LECTURES IN ENSIGN STAKE.

Physicians and Surgeons to Address The Parents' Classes on the Dangers of Fire Crackers.

None are more interested in the movement for "a sane Fourth" than the parents and in this connection there is a general movement throughout the country to emninate the awful casualty list incident to children handling fireworks, toy cannons and pistols. In Salt Lake the movement is distinctly pronounced and if the parents have their way the observance of Independence day will this year be marked by less noise and real enjoyment.

Liberty stake proposes to set the pace in this direction and a general call has been issued and announcements will be made in all the ward Sunday schools tomorrow morning for a big demonstration in Liberty park on Monday, July 5, on which day the glorious Fourth will be observed.

MARCH TO THE PARK.

Thousands of children will assemble at the ward meetinghouses and march down to the park. It will be timed for them to arrive at the park at 10:30, when the tots will march down the cenwhen the tots will march down the central driveway which runs north and south. Every child will carry a flag, and all flags will be of uniform size.

The juvenile army under command of the teachers will march down the driveway, thence east on the cross-road and countermarch back to the bandstand, where Hold's hear will play later in the where Held's band will play later in the day.

The orator of the day will be Briant S. Hinckley and there will be patriotic songs rendered at intervals. A tableau depicting the signing of the Declara-tion of Independence will also be one of the features.

The afternoon will be devoted to athletic games and a concert given by Held's hand. In addition to many races for prizes there will be two ball games wherein the deacons of the Ninth and Thirty-first wards will cross bats and the Sunday school superintendents and a nine selected from the stake board will struggle for the pennant, urged on by a large and enthusiastic aggregation of partisans.

TOMORROW IN ENSIGN STAKE. Preliminary to the inauguration of a sane Fourth, the parents of Ensign stake will discuss the question and incidentally tomorrow morning, listen to addresses from authorities.

"The Injuries of Independence Day," or "Should Fire Crackers Be Eliminated?" will be the subject discussed tomorrow morning.

AMUSEMENTS

Theater—Contrary to the usual custom, the Salt Lake Theater will be opened several times during the summer for important attractions, first is "Polly of the Circus" which comes to the theater on the night of July 5. The famous play "The Servant in the House," is also booked for ant in the live a near by date.

Colonial—The "expected" has happened at this house, and the summer season has ended almost before it began. According to his fellow players, Mr. Mack was selzed with a mysterious "illness' 'during the progress of "Cart. Swift," Thursday, with the result that the performance had to be terminated. and the house will remain dark unti the regular season opens. This fact was not learned until after the dra-matic section of the Saturday News had gone to press.
