EVENING NEWS.

Friday, . . Dec. 10, 1880.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Got Back.—Bishop John Sharp, as expected, arrived home last evening from New York.

Police Court.—A fellow named McDermott, for flourishing his pistol on the street, was to-day fined $20.

Nobles.—Milton Nobles, the "Phœnix" man, will appear at the Theatre on Monday evening, the 13th inst.

Mutual Glances.—Salt Lake is looking toward Provo for coal, and Provo is looking toward Salt Lake for coal. Where will their eyes meet?

Foggy.—Many a person got up late this morning, under the impression that he was up with the sun. The illusion was dispelled, however, much quicker than the fog which caused it.

House Burned.—A house of ill-fame, in Park City, burned down yesterday morning. The fire was caused from a stove in one of the rooms, in which one of the nymphs had lighted a fire. Loss about $1,500.

Married.—Elsewhere appears a notice of the marriage, yesterday, by Counselor D. H. Wells, of Mr. Frederick O. Webb, late of the London Conference, and Miss Sara J. Walsh, late of Wolverhampton, England. The happy husband of a bride no less so, is the cousin of our esteemed friend and brother, Prof. J. L. Barfoot, Curator of the Deseret Museum. If we had words to express the good wishes of our heart toward the young couple, those words should be spoken, but as we have them not, they will likely accept what we can give and imagine the rest.

Gone to Rest.—In our death column will be found a notice of the departure to a better world of Bro. John Loveless, of Payson, aged 73. He was early a member of the Church, being baptized in 1831, and passed through the persecutions that followed the Saints in Missouri and Illinois. He arrived in Salt Lake September 15th, 1851, moved to Provo shortly afterward and settled in Payson in 1855. He was taken with a chill on the 1st inst., and cold settling on his lungs, he gradually failed and passed away peacefully on the 6th inst. He died faithful, leaving a wife, 15 children and a numerous growing posterity.

Assault.—From the Milford Sentinel of the 8th:

"Between 6 and 7 o'clock Sunday a. m., a murderous assault was made upon the person of Mr. Kennedy. He had come down from Frisco Saturday evening, on his way to Beaver, to sit on the Grand Jury, and after a night's debauch, came into Parker & Kearns' saloon rather intoxicated. Bill Hansen came into the saloon shortly after and took his seat by the stove. Mr. Kennedy began abusing him in a general way as he is known to do when under the influence of liquor, when the said Bill struck him over the head with a four legged stool, cutting a gash two inches in length right to the bone. It proved to be only a scalp wound, but the knowing ones say, had it been one half of an inch lower Kennedy would have been called to his final accounts. Hansen was fined $25 and costs."

Returned Missionary.—Elder John W. Jackson, of Glenwood, Sevier County, arrived home last evening from an eight months' absence on a mission to the Northwestern States. He obtained his release on the 24th of last November, while in Racine, Wisconsin. He represents the people among whom he has been laboring as uncharitable and inhospitable as a rule, although he often met with those who treated him with great kindness. He travelled without purse or scrip, on foot, for about 1,500 miles, and had ample opportunity of testing the feelings of the people. He held 65 public meetings, indoors and outdoors together, baptized four persons, blessed five children, and with Elder George H. Butler, who has since gone to Europe, organized a branch of the Church in Luddington, Michigan, and ordained a priest to preside over the saints there. He values his experience very highly, and feels that it has been of incalculable benefit to him. He returns in good health, notwithstanding an attack of sunstroke which he sustained last summer, in Michigan, can testify of the goodness of God to him while on the land and upon the water, and feels willing to take another mission whenever the Lord wills that he should do so. He leaves for Glenwood in the morning.

Cremating a Cat.—Early yesterday morning, Mr. Robert Burns, of the 12th Ward, arose as was his wont, and after building a fire in the kitchen stove prepared to go to work. It is his custom, after building the fires, to go down town to his place of business and return for breakfast an hour or two later. He stepped outside the room first, previous to departing, and on coming in, noticing that the oven door was open, closed it. He then struck out for Main Street. Coming back in due time for breakfast, he was surprised to find no one in the house, and afterward to discover the members of his family eating breakfast with a neighbor. On asking what was the matter, they requested him to go home and he would ascertain the cause of the exodus. He did so, and on entering the kitchen of his dwelling, his nasal organs were saluted with one of the most villainous odors they had ever met. He soon traced the fumes to their proper source, and on opening the oven door, discovered the baked carcass of an unfortunate cat, which had met a horrible death by being accidentally fastened in the oven by Mr. Burns, previous to his leaving

"Hear the Crier"!—"O. H. J.," in a communication to the Herald, this morning, complains of the criticism which our cotemporary applied to the Philharmonic Concert of Wednesday evening, and in his efforts to show why the entertainment should have been exempt from said criticism, the writer uses the following language:

Many of the best singers who used to belong to the Philharmonic have left town, for example: John Black, B. B. Young, John White, while others, for reasons of their own, are no longer active members. Probably they have'nt time, or don't find enough pleasure or profit in it. Again, after "Pinafore," perhaps because it appeared that money could be made by a Salt Lake singing society, the Church organized an exclusively Mormon singing society, and thus drew away from the Philharmonic some of its oldest and most useful members. In its membership, as well as in its audience, Wednesday evening, the Mormon element was conspicuous by its absence.

The above is a very mild specimen of the slurs which anti-"Mormons" like O. J. H. are continually flinging at this Church, whose members, be it understood, are the fathers and mothers of those young people who "for reasons of their own are no longer active members" of the Philharmonic Society. It is a fact, of which we are well informed, that as long as there were "Mormons" in that society, they were continually subjected to the sneers and contemptuous remarks of many of their "Gentile" associates, who, for reasons known only to themselves, considered themselves too pure and holy to tolerate the proximity of the "Mormon" members. And not only this, but others have for years infested this community and deemed it a duty and a privilege, in public and in private, in the social circle and through the columns of the press, to revile and slander most shamefully the "Mormon" people, giving utterance to things too base for repetition and too false for their own souls to believe, and for which, from persons less patient and dignified than those they attack, would have long since won for their authors summary and well merited chastisement.

With such wretches, O. J. H. and other members of the Philharmonic Society are in the closest sympathy, and have openly avowed their hostility to the people of Utah and all that they cherish as sacred and divine. And such persons will heap opprobrium upon the religion, and upon the aged and revered relatives of those they would fain keep (or so pretend) as their fellow-workers, and yet complain because they resent such insults in the mildest and most dignified way—that of withdrawing from the society of their defamers. Such childishness reminds one of the pathetic appeal of the urchin who deemed himself imposed upon: "Mother, make Bill quit; every time I hit 'im on the head, he hollers."

When such persons as O. J. H. and his confreres learn to bridle their tongues, mind their own business, and practice a little of the Christianity they so loudly affect to preach, they will better deserve the society of "Mormons," young and old, will receive from them more favors, and thrive better for the assistance so rendered; but until they do this, they cannot complain consistently of lack of "Mormon" affiliation and support, nor deem themselves neglected if in their societies and at their entertainments, the "Mormon element is conspicuous by its absence."

Brutal Outrage.—A young man named Ray Parrish, aged 25, of Springville, is said to have committed the fearful crime of rape upon the persons of two little girls, aged respectively six and eight years, children in a family with whom he was residing. The vile acts were revealed by the innocent prattling of the children over the matter, and subsequently confirmed by the examinations of Dr. Pike, of Provo. Parrish disappeared after his crime became known, but Sheriff Turner is hunting for him.

Notice.—Information is wanted at this office of the whereabouts of Jacob D. Burnham, an American by birth, who, between the years 1846 and 1847 left the town of Windsor, Conn., with Miss Cornelia Blanchard, his wife, in company with her father's family, for the purpose of going to Nauvoo, being at that time a firm believer in the Mormon faith. He has been heard from but once since he left, and then he was at Salt Lake City.

IT IS TRULY WONDERFUL

TO SEE what improvements now exist as compared with railway travel only a few years ago. To become convinced of this, one has only to select for his route East, the popular and well-known

HEALTH AND HAPPINESS.

It seems strange that anyone will suffer from the many derangements brought on by an impure condition of the blood, when SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP will restore perfect health to the physicial organization. It is indeed a strengthening syrup, pleasant to take, and has proven itself to be the best blood purifier ever discovered, effectually curing Scrofula, Weakness of the Kidneys, all Nervous disorders and Debility. It corrects indigestion. It makes the old feel young, and the young feel gay; and will invariably drive out of the system the many ills that human flesh is heir to. A single bottle will prove to you its merits as a health renewer, for it acts like a charm, especially when the complaint is of an exhaustive nature, having a tendency to lessen the natural vigor of the brain and nervous system. The Best I Ever Knew Of.

J. G. Starkey, a prominent and influential citizen of Iowa City, says: I have had the Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint for several years, and have used every remedy I could hear of, without any relief whatever, until I saw your Shiloh's Vitalizer advertised in our paper, and was persuaded to try it. I am happy to state that it has entirely cured me. It is certainly the Best Remedy I ever knew of. Price 75 cents. Sold by Z. C. M. I. "Don't Give Up the Ship."

When these words were spoken by our lamented Lawrence, it must have been a solemn time for those on board, and probably not a dry eye among them, seeing their commander mortally wounded, and still giving orders like the above; but not more solemn than when the family physician informs you that one of your family has an affection of the lungs, which, if neglected, will eventually terminate in consumption. But, reader, don't be frightened or "give up the ship," for Dr. Hale, a physician of Europe, discovered a remedy for Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all affections of the throat, bronchial tubes and lungs leading to consumption, and C. N. Crittenton, one of our leading medicine dealers, of No. 7 Sixth Avenue, New York, believing the market required an article which was certain, safe, and sure to do the work, and yet within the reach of all as regards price, etc., has purchased the original receipt from Dr. Hale, and we understand is selling very large quantities of the same, and, as far as we hear, it gives entire satisfaction. It is sold by all druggists in New York, Brooklyn, Jersey City, Newark, N. J., Hoboken, and in fact, all through the country, at 50 cents and $1. Great saving by purchasing the large size. Depot, Crittenton's, 7 Sixth Avenue, New York City.
