

PRESIDENT SMITH SPEAKS TO YOUNG

Advises His Hearers to Safe-guard Their Health to Pre-vent Disease.

THREE SESSIONS ARE HELD.

Annual Conference of Y. L. and Y. M. M. I. A. Comes to An End—Temperance Sermon to Audience.

The thirteenth annual conference of the Mutual Improvement associations came to a close last evening, the last meeting convening in the tabernacle at 7 o'clock. The three gatherings of the day were largely attended, more so than on any former similar occasion.

The morning session was devoted to testimony bearing, and the musical features were for the most part congregational singing. The meeting was exceedingly interesting, a number of men and women arising voluntarily and expressing sentiments of faith in God and devotion to the Gospel of His Son. The service was solemn and impressive and one long to be remembered by those who took part.

At the evening meeting Elder David O. McKay, Miss Mary Connelly and President Smith were the speakers, in the order named. The musical part of the program was rendered by the M. I. A. quartet, and Alfred L. Farrell and John W. Summerhays. The selections by the young ladies were, "We Ever Pray for Thee," "Christmas Song," and "Roses and Lillies." Mr. Farrell sang, "Jerusalem," and Mr. Summerhays' number was, "The King of Love My Shepherd is."

ELDER D. O. MCKAY.

Elder McKay extolled the work being done in the Primary associations, the Mutual Improvement societies at toward continuing the training and discipline started by the organization. Despite the fact that the auxiliaries of the Church are designed for the instruction of children almost from their infancy, it does not mean that parents have no responsibility in the primary. Co-operation of fathers and mothers is highly essential if success shall be achieved by teachers in the societies of the young people. If lessons are assigned to which no attention is paid in the way of preparation, efforts are vain, and the interest of parents should be such that not only are lessons faithfully prepared, but the child should be accompanied by their elders to the meetings.

Miss Connelly devoted her remarks to the workings of the Y. L. M. I. A.

PRESIDENT JOSEPH F. SMITH.

President Smith was somewhat indisposed, and he therefore spoke but briefly. The true spirit of prayer was dwelt upon by the speaker, and the Latter-day Saints were admonished to seek the spirit of prayer and not be content with repeating meaningless words and phrases. The Lord's prayer was given by the Master, not to be used on any and all occasions, but as a sample of brevity and of asking the Father for the blessings really needed.

President Smith referred to the fact that of late the number of elders dying in the missionary field had greatly increased. He admonished all to be careful in preserving their health, and expressed the opinion that sickness and death among the missionaries were sometimes due to over exertion and indiscretion. For instance, some were in the habit of fasting for several days, something that in his opinion was unnecessary. He advocated moderation as a prevention against smallpox, saying that he believed he had escaped suffering seriously from that disease because of the fact that he had been vaccinated in his youth.

President Smith admonished the Latter-day Saints to be true and steadfast to the faith, and to adhere strictly to the doctrines and principles of the gospel as laid down in the word of the Lord.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Large Audience Hears Elder Heber J. Grant's Discourse on Temperance.

The lower portion of the tabernacle was filled yesterday afternoon, on the occasion of the second session of the day of the Mutual Improvement and Primary conference. Several hundred persons were seated in the galleries. The exercises were very interesting throughout, though there was somewhat of a deviation from the program as previously announced. President Joseph F. Smith was unable to attend in the afternoon, and arrived at the meeting too late to deliver the speech allotted to him. Instead, Elder Heber J. Grant, who was to have spoken in the evening meeting, addressed the congregation, he also being in charge of the exercises.

Four anthems were rendered by the tabernacle choir as follows: "Gospel Restoration," "Awake, My Soul," "When Thou Comest to Judgment," and "O Beauty of Holiness." The soloists in the second selection were John

Dr. Price's Wheat Flake Celery Food

Dr. Price's Food is one of the most important of all food products. It is prepared from the whole wheat berry, retaining all the organic salts, so indispensable to the needs of the body. It is as great nutrient value as meat and is more easily and more quickly digested. It costs but a few cents a day, yet in health-giving properties it is worth a hundred times its cost.

W. Summerhays and Margaret Summerhays, while Mrs. Lizzie Thomas Edward rendered the solo part in the "Inflammatus," Elder George H. Brim-mer offered the invocation and benediction was pronounced by Mrs. Louie B. Felt. The speakers were Elder Hyrum M. Smith, Mrs. Martha H. Tingley, and the Y. L. M. I. A., Elder Joseph W. McMurrin and Elder Heber J. Grant.

ELDER HYRUM M. SMITH.

The Primary association is more fundamental than auxiliary in the Church, declared Elder Smith, having to do with teaching the children of the Latter-day Saints the principles of the gospel almost from their infancy. The word of the Lord to this people regarding the instruction of their children is specifically set forth in a revelation given to the Prophet Joseph Smith. The first and greatest responsibility of inculcating principles of righteousness in the minds of children is upon the parents, and the burden falls for the most part to the mothers. As an aid to parents in this direction, the Primary association has been formed. Faithful women are chosen to be officers and teachers in this organization. Principles of truth, honesty and virtue are taught to the primary association members. In all some 700 women are engaged in the noble work. While no mother can be enthusiastic as to women preachers, said the speaker, he was emphatic in the statement that they are the best teachers in the world. The stake and ward officers of the Primary association are true friends to parents of children. The organization is doing a meritorious and splendid work and the workers therein are not only dispensing messages, but they themselves are receiving blessings.

MRS. M. A. TINGEY.

Mrs. Tingley said that the love, harmony and unity existing among the 1,000 young ladies who met in convention yesterday, spoke more powerfully than words of the blessings resulting from the Mutual Improvement work. The gospel enters into the daily lives of sincere adherents, and example as well as precept, should characterize the lives of the young people of Zion. Any teaching that does not lead to men and women honest, honorable and pure. The human body, the tabernacle of the spirit, should be kept holy and pure, and the spirit may also have dwelling place there.

ELDER JOS. W. McMURRIN.

A recital of some of the testimonies borne to the progress of the gospel, given by Elder McMurrin. The spirit prevailing there he said, was a blessing to all who listened with hearts intent upon divine things. Holy Ghost had so wrought upon the souls of many persons in the congregation that they felt impelled to arise and testify as to the truth of the latter-day work. How can the progress of Mormonism be stopped, when the Holy Spirit enters the souls of men and women in all parts of the world and convinces them that the gospel is true, asked Elder McMurrin.

ELDER HEBER J. GRANT.

Elder Grant discoursed strongly and eloquently on the subject of temperance, reading extensively from a book entitled "Leaves from the Diary of an old Lawyer." The work recites many experiences encountered by the writer during 50 years practice in criminal courts, and the contention of the author was that fully three-fourths of the murders committed directly to his attention resulted from strong drink. Elder Grant recited numerous stories depicting the misery and sin following in the trail of the demon rum. Prohibition does not prohibit, but the cleaning up of a town is a good thing, writes David Starr Jordan, said Elder Grant. The voice of the Lord regarding strong drink was for the temporal and spiritual welfare of His people. If there were in Utah today the money that has been sent out for strong drink this state would be the richest this side of the Missouri.

In conclusion Elder Grant read extracts from a work entitled "The Young Man in the World," by Albert J. Beveridge, teeming with suggestions, invaluable to old as well as to young. While the reputations of the Latter-day Saints are not good, because of slanderous tongues, the speaker said he thanked God that the character of a true Latter-day Saint is absolutely beyond reproach.

FOR A SPRAINED ANKLE.

As usually treated, a sprained ankle will disable the injured person for a month or more, and by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and observing the directions with each bottle faithfully, a cure may be effected in many cases in less than one week's time. This liniment is a most remarkable preparation. Try it for a sprain or bruise, or when laid up with rheumatism or muscular rheumatism, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which it affords. For sale by all druggists.

WOOL PASSES FIFTEEN CENTS.

That the Utah wool growers accomplished much good by their united action to break up the poor wool market is indicated in the news from Soda Springs that the buyers there are offering up to 15 cents for wool, which is almost double the best price offered here until the association commenced its storage movement. From Malad comes still better news that the price offered there is 15 cents, and that 700,000 pounds changed hands Saturday at the figure of 12 cents. According to Secy. C. B. Stewart of the Utah association, are confident that wool will never again get down to a mark under 15 cents this season.

FROM FLOODED COUNTRY.

Aaron Levitt Returns from Montana After Eventful Trip.

Aaron Levitt has returned from Montana with a hard tale to tell of how the rains descended and floods came and did up to that part of the country to the extent of $100,000 damages. He says not a railroad bridge in that part of the state is safe—that is, such bridges as are left. In company with 50 other unfortunate passengers, Mr. Levitt was stalled in Harrison canyon for 12 days, so that the only way of escape was to ford the Deer Lodge river, utilize a working train on the other side and wind up with an automobile. He does not think the Northern Pacific will be able to operate west of Harrison's for three weeks. Almost every mile of railroad in the western part of Montana is tied up, and with so many passenger trains caught between washouts, the question of a food supply is becoming serious. Mr. Levitt says the Northern Pacific did the square thing by its passengers in feeding them. When the dining car food gave out, the company issued orders on local hotels and restaurants, while the train crews bought further supplies from farm houses. The vice president and general manager of the road was caught in the washouts and traveled up and down on a handcar superintending reconstruction. No attempt will be made to rebuild bridges until the waters recede.

NO NEED OF SUFFERING FROM RHEUMATISM.

It is a mistake to allow anyone to suffer from rheumatism, as the pain can always be relieved, and in most cases a cure effected by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes sleep and rest possible. Even in cases of long standing this liniment should be used on account of which relief it affords. Do not be discouraged until you have given it a trial. Many sufferers have been surprised and delighted with its pain-relieving qualities. 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by all druggists.

Bathing as you like it, Saltair.

CLAIMS DAMAGES FROM CITY.

P. H. Robinson of 35½ Donelson's court, has filed a claim with the city recorder for $475 for damages alleged to have been done to his property by the overflow of water from a ditch on the west side of Fifth East street. Many others of that neighborhood were filled with water at the time of the recent heavy rainfall, and as the city has made no provision for taking care of floods, the heavy rains of the last few weeks caused the ditches to overflow and the claim of Mr. Robinson is only one of many which it is expected will be filed for damage from water.

NERVOUS WOMEN.

Take Horsford's Acid Phosphate. To quiet the nerves, relieve nausea, sick headache, and to induce refreshing sleep.

WOMAN AND REVOLVER.

Thelma Howard Shoots J. E. Williams in the Neck.

While carelessly handling a revolver in a room at the Empire hotel on west south Temple street yesterday morning, Mrs. Thelma Howard colored, shot J. E. Williams, also colored, through the neck. The man is now at the L. D. S. hospital in a precarious condition.

The woman declared positively that she did not know the gun was loaded, that is, she thought there were only two cartridges in the revolver and that she originally had intended to shoot before a shot would be fired. She pointed the weapon at Williams in a playful manner and he remarked: "I would rather have you kill me than any one else." The woman pulled the trigger and the next instant Williams was on the floor with a bullet in his neck. The ball struck him below the chin and came out at the back of the neck. The woman was crazed with terror when she found what she had done. The police believe her story that the shooting was accidental.

ROBBED BEHIND SALOON.

Early yesterday morning, Mike Manning, a miner, while under the influence of liquor, was held up and robbed by a negro and two white men at the rear of the Ocean bar on State street. He was relieved of $17 in cash and a $15 time check. A negro named Sumpter, who was arrested yesterday for drunkenness, was identified by Manning as one of the men who robbed him.

ALLINGTON AGAIN IN TROUBLE.

Harold Allington, 20 years of age, who figured in a mysterious fire at Westwood's grocery store on west Third North some time ago, is again in trouble and also in jail, on the charge of robbing E. J. Stutz of Ogden of $21.50. The theft was committed at an Ogden roominghouse, where Allington and Stutz were stopping. Allington came to Salt Lake and was arrested by Detective Shannon.

INQUIRY FROM ILLINOIS.

Secy. Ensign of the State Fair association is in receipt of a circular from the American Berkshire association of Springfield, Ill., relating to the "grand silver loving cup" offered by the American Berkshire association for the best herd of Berkshires, bred and exhibited by breeders of the different states. The cup is valued at $50, to be awarded to the owner of the best herd of Berkshires, consisting of a boar and three sows under one year old, at each state fair that provides a separate classification for Berkshires. It is interesting to note that the Utah State Fair association is prepared to meet the conditions, and ought to make a good showing in the contest at the October fair.

Easy to tell whether coffee causes headache. Drop it for a week or two and use

POSTUM

"THERE'S A REASON."

Read "The Road to Wellville," in page.

SALT LAKE'S BUSY WEEK

Commercial Travelers, Odd Fellows And Eagles Will Seek Amusement In Various Ways.

If Salt Lake falls this week to set a new pace in the art of having a good time, it will be because the weather man makes a determined fight against the hosts who are planning to be gay.

The Commercial Travelers start their festivities Thursday with a big parade. The Odd Fellows of all Utah assemble at Lagoon Wednesday. The Eagles take part in the U. C. T. parade Thursday and then depart westward for Saltair. The travelers themselves, after doing their duty in the parade for Lagoon, to wind up their festivities.

The full line of parade for Thursday has now been prepared. It will start at 12:30 o'clock and consist of the following divisions:

Mounted police.
Platoon of police.
Grand Marshal Emil Lehman, with his aides, J. R. Lewis, O. R. Sterling, S. M. Barclay, J. H. Saxman, G. W. Goddard and Gus Anderson.
Gov. Cutler and his staff.
Held's band, 50 pieces.
Marchal J. C. Leary, first division, and aides, Rev. B. J. Goshen, Max Brown and Lieut. R. C. Naylor.
U. C. T. float.
U. C. T. members and other commercial travelers.
Railroad traffic men and float.
Cadet band.
Elks and float.
Provo band.
Provo Commercial club and float from Provo, "Strawberry Festival."
Z. C. M. L. 300 uniformed employees.
Ogden societies and industrial floats.
Marchal A. G. Mahan, second division, and aides, J. Paul Jackson, Lieut. John Anderson of Eureka and Earl Geiger of Ogden.
Eagles.
Woodmen of the World.
Ladies of the Maccabees.
Modern Woodmen of America.
Thistle club and float.
United Carpenters & Joiners and float.

Marchal B. F. Redman, third division, and aides, Alexander Pickering, Frank J. Gunter, J. M. Young.
Eighteenth United States Infantry band.

Salt Lake Riding club.
Mayor Bransford, members of the city council and city officials.
Fire department.
Veteran firemen.
Saxons legion.
Salt Lake Driving club.
Cambrian association float.
Hawaiian float.
Greek association float.
Pony express riders.
Old stage coach.
Forty floats, industrial.

Marchal G. T. Odell, fourth division, with aides, J. H. Young, Jr., Henry Potter and Charles Mallin.
Ladies' G. A. R. band.
One hundred automobiles.
Thirty carriages.

FOR THE FESTIVITIES.

The U. C. T. program for the festival is as follows:

Wednesday Evening—Banquet to grand council.
Thursday—10 a. m., reception to U. C. T. members at Commercial club; address of welcome by Gov. Cutler, Mayor Bransford and W. J. Halloran; response by George J. Jeffrey, grand counsel, U. C. T.; 12:30 p. m., parade; 3 p. m., ball game between Provo and U. C. T. at Walker field; 5 p. m., bicycle races at Salt Palace.
Friday—2:30 a. m., music and speeches at chamber of commerce; 10 a. m., ride through Salt Lake in "Seeing Salt Lake" cars; 2 p. m., ball game between Logan and U. C. T. at Walker field; 5 p. m., Saltair entertainment; bicycle races at new saucer track.

Saturday—10:30 a. m., organ recital at tabernacle; 1 p. m., Lagoon boat races, swimming races, foot racing; 2 p. m., ball game between Boise and U. C. T. at Lagoon; 5 p. m., Lagoon band concert and dance.

Saturday—12 m., laying of the cornerstone of the U. C. T. home for dependent boys.

Forced to Jump from His Airship at Saltair Saturday.

The Strobel airship, which has been making daily ascensions at Saltair since the opening of that resort, was wrecked Saturday afternoon and Jack Dallas, the aeronaut, had a narrow escape from death before the close of one of the most startling aerial trips ever seen in Utah.

Dallas' ascension was made shortly after 5 o'clock, just as a storm was coming up from the southwest. He had encircled the pavilion twice when the wind became so strong he was unable to manipulate the machine to bring it to the starting place. Several times it struck the water, submerging the navigator in the brine. Finally, when the ship again began to soar, merely as a balloon as the machinery was stopped, Dallas let go and dropped to the beach, a distance of 20 or 30 feet. He fell upon the sand and was rendered unconscious, but aside from being somewhat bruised and exhausted he was none the worse for the encounter when finally brought to the pavilion. The airship was found about six miles north of the Saltair railroad tracks late in the evening, completely out of commission.

GRAND JURY TOMORROW.

Federal Inquiry in Utah National Bank Robbery to be Resumed.

The federal grand jury will reconvene tomorrow. Three weeks ago the jury asked to be given a recess because of its inability to complete its investigation of the Utah National bank robbery at that time. The jury will assemble in Judge Marshall's court room, to be later assigned to duty in its own headquarters.

Whether the jury will get any nearer a conclusion at the end of the recess session than it did during the first session is not yet known. For a time the Pinkerton detectives in charge of the case were criticized because of their inability to make headway, but the confession of the grand jury that it, too, found the problem baffling, made in its request for a recess after sifting all available evidence to the bottom, has been much to the credit of "Doc" Londoner and his staff of Pinkerton assistants. It is understood they have been hard at work during the recess of the grand jury and may have turned up new leads.

Saltair for recreation and pleasure.

DALLAS NARROW ESCAPE.

Forced to Jump from His Airship at Saltair Saturday.

The Strobel airship, which has been making daily ascensions at Saltair since the opening of that resort, was wrecked Saturday afternoon and Jack Dallas, the aeronaut, had a narrow escape from death before the close of one of the most startling aerial trips ever seen in Utah.

Dallas' ascension was made shortly after 5 o'clock, just as a storm was coming up from the southwest. He had encircled the pavilion twice when the wind became so strong he was unable to manipulate the machine to bring it to the starting place. Several times it struck the water, submerging the navigator in the brine. Finally, when the ship again began to soar, merely as a balloon as the machinery was stopped, Dallas let go and dropped to the beach, a distance of 20 or 30 feet. He fell upon the sand and was rendered unconscious, but aside from being somewhat bruised and exhausted he was none the worse for the encounter when finally brought to the pavilion. The airship was found about six miles north of the Saltair railroad tracks late in the evening, completely out of commission.

GRAND JURY TOMORROW.

Federal Inquiry in Utah National Bank Robbery to be Resumed.

The federal grand jury will reconvene tomorrow. Three weeks ago the jury asked to be given a recess because of its inability to complete its investigation of the Utah National bank robbery at that time. The jury will assemble in Judge Marshall's court room, to be later assigned to duty in its own headquarters.

Whether the jury will get any nearer a conclusion at the end of the recess session than it did during the first session is not yet known. For a time the Pinkerton detectives in charge of the case were criticized because of their inability to make headway, but the confession of the grand jury that it, too, found the problem baffling, made in its request for a recess after sifting all available evidence to the bottom, has been much to the credit of "Doc" Londoner and his staff of Pinkerton assistants. It is understood they have been hard at work during the recess of the grand jury and may have turned up new leads.

Saltair for recreation and pleasure.

DALLAS NARROW ESCAPE.

Forced to Jump from His Airship at Saltair Saturday.

The Strobel airship, which has been making daily ascensions at Saltair since the opening of that resort, was wrecked Saturday afternoon and Jack Dallas, the aeronaut, had a narrow escape from death before the close of one of the most startling aerial trips ever seen in Utah.

Dallas' ascension was made shortly after 5 o'clock, just as a storm was coming up from the southwest. He had encircled the pavilion twice when the wind became so strong he was unable to manipulate the machine to bring it to the starting place. Several times it struck the water, submerging the navigator in the brine. Finally, when the ship again began to soar, merely as a balloon as the machinery was stopped, Dallas let go and dropped to the beach, a distance of 20 or 30 feet. He fell upon the sand and was rendered unconscious, but aside from being somewhat bruised and exhausted he was none the worse for the encounter when finally brought to the pavilion. The airship was found about six miles north of the Saltair railroad tracks late in the evening, completely out of commission.

GRAND JURY TOMORROW.

Federal Inquiry in Utah National Bank Robbery to be Resumed.

The federal grand jury will reconvene tomorrow. Three weeks ago the jury asked to be given a recess because of its inability to complete its investigation of the Utah National bank robbery at that time. The jury will assemble in Judge Marshall's court room, to be later assigned to duty in its own headquarters.

Whether the jury will get any nearer a conclusion at the end of the recess session than it did during the first session is not yet known. For a time the Pinkerton detectives in charge of the case were criticized because of their inability to make headway, but the confession of the grand jury that it, too, found the problem baffling, made in its request for a recess after sifting all available evidence to the bottom, has been much to the credit of "Doc" Londoner and his staff of Pinkerton assistants. It is understood they have been hard at work during the recess of the grand jury and may have turned up new leads.

Saltair for recreation and pleasure.

DALLAS NARROW ESCAPE.

Forced to Jump from His Airship at Saltair Saturday.

The Strobel airship, which has been making daily ascensions at Saltair since the opening of that resort, was wrecked Saturday afternoon and Jack Dallas, the aeronaut, had a narrow escape from death before the close of one of the most startling aerial trips ever seen in Utah.

Dallas' ascension was made shortly after 5 o'clock, just as a storm was coming up from the southwest. He had encircled the pavilion twice when the wind became so strong he was unable to manipulate the machine to bring it to the starting place. Several times it struck the water, submerging the navigator in the brine. Finally, when the ship again began to soar, merely as a balloon as the machinery was stopped, Dallas let go and dropped to the beach, a distance of 20 or 30 feet. He fell upon the sand and was rendered unconscious, but aside from being somewhat bruised and exhausted he was none the worse for the encounter when finally brought to the pavilion. The airship was found about six miles north of the Saltair railroad tracks late in the evening, completely out of commission.

GRAND JURY TOMORROW.

Federal Inquiry in Utah National Bank Robbery to be Resumed.

The federal grand jury will reconvene tomorrow. Three weeks ago the jury asked to be given a recess because of its inability to complete its investigation of the Utah National bank robbery at that time. The jury will assemble in Judge Marshall's court room, to be later assigned to duty in its own headquarters.

Whether the jury will get any nearer a conclusion at the end of the recess session than it did during the first session is not yet known. For a time the Pinkerton detectives in charge of the case were criticized because of their inability to make headway, but the confession of the grand jury that it, too, found the problem baffling, made in its request for a recess after sifting all available evidence to the bottom, has been much to the credit of "Doc" Londoner and his staff of Pinkerton assistants. It is understood they have been hard at work during the recess of the grand jury and may have turned up new leads.

Saltair for recreation and pleasure.

DALLAS NARROW ESCAPE.

Forced to Jump from His Airship at Saltair Saturday.

The Strobel airship, which has been making daily ascensions at Saltair since the opening of that resort, was wrecked Saturday afternoon and Jack Dallas, the aeronaut, had a narrow escape from death before the close of one of the most startling aerial trips ever seen in Utah.

Dallas' ascension was made shortly after 5 o'clock, just as a storm was coming up from the southwest. He had encircled the pavilion twice when the wind became so strong he was unable to manipulate the machine to bring it to the starting place. Several times it struck the water, submerging the navigator in the brine. Finally, when the ship again began to soar, merely as a balloon as the machinery was stopped, Dallas let go and dropped to the beach, a distance of 20 or 30 feet. He fell upon the sand and was rendered unconscious, but aside from being somewhat bruised and exhausted he was none the worse for the encounter when finally brought to the pavilion. The airship was found about six miles north of the Saltair railroad tracks late in the evening, completely out of commission.

GRAND JURY TOMORROW.

Federal Inquiry in Utah National Bank Robbery to be Resumed.

The federal grand jury will reconvene tomorrow. Three weeks ago the jury asked to be given a recess because of its inability to complete its investigation of the Utah National bank robbery at that time. The jury will assemble in Judge Marshall's court room, to be later assigned to duty in its own headquarters.

Whether the jury will get any nearer a conclusion at the end of the recess session than it did during the first session is not yet known. For a time the Pinkerton detectives in charge of the case were criticized because of their inability to make headway, but the confession of the grand jury that it, too, found the problem baffling, made in its request for a recess after sifting all available evidence to the bottom, has been much to the credit of "Doc" Londoner and his staff of Pinkerton assistants. It is understood they have been hard at work during the recess of the grand jury and may have turned up new leads.

Saltair for recreation and pleasure.

DALLAS NARROW ESCAPE.

Forced to Jump from His Airship at Saltair Saturday.

The Strobel airship, which has been making daily ascensions at Saltair since the opening of that resort, was wrecked Saturday afternoon and Jack Dallas, the aeronaut, had a narrow escape from death before the close of one of the most startling aerial trips ever seen in Utah.

Dallas' ascension was made shortly after 5 o'clock, just as a storm was coming up from the southwest. He had encircled the pavilion twice when the wind became so strong he was unable to manipulate the machine to bring it to the starting place. Several times it struck the water, submerging the navigator in the brine. Finally, when the ship again began to soar, merely as a balloon as the machinery was stopped, Dallas let go and dropped to the beach, a distance of 20 or 30 feet. He fell upon the sand and was rendered unconscious, but aside from being somewhat bruised and exhausted he was none the worse for the encounter when finally brought to the pavilion. The airship was found about six miles north of the Saltair railroad tracks late in the evening, completely out of commission.

GRAND JURY TOMORROW.

Federal Inquiry in Utah National Bank Robbery to be Resumed.

The federal grand jury will reconvene tomorrow. Three weeks ago the jury asked to be given a recess because of its inability to complete its investigation of the Utah National bank robbery at that time. The jury will assemble in Judge Marshall's court room, to be later assigned to duty in its own headquarters.

Whether the jury will get any nearer a conclusion at the end of the recess session than it did during the first session is not yet known. For a time the Pinkerton detectives in charge of the case were criticized because of their inability to make headway, but the confession of the grand jury that it, too, found the problem baffling, made in its request for a recess after sifting all available evidence to the bottom, has been much to the credit of "Doc" Londoner and his staff of Pinkerton assistants. It is understood they have been hard at work during the recess of the grand jury and may have turned up new leads.

Saltair for recreation and pleasure.

DALLAS NARROW ESCAPE.

Forced to Jump from His Airship at Saltair Saturday.</