

SOCIAL CHAT

Social interest is occupied with the visit of the Butte golf club, which is here to engage with the local club in a golf tournament, and the Country club members in particular are pleasantly busy with the various details arranged for their entertainment. The program began yesterday with the reception at the club, and the lake party in the evening, and today so far has been quite filled, while a large lawn party will be given tonight. An elaborate dinner is planned for tomorrow, and a half dozen other functions will follow their stay. The first half of the tournament will be played tomorrow afternoon and the second half on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Salisbury entertained delightfully at dinner on Thursday evening, the decorations being in sweet peas, and the place cards Japanese fans. Present were Mr. and Mrs. George M. Downey, Miss Keogh, Mrs. McCracken, Mrs. Mary Judge, Mr. and Mrs. George V. Wallace, Mrs. Hoyt Sherman, W. S. McCormick and P. H. Lamm.

Miss Gussie Gentsch, who is a visitor at the Salisbury home, was guest of honor at a dinner party given by Miss Salisbury on Tuesday night, about a dozen friends being invited to meet her. The table was effectively decorated, and the following guests were present: Misses Gussie Gentsch, Genevieve McCormick, Mary Swadley, Lucie McCormick, Laura Brandford, Mildred and Bess McMillan and Elizabeth Baker, Messrs. Albert McCormick, Harold Lamb, Robert Lawrence, Craghton Brown, Paul Williams, James and Walker Salisbury.

Miss Eva Ray entertained at a pretty luncheon on Tuesday in honor of Miss Mabel Nissler. An artistic arrangement of nasturtiums and ferns made the table attractive, and the place cards were Dutch scenes done in water colors. The guests present were Misses Mabel Nissler, Margie Mulvey, Edna Rivera, Nettie Luman, Abbie Lowe, Ida Cohen, Alice Farnell, Lottie Parker. In the evening they were joined by Cliff Foster, Leo Frost, Frank Rudy, Will Allworth, Harry Goodwin, Oliver Goodwin, Charles Rulon, Sherburne Funk and Lewis Mcardy.

Another pretty luncheon given at the Country club on Wednesday was that given by Mrs. Sturgis of Portland, Oregon, in honor of Miss Salisbury. The decorations were sweet peas and plumosa and covers were laid for eight.

Seventeen friends enjoyed the dainty luncheon given by Miss Stella Fabian at the Country club on Wednesday, bachelor buttons and tiny blue fans for place cards making the table attractive.

Mrs. Simon Hammer was one of the Wednesday hostesses at the Country club, entertaining a few friends informally at luncheon.

Miss Gullie E. Dix celebrated her birthday anniversary in a pleasant luncheon and afternoon party on Thursday, about a dozen friends being invited. Red and white sweet peas and ferns made the pretty decorations and the place cards were also in red and white. The guests were Misses Rank, Miss Emily McCallister, Miss Marie Galey, Miss Blanche Langton, Miss Virginia Shannon, Miss Emma Jane Valentine, Miss Ethel Graham, Miss Laura Sutton, Miss Alice Kimball, Miss Charlotte Druehl assisted in the dining room.

One of Thursday's pleasant social affairs was the Reception given by Mrs. E. H. Jacobs and Mrs. J. R. Hubbell, about 20 guests being present. The rooms were beautifully decorated, the hall in nasturtiums, and all who were present and the dining room in nasturtiums and ferns. The invited guests were Mrs. J. C. McCall, Mrs. George F. Goodwin, Mrs. N. Beaman, Mrs. P. C. Duxter, Mrs. L. B. Brown, Mrs. L. B. Furness, Mrs. Theodore, Mrs. T. A. Dix, Mrs. W. A. Druehl, Mrs. W. W. Rivers, Mrs. J. Melton, Mrs. J. C. Hubbell, Mrs. W. Smith, Mrs. H. B. Moorhead, Mrs. W. A. Lee, Mrs. J. C. Tabbot, Mrs. J. E. Marshall, Mrs. J. Lockman and Miss Lockman of St. Louis, Mo.

Miss Josephine Hottel was one of Thursday's hostesses, her function being a garden party, and all details being arranged to carry out the plan. The lawn and porch were used, and brightly lit with colored lanterns, and electric lights, the refreshments were in flower designs, the for being shaped in tiny flower pots, and all who were present and the dining room in nasturtiums and ferns. The invited guests were Mrs. J. C. McCall, Mrs. George F. Goodwin, Mrs. N. Beaman, Mrs. P. C. Duxter, Mrs. L. B. Brown, Mrs. L. B. Furness, Mrs. Theodore, Mrs. T. A. Dix, Mrs. W. A. Druehl, Mrs. W. W. Rivers, Mrs. J. Melton, Mrs. J. C. Hubbell, Mrs. W. Smith, Mrs. H. B. Moorhead, Mrs. W. A. Lee, Mrs. J. C. Tabbot, Mrs. J. E. Marshall, Mrs. J. Lockman and Miss Lockman of St. Louis, Mo.

Mrs. Oscar Emil Goodsell entertained a party at her home on Thursday, Mrs. Charles E. Lane of Dayton, Ohio, on Thursday.

Miss Laren Leary entertained at a pleasant affair yesterday in honor of Miss Philura Cumback of Louisville, Ky.

Miss Ella Lovenseth was hostess at a delightful party on Tuesday, given in honor of Miss Anna Dierberg of Butte, Mont.

Mrs. Thomas Marloway entertained delightfully at luncheon on Wednesday at the Country club in honor of her guest, Mrs. Ruelton of Kansas City. A pretty decoration was effected with purple dahlias and white marguerites, and the following guests enjoyed the event: Mrs. Shollon, Mrs. William Bradley, Mrs. George Bruce, Mrs. David Evans, Mrs. Ledyard M. Bailey, Mrs. O. W. Powers, Mrs. Joseph L. Kysling, Mrs. Harry H. Windsor, Mrs. Charles D. Brookings, Mrs. William Sprague, Mrs. W. F. Adams, Miss Elizabeth Reddell and Miss Jessie Blair of Burlington, Ia.

On Wednesday night Mrs. C. C. Adams entertained a lake party comprised of the following: The Misses Mildred and Bess McMillan, Beth Dunbar, Gussie Gentsch, Loretta Leary, Louise Sullivan, Alice Goodwin, Elsie Sadler, Mary Swadley, Lela Potter and Stella McIntyre. Messrs. Harry Fabian, Wallace Brodermeyer, Hooper Dunbar, Roger Sherman, Ross Brown, Craghton Brown, William Leary, Devereaux Jennings, Ernest Sadler and Frank Janer.

Miss Katherine Moffatt gave the first of a series of parties on Thursday, the event being in the way of a Kensington, and the following guests enjoying the pleasant event: Miss Pearl Walker, Miss Edith Hale, Miss George Spangston, Mrs. Royal Romney, Miss Alice Fisher, Miss Mabel Crowley, Miss Halie Featon, Miss Phoebe Hardin, Miss Edna Davis, Mrs. Charles Kinnick, Miss Marie Meloy, Miss Katherine Wall, Miss Beadeflowing, Miss Myra Rowles, Miss Irma Walker, Miss Anna Chas. Miss Leandine Hottel, Miss Sylvia Cobb, Miss Barbara Kinnick, Misses Ethel and Gertrude Campbell, Mrs. Harry Knight and Mrs. Earl Fairweather.

Miss Geneva Harlick entertained at dinner on Monday night in honor of her guest, Miss Leah Hill, her decorations being sweet peas and ferns.

Miss Katherine Moffatt will entertain at another afternoon party next Tuesday.

Mrs. William Druehl entertains at an informal luncheon Monday for Miss Charlotte Druehl, Miss Ruth Macaung, Miss Helen Barrett, Miss Louise Haskem, Miss Maud McCargar and Miss Louise Madison.

One of the largest home affairs of the week was the lawn party given last night by Miss Winnie Evans and Miss Claire Midgley at the home of Mrs. J. R. Midgley, about 25 guests enjoying the pleasant affair.

Miss Angela Kinney entertained about 15 intimate friends at a luncheon at the Country club on Monday complimentary to her sister, Miss Dorothy Kinney.

On Monday Miss McCoy was guest of honor at a delightful buffet supper given by Miss Elsie D'Arms, whom she has been visiting. The rooms were prettily decorated in various shades of sweet peas and ferns, and 14 guests were present.

Miss Mary Sharp entertained her club on Monday.

Nearly all the members of the You and I Crystal club are camped on the Provo river near Woodland, Summit county, and are having an enjoyable outing.

Mrs. D. P. Felt of the Utah Press association was pleasantly surprised on Thursday night at his home by about 30 members of the recent Portland excursion which he managed with signal success, the occasion being a tribute to Mr. Felt for his strenuous efforts in behalf of the party he directed. The affair was successfully planned, the foreman's host being genuinely surprised, and an enjoyable evening was passed with music, addresses, feasting and general good cheer.

Mrs. Morrison entertained at a garden party last night at her home for the benefit of the St. Mary's Altar fund.

Mr. W. M. Woolley entertained a few friends informally on Wednesday at Salt Lake. The guests were Miss Rosalind Nye, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar S. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hayes. An elegant luncheon was given by the host, and a very enjoyable afternoon and evening was spent.

Mrs. Daniel LeMay gave a like party on Wednesday in honor of her guest, Mrs. Copley.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. King entertained a party at Lagoon on Thursday night.

A pretty home wedding was that of Miss Nellie Brandley and John Sneddon on Thursday night, the ceremony taking place at 9 o'clock with Bishop Wm. McMillan of the Twenty-eighth ward officiating. The ceremony took place at the home of the groom's parents, No. 634 west Third North street, and immediately after a reception was tendered the happy couple, only relations and intimate friends of the contracting parties being present.

About twenty members of the Gaiety club were the guests Sunday of Raymond Jones and Johnny Held at the "Don Drop Inn" at Upper Falls, Provo canyon. The day was spent in climbing the hills. Ladders had been put along the side of the "falls" and about 12 of the "gaieties" made the climb above the falls. At 4:45 p. m. after a day of fun and frolic, the club left the canyon for Salt Lake. Those who engaged in the affair were Mae O'Neill, Alice Hardy, Lillian Stodahl, Janet Whittich, Daisy Nelson, Lizzie Robinson, Jenny Nelson, Inez Thomas, Veda Stringham, Florence Madson, Winifred De Flaming, Ruel Hottel, Paul Davis, S. G. Hardy, Harry Madson, Chick Hansen, Sylvan Simon, George White, Clyde Danner, and Oliver Meredith. Mrs. Whittich and Mrs. O'Neill were chaperons.

Mrs. Herman Gelrichs, one of the greatest society women of this country, learned recently that she has made $20,000,000 since she revoked the power of attorney given to her husband in 1897 to manage her business affairs. She is still pursuing the same business tactics that have proved so successful, and it is believed the time is near at hand when she will be the richest woman in the world. She has adjusted her trouble with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles Gelrichs, and hereafter, it is said, lack of money will no longer prevent the latter from living in the best of style.

WEDDING BELLS

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dougal announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Claire, to Carl Prinz of Milwaukee. The wedding to take place Sept. 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crane announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Catherine, to Carl Prinz of Milwaukee. The wedding to take place Sept. 4.

Miss Nellie Brandley and John Sneddon were married Thursday evening at the residence of the groom's parents, 634 west Third North street, by Bishop W. McMillan and about 40 friends were present at the pretty reception which followed. Flowers made the rooms attractive and dainty refreshments were served.

There was a pretty wedding Thursday evening at the residence of Mrs. S. D. Chaso, 29 H street, when Miss Anna Dece (niece of Mrs. Chaso) was wedded to William Knudson of this city. The rooms were bright with flowers and vines, the bride was daintily gowned and the affair a delightful one. Mr. and Mrs. Knudson will reside here.

On Thursday night Miss Fannie M. Merrill and Mr. Joseph Harsh were married, the ceremony being performed at the home of the groom with Bishop Parry officiating and a reception following to the relatives and friends. The rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers and vines, and the bride wore a gown of white silk with lace trimmings, and carried roses. Her bridesmaid, Miss Alice Daniels, was in pink and carried pink flowers. Mr. Frederick Gundry was best man. Assisting in receiving were Miss Harsh, Mrs. Burdell and Mrs. Pender. Mr. and Mrs. Harsh will reside at 56 north Fifth West street.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Hughey have gone to Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Graves of Chicago are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Boxrud.

Mrs. John Cain has returned from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Kister at their ranch home near Revere canyon.

Miss Jessie Blair of Burlington, Ia. is the guest of Mrs. O. W. Powers.

Miss Victoria Hornbuckle of Bingham is the guest of Miss Van Butterfield.

Miss Chella McCready left Thursday for Cincinnati to visit her brother, Dana McCready.

Miss Lucy Gaby and Miss Rubetta Moorhead have returned from Birch Grove.

Miss Marguerite Donnellan is the guest of Mrs. L. Massey for a few days.

Miss Fannie Breeden is visiting friends in Provo. She will spend the month of August in Kentucky, returning to Salt Lake in September.

The Misses Harriet, Stella and Elsie Cobb have gone to Wasatch for a month's outing.

Mrs. J. B. Oetler of Bingham is visiting friends in the city.

Mrs. W. C. Tibbals left this week for the Portland fair and a trip down the coast.

Miss Edith Argue of Lima, Ohio, arrives next week, to be the guest of the Misses Bess and Mildred McMillan for a month.

Dr. and Mrs. William C. Thaug leave early next week for a camping trip on the Weber.

Miss Edna Dean Davis is the guest of Miss Hallie Feron for the coming week.

Mrs. Agnes Osborne leaves early in August for a visit to Los Angeles. Mrs. Osborne will be joined in Los Angeles by Madame Appella M. Fox of Chicago.

Mrs. Louis Seckles has returned from a visit to the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Steiner are at the Knutsford.

Mrs. A. Reeves and family, with Miss Ethel Ludlow and Miss Evelyn Lewis, have taken a cottage at Pharoah's Glen for a month.

Dr. Frank Craft and daughter, May, of Cleveland, O., are guests of Whitehall.

Mrs. J. W. Hubb and Mrs. G. B. Street left Sunday for Galesburg, Ill.

Miss Anna Greenberg of Butte, Mont., is the guest of Miss Yetta Stein.

Mrs. T. A. Jiallet left for Boise on Wednesday, where she will make her home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hovea of Syracuse, N. Y., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Gaylord.

Dr. D. Moore Lindsay left for London this week. He will return early in October with Mrs. Lindsay.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Hunting have gone to the Yellowstone.

Miss Alice Slavan leaves shortly for the northwest.

Mrs. Nellie Crossland has returned from a visit to the Portland fair.

Mrs. Mary Hunt is the guest of her mother, Mrs. L. E. Hall.

Mrs. L. Seckles, Miss Alice and Mr. Louis Seckles are guests of Mrs. L. E. Hall.

PRINCESS OF WALES.

The Princess of Wales gave birth to a son on July 12. This child is the sixth in the household of the present prince and heir to the British throne. The Princess of Wales was the beautiful Princess May, daughter of the Duke and Duchess of Teck, and was born May 25, 1867. Princess of Wales is a great favorite of the English people.

A two months' visit in Peru, and is the guest of Mrs. L. E. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Hughey have gone to Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Graves of Chicago are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Boxrud.

Mrs. John Cain has returned from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Kister at their ranch home near Revere canyon.

Miss Jessie Blair of Burlington, Ia. is the guest of Mrs. O. W. Powers.

Miss Victoria Hornbuckle of Bingham is the guest of Miss Van Butterfield.

Miss Chella McCready left Thursday for Cincinnati to visit her brother, Dana McCready.

Miss Lucy Gaby and Miss Rubetta Moorhead have returned from Birch Grove.

Miss Marguerite Donnellan is the guest of Mrs. L. Massey for a few days.

Miss Fannie Breeden is visiting friends in Provo. She will spend the month of August in Kentucky, returning to Salt Lake in September.

The Misses Harriet, Stella and Elsie Cobb have gone to Wasatch for a month's outing.

Mrs. J. B. Oetler of Bingham is visiting friends in the city.

Mrs. W. C. Tibbals left this week for the Portland fair and a trip down the coast.

Miss Edith Argue of Lima, Ohio, arrives next week, to be the guest of the Misses Bess and Mildred McMillan for a month.

Dr. and Mrs. William C. Thaug leave early next week for a camping trip on the Weber.

Miss Edna Dean Davis is the guest of Miss Hallie Feron for the coming week.

Mrs. Agnes Osborne leaves early in August for a visit to Los Angeles. Mrs. Osborne will be joined in Los Angeles by Madame Appella M. Fox of Chicago.

Mrs. Louis Seckles has returned from a visit to the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Steiner are at the Knutsford.

Mrs. A. Reeves and family, with Miss Ethel Ludlow and Miss Evelyn Lewis, have taken a cottage at Pharoah's Glen for a month.

Dr. Frank Craft and daughter, May, of Cleveland, O., are guests of Whitehall.

Mrs. J. W. Hubb and Mrs. G. B. Street left Sunday for Galesburg, Ill.

Miss Anna Greenberg of Butte, Mont., is the guest of Miss Yetta Stein.

Mrs. T. A. Jiallet left for Boise on Wednesday, where she will make her home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hovea of Syracuse, N. Y., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Gaylord.

Dr. D. Moore Lindsay left for London this week. He will return early in October with Mrs. Lindsay.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Hunting have gone to the Yellowstone.

Miss Alice Slavan leaves shortly for the northwest.

Mrs. Nellie Crossland has returned from a visit to the Portland fair.

Mrs. Mary Hunt is the guest of her mother, Mrs. L. E. Hall.

Mrs. L. Seckles, Miss Alice and Mr. Louis Seckles are guests of Mrs. L. E. Hall.

will appoint a factory inspector in a few days.

Massachusetts club women will utilize part of their summer leisure in preparation for the federalization bazaar, which will be held some time next winter, for the purpose of raising funds to be devoted to the aid of the Massachusetts Model school in Georgia, recently destroyed by fire. It is expected that every club in the state will contribute to the cause, which is of very special interest to the federation.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE LIFE

OGDEN.

Ogden—Mrs. W. V. Withee was hostess at a most delightful dancing party and luncheon given Monday night in honor of her sisters, the Misses Pike of Salt Lake City, who have been her guests for a short time at the Virginia hotel. There were over 20 young gentlemen and ladies who enjoyed the pleasures. Dr. and Mrs. Withee were assisted in receiving and entertaining their guests by Messrs. and Mesdames A. G. Horn, Van Allen and Joseph Peery. The young people met at the Virginia hotel early in the evening and spent an hour in social chat, returning to the Utah dancing pavilion about 9 in the evening where they spent a couple of hours dancing. After the dance they returned to the Virginia where a dainty lunch was served.

Twenty young ladies were received Tuesday morning at the Virginia hotel by Mrs. Van Allen, who gave a sumptuous breakfast in their honor. The tables were profusely decorated with sweet peas and evergreens.

Mrs. Birdsell of Los Angeles is visiting in Ogden the guest of Mrs. Fred Kiesel.

Miss Susie Goats of Provo returned to her home Thursday after a short visit in Ogden.

The residence of H. H. Corey, 2727 Madison avenue was the scene of a pretty home wedding Tuesday evening when Miss May E. Wyre and Charles E. Glyed were united in bonds of wedlock by Rev. Blood of the Baptist church officiating. There were present only a few relatives and friends. The bride is the charming young daughter of Mayor William Wyre of Redwood, Wisconsin, and the groom is formerly from that state, but for three years past has been employed in Ogden City. Mr. and Mrs. Glyed will be at home to their friends 2727 Twenty-eighth street after Aug. 1.

Was David Mattson and son left this week for Coalville where they will spend the summer with relatives and friends.

Mrs. A. M. Crocker left Wednesday for Nebraska where she will spend several weeks pleasureing.

The excursion given Wednesday by the Hooper and West Weber Sunday schools to the Lagoon was a pleasurable day.

Elbert Mann and wife of Charlestown, Missouri, were in Ogden this week visiting with Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Cava.

Tuesday at Salt Lake City Ralph Hughes, who is employed at the Culey Drug store, surprised his many friends by wedding a beautiful young society lady, Miss Mary of Laramie, Wyo. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes returned to Ogden Wednesday and will make their future home here. They have many friends who extend congratulations.

The Second ward Sunday school had a very enjoyable outing at Glenwood Wednesday.

At high noon, Wednesday, Miss Olive Fear, a charming young lady of Ogden, was married to Charles H. Vischer of Toledo, Ohio. They left on the afternoon train on an extended eastern honeymoon. Mr. Vischer is the popular ticket agent for the Pullman Car company in this city.

Misses Grace and Emma Henry of Harrisburg, Pa., are visiting in Ogden the guests of Mrs. S. E. Geiger.

PROVO.

Provo—Tuesday evening Mrs. M. J. Bushman was the recipient of a very pleasant social given at her home by the Thirty-fourth quorum of Seventies, and their ladies. Mr. M. L. Bushman, who is away on a mission, is a member of the quorum, and this social was given in consideration of Mrs. Bushman. Short speeches, games and songs.

The home of Bishop and Mrs. O. H. Berg, presented a beautiful and brilliant appearance on Wednesday evening, the occasion being the marriage reception in honor of their daughter, Flora, to Mr. Walter H. Jenkins. The ceremony was pronounced by the father of the bride, at 2 o'clock in the presence of the family. The bride wore

MELLIN'S For the Baby FOOD

You may be thinking of using an artificial food for your baby. Try Mellin's Food; it is a proper food suited to the baby's condition. It is not a medicine but a true food. Let us send you a sample to try.

Mellin's Food is the ONLY Infant Food, which received the Grand Prize, the highest award of the London Purchase Exposition, St. Louis, 1904. Bigger than a gold medal.

MELLIN'S FOOD CO., BOSTON, MASS.

together with a dainty lunch, made a most delightful evening.

Postmaster and Mrs. James Clove spent Wednesday and Thursday in Logan attending the state postmasters' convention.

Mr. John Stewart has moved his family up to North Fork to spend a couple of months. Mrs. Joseph Jones of Salt Lake will accompany them and spend a few weeks as their guest.

Miss Maud Van Wagner left Wednesday for a few weeks' visit with friends and relatives in Heber and Park City. While at the Park she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hulbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Broadbent entertained at their home Saturday evening in honor of the Misses Jennie and Mabel Lamb. The evening was passed in games and music after which a sumptuous supper was served to about 20 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Leyland Graham, who have just returned from a pleasant trip to Oregon, spent a couple of days visiting in our city. Mr. and Mrs. Graham will locate in Salt Lake City.

Mrs. and Mrs. William Harding, Mrs. Ida and Miss Maud, spent a pleasant day at Lagoon Tuesday.

Postmaster Ross of Lehi was visiting in Provo Monday.

Miss Sadie Graham spent a few days in Smithfield the guest of Mrs. Mary Griffith, postmistress of that place.

Mrs. O. W. Bailey, Mrs. Henry Dunn, Mrs. Hyrum Cluff and Miss Flora Cluff spent Tuesday at Lagoon.

Walter D. Miller of the railway mail service was shaking hands with friends Wednesday.

Mrs. Susan Young Gates and her daughter, Lucy, have been among the Provo visitors.

Judge M. M. Kellogg and wife have been visiting with their daughter, Mrs. Alice K. Hunt of Decatur, Iowa.

Supt. L. E. Egerton, who, for three weeks has been visiting in the east, returned home, and reports having the time of his life. He visited New York, Chicago, Niagara and other points of interest.

The first ward gave a concert in their hall Tuesday evening, which was a grand success.

Miss Florence Nunn is visiting friends at American Fork.

Mrs. W. H. Dusenberry and daughter Lorena, spent Tuesday in Salt Lake.

Mr. Charles Moore has left for the east, expecting to be gone for two months.

Mrs. J. C. Graham, Jr., and family left for Castalia to spend three weeks.

Sheriff Harmon and family entertained Tuesday at the Lake resort in honor of the sister's brother who is visiting with them.

Mrs. Nora Van Wagoner is down from Heber, visiting with her sister, Mrs. E. H. Sparks.

The home of Bishop and Mrs. O. H. Berg, presented a beautiful and brilliant appearance on Wednesday evening, the occasion being the marriage reception in honor of their daughter, Flora, to Mr. Walter H. Jenkins. The ceremony was pronounced by the father of the bride, at 2 o'clock in the presence of the family. The bride wore

Seven Singer Stores IN UTAH and IDAHO AT

SALT LAKE CITY UTAH 43 S. Main st.	OGDEN, UTAH 2572 Washington ave.
IDAHO FALLS, IDAHO	POCATELLO, IDAHO 227 N. Cleveland ave.
LOGAN, UTAH 125 N. Main st.	PROVO, UTAH 97 Academy ave.
MT. PLEASANT, UTAH Main st.

Look for the Singer Sign when in need of a Sewing Machine or Supplies. Needles for all makes of Sewing Machines.

Sewing Machines Rented or Exchanged

BRIGHTON RESORT.

HOTEL NOW OPEN.

16 ROOMS.

An Ideal Resort Among the Pines and Lakes.

BOATING, FISHING.

Reasonable Rates to Families.

Stage leaves Cullen Hotel Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Stage leaves Park City daily.

For further particulars, both