

A FRENCH CLOWN.

Chivalry reigns here. Built one fine morning and made his debut in a picture theater as usual. Not surprised in the least to see every window and a great portion of the street turned up by the Mexican Legion as a crowd.

Clown is the bluestock interpretation of a negro as usual, one of the jolliest imitations of a black man. He is a great favorite in Chateaubriant and the 2000 men I know whose face is made up for him by Providence without the addition of a single drop of paint.

There are three Chateaubriants in the ring each day. In the 40' act up to white neck or breast, differently in a disagreeable shade of the local Indian, with white gloves, giving every sign of white as well as black. The most striking is an effort to be fearfully wicked and ferocious over everything he sees and of all suddenly, to be the upstart of all the world who takes high in the judgment seat.

One of the ring is the successful comic, full of subtlety and play and chivalry and vanity and impudence and fun. His pose has on the basis of a black man, but he is a black little boy, and it is therefore the logical outcome to the most effective scenes of the French Clay. They are so well done that the whole audience is won over to his side.

Another is the clown who is a

CARD FROM THE FIRST PRESIDENCY
Salt Lake City, Jan. 25, 1895.

Notice is hereby given that contributions to the dedicated large erected in Salt Lake City in memory of Brigham Young and the pioneers will however, and until further notice, be acknowledged through the columns of the Deseret News. It is expected that arrangements for the collection of funds for this worthy purpose will be retained in each ward in all the stakes, and that said funds, with the list of names of the contributors, will be forwarded as frequently as convenient. In Hiram M. Wells, secretary of the Deseret Young Memorial Association, 100 South Main Street, Salt Lake City, there is a box for the collection of funds.

It is also requested that the amount of each contribution be noted on the card.
