holding of the glory of God was more precious than a thousand long lives.

The Greeks, in imagination might conquer, crossed the imperial frontier with the hope of delivering some portion of the earth from the power of the Ottomans. They did not remember that the earth is a whole, and that if it is to be saved, it must be saved as a whole. They did not remember that the Ottomans were not a nation, but a people, and that if they were to be saved, they must be saved as a people. They did not remember that the Ottomans were not a nation, but a people, and that if they were to be saved, they must be saved as a people.

CAUSE OF BALANCE.

Historians now declare that they have determined definitely that the cause of the balance of power is the balance of power. They have determined that the balance of power is the balance of power. They have determined that the balance of power is the balance of power. They have determined that the balance of power is the balance of power.

ABOUT CIGARETTES.

The newspapers in Illinois, with few exceptions, are urging the passage by the legislature of a law prohibiting the sale of cigarettes. In the advocacy of the proposition, the Chicago Times-Herald says:

Whether the laws and prayers of good women will prevail against the persuasive arguments of the tobacco trust is a question which the legislature will decide. But, however the question is decided, it is a question which the legislature will decide. But, however the question is decided, it is a question which the legislature will decide.
