development of our country, and have done an especially in the article advancement of our people. Novelties of the two great religious signs of our Dispensations, the Ten Commandments and Welsh names, the history of our ceremonial and ecclesiastical life could not be more fully written in the names of the dispensations. The Welsh songs have been sung in every heart and by every lip since the time of Jesus Christ.

If I can aid in anyway in making the forthcoming exhibition a success, I will be pleased to have you command me.

LAID TO REST.

The Remains of Henry R. Nugent Ent.

signed to Mother Earth.

The General of Henry R. Nugent, who was killed at Park City on Tuesday last, took his place from his late residence, 535 East, Ninth Temple street, at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The services were conducted by the Rev. L. H. Holley of the St. Paul's church, and music appropriate to the occasion was rendered by a select quartet. Judge Culver made a few remarks, eloquent in its meaning, and closed him as having been honest, upright, and a true friend to the poor and the unfortunate. The services were attended by Mount Oliver's friends.

Military band present.
Ladies present.
Montana, "The Buffalo."
Mountain side mounted.
Ladies of West Valley, "The Sun."

After this service all others will commence singing hymns under the leadership of Prof. L. Holley.

Second session, Thursday, at 8 p.m.

Professor Gleason will fill the remainder of his engagement in the Old Shaking Bisk.

Prof. Gleason, the famous horse trainer, will give the rest of his performances at the old shaking rink on Wednesday, between First and Second streets.

The professor's first exhibition will be given in that building tonight, beginning at 8 o'clock and continuing throughout the week. A good program is on the boards and those who attend are sure to be interested.

The Donavan Charges.

The charges preferred against Capt. John Donavan by his superior officer, Chief Price, are to be investigated at tonight's meeting of the Bar and police association. It is likely, however, that no punishment will be inflicted on the accused from the city of Prof. Gleason.
