SESSION OF THE CITY COUNCIL.

New Gambling Ordinance up for First Reading—City Nearly Free From Contagion.

OBSERVE LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY

Prof. Cooke's Lecture—Final Transfer Made in Packing Plant Property—Rapid Transit Repairs.

Ogden, Feb. 13.—The regular meeting of the city council was held last evening and routine business disposed of. Pay rolls aggregating $393.68 were allowed.

An ordinance defining gambling and prescribing punishment was submitted by the city attorney, and after passing first reading it was referred to the law committee.

The report of the health inspector was read, showing only one case of scarlet fever and one of diphtheria in the city at present.

The purchase of two new sprinkling wagons was authorized.

The chief of police reported the resignation of Officer A. B. Vance and his appointment of Walter S. Martin and John Conney as members of the police force.

The matter of compensation for special auditors of the city's books was again considered and referred back to the finance committee.

OGDEN'S CLEAN HEALTH BILL.

Remarkable Record of Vital Conditions of Junction City.

Ogden, Feb. 13.—For years past Ogden has never before been in a more healthy condition than at the present time. Sanitary Inspector Power stated last evening that there are but two cases of contagious diseases under quarantine in the city, one a little child suffering from scarlet fever, and the other a girl afflicted with diphtheria. Both of these cases have developed during the past four days. This is a remarkable record and is due greatly to the careful attention the city's health officers are giving to their duties.

The quarantine laws have been rigidly enforced for a long time past, and those who have suffered from contagious diseases must fully have recovered before the quarantine would be taken down. Also when at the schools any children appeared to be sick, they were sent home and the nature of their illness was carefully examined into by the health officers, and in this way contagion has been greatly reduced. The health officers suggest, now that thawing weather will soon be coming, it will be well for the citizens to look after their doorways and keep them clean, and in this way the health of the city can be kept good.

LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY.

Fittingly Observed in Stake Academy and Public Schools.

Ogden, Feb. 12.—At the Weber Stake academy this morning Judge Hulaniski delivered an able address before the student body, in commemoration of the ninety-seventh anniversary of President Lincoln's birth. After commenting upon the four political parties in the field during Lincoln's memorable campaign, the judge explained in brief the condition of the country when President Lincoln took the oath of office.

The treasury was bankrupt, the south in a state of secession, the army poorly disciplined, and yet in the midst of all, the city, "On to Richmond." When the army went to Richmond, it was only to meet defeat at Bull Run. The speaker showed Lincoln's greatness in meeting all these obstacles, and rising triumphantly above them, bringing order out of chaos, victory out of defeat, union out of disunion. The speaker's personal experience given as illustrations were applicable and interesting, and his admiration for Lincoln, and his admiration for the nation, were made plain to all. In conclusion, Capt. Hulaniski referred in a feeling manner to the death of the martyred president, "slain," he said, by a "dastardly assassin, who took the life of the best friend the south had."

Senator McKay addressed the school, also William Z. Terry and LeRoy E. Cowles, two sons of men who enlisted in the civil war, spoke to the students. At the conclusion the entire body joined in singing "America."

Similar exercises were conducted yesterday afternoon at all the public schools throughout the city, instilling in the hearts of the students a spirit of patriotism.

MAKES FINAL TRANSFER.

New Ogden Packing and Provision Co. Absorbs Old Concern.

Ogden, Feb. 13.—The formal transfer of the property of the Ogden Packing company to the recently organized corporation to be known as the Ogden Packing and Provision company has been made. The papers making the transfer were signed by F. E. Schlegel and wife and James Pingree and wife, and the amount involved was $30,000, as placed on record in the office of County Recorder D. W. Ellis. The new company is incorporated for $250,000 and promises to be one of the largest concerns of its kind in the west. Mr. Schlegel is now in the coast inspecting some immense packing and cold storage plants, for the purpose of gaining as much information as possible before the new plant is built here, which will be early this spring.

E. V. COOKE'S LECTURE.

Edmund Vance Cooke, the Ohio poet, appeared last evening before one of the largest audiences that have greeted any lecturer in Ogden, and entertained them for one hour and a half in reciting choice selections from his own poems. From his "You Too" poem to the "Common Commoner" the first and last numbers respectively on his program he kept his hearers in continuous merriment. His tribute to Abraham Lincoln was especially appropriate, coming, as it did, as the last number, on the evening of the martyred president's birthday. Other favorite selections were "Twelve Pound Tyrant," "A Tender Hearted Man," "The Frenchman and the English Language," and "The Courtier."

RAPID TRANSIT REPAIRS.

The Ogden Rapid Transit company closed down its power house shortly before midnight last night for the purpose of making extensive but quick repairs. For a long time past the company's car system has been badly crippled, which has been a source of trouble to the management, and the public, as the cars were run on schedule time only part of the time, and some days the cars running for an hour or more afterwards, so that they would have sufficient power to propel the cars in the evenings when the heavy traffic commenced; hence it was decided to make extensive improvements, and yesterday arrangements were made with all the machinists that could be obtained to work from midnight until 6 o'clock this morning. The generators and other parts of the machinery were taken out and thoroughly gone over and put in good condition and replaced so that the cars could be put on again this morning. The job was a big one to undertake in so few hours, but the management did not desire to inconvenience the public; hence did the work at night.

WEDDING PRELIMINARIES.

It is not a frequent occurrence for a woman to be asking alms in the morning and appear at the county clerk's office a few hours later on the arm of her lover and procure a license to marry. This scene was enacted yesterday at the Weber county courthouse. At the meeting of the board of county commissioners yesterday morning Mrs. Mary Williamsen sent one of her children to ask for some clothing and other help, and Commissioner Wilson told her to go to the mother and ask her if she could make clothes over and if she could it would give him pleasure to give her some of his suits. The child left, but was only away about five minutes, when Mrs. Williamsen came into the commissioners' room and accepted the offer. In less than three hours she was back to the courthouse again. Cupid had done his work, and not for the first time his heart pierced with his arrow, for twice before she had been married. The clerk asked what he could do for her and the smiling escort and nearly fainted when he was told to issue them a marriage license, which he did. The groom, Herman Voss, gave his age as 52, and Mrs. Mary Williamsen, 41, both of Kanab, Weber county. After securing the document they repaired to the office of Municipal Judge Murphy, who tied the knot.

WIFE DESERTED HUSBAND.

Harry Campbell has commenced a divorce suit in the second district court against Charlie Campbell. The complaint alleges that they were married at Denver, Colo., Jan. 21, 1901. That Feb. 28, 1903, the defendant deserted the plaintiff without cause, removing to Boise City, Ida., where she now lives; that plaintiff has requested his wife to return to him, but she has refused to do so. Wherefore a decree of divorce is prayed for by the plaintiff. M. D. Lesenger is his attorney.

Provo, Utah Co., Feb. 13.—A communication was received by the city council last evening from the Provo Commercial club, asking the co-operation of the council in enforcing the ordinances against the sale of tobacco to minors. The matter was referred to the city marshal on a vote giving it as the sense of the council that the ordinance be enforced. The marshal will, however, first notify the dealers of the action of the council. The matter of drafting an ordinance making it an offense for minors to have tobacco in their possession and to investigate the question of slot machines, and draft an ordinance for their suppression, if that is desired, was referred to the committee on judiciary, the city attorney stating that in his opinion another ordinance was needed to proceed successfully against slot machines.
