Primary association of Ensign stake.

MARY T. SMITH,
MARY A. TUDENHAM,
CATHERINE WELLS,
The regular monthly meeting of the home missionaries of the Granite stake of Zion will be held at the stake Tabernacle on Wednesday, Aug. 3, 1904, 7:45 p. m. A full attendance is expected.

WILLIAM MEWAN, Clerk.
The monthly meeting of the priesthood of the Granite stake of Zion will be held at the stake Tabernacle on Wednesday, Aug. 3, 1904, at 10 a. m. The High Council will meet at the same place on the same day at 9 a. m. FRANK Y. TAYLOR, EDWIN BENNION, JOHN M. CANNON,

CALIFORNIA EDITORS.

Will be a Salt Lake Sept. 5, and Leave 8 m. Day for St. Louis.

From a circular at hand, signed by Edgar Johnson, president, it is learned that the preparations which have been making for some time by the executive committee of the Southern California Editorial association, for an excursion to the world's fair, have now been completed. The party will leave Los Angeles over the Southern Pacific at 1:30 p. m., Friday, Sept. 3, in two first-class Pullman cars; the train will arrive at San Francisco at 7 a. m., Sept. 3, and the "public opinion forums" will there be entertained by the California Promotion committee, and then return to the sleepers and leave for the east.

The special train will arrive in Salt Lake on Monday, Sept. 5, at 8 a. m., and will leave the same day at 3:15 p. m. Though the stop over here will be brief, the newspaper men of this city will no doubt make it very interesting one for the visitors, and will see that no time is wasted by them while sojourning within Salt Lake. It is said their entertainment here will be on the elaborate scale, and of such a nature as to leave a wholesome impression on their minds respecting the beauties of this city and the hospitality of its people.

The editorial party expects to reach St. Louis Sept. 6, and before "California days" take on which occasion they will take an active part in the ceremonies.

WAYWARD DAUGHTER.

Father Swears to Complaint Charging Her With Incurability.

Lillian Jordan, aged 15 years, was taken to the police court this morning by her father, who swore to a complaint charging the girl with incurability. He claims that he is unable to hold the girl under proper restraint, and is desirous of having her sent to the state industrial school at Ogden. The prospects are that the girl will be thus committed.

FUNERAL OF JUDGE WILSON

Many Friends Unite in Paying Tribute To His Memory.

The Eighteenth ward chapel was filled yesterday with friends who came to pay their last tribute of respect to the memory of Judge E. A. Wilson. The stand and railings were beautifully ornamented with white and flowers, and the services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counselor Robert Patrick and feeling and eloquent remarks were made by Judge King, Judge Hoot, and the friends of the deceased, and by Bishop O. T. Whitney in whose ward he resided. The first prayer was pronounced by Elder John T. Caine. The musical services were furnished by the Eighteenth ward choir, and other offerings. The services were opened with prayer by Counsel