LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THERMOMETER 70 degrees F. in the shade, at 1 p. m. to-day. Fine day.

Accident.—A young man named James Gibson, of the 20th Ward, had his arm broken and his back injured yesterday, by being thrown from a horse.

Utah Mining Gazette for May 2nd contains "Reduction Works at Sandy Station," illustrated, "Bingham Canyon Mines and Reduction Works," "Bullion Product of Utah," "Little Cottonwood," "Terrestrial Magnetism and Geology," etc.

School Notice.—The Superintendents and Teachers of Sunday schools will please take notice that their regular monthly meeting will be held in the Old Tabernacle on Thursday evening, at 7 o'clock, instead of to-morrow evening. A large and punctual attendance is particularly requested.

Woman's Exponent for May 1 contains "What Men Need Wives For," "My Two Children," "R. L. Reports," "Philanthropy Better Than Philosophy," "Union is Power," "Household Hints," "Woman's Voice," etc.

Vocal and Instrumental Concert.—We acknowledge the receipt of a complimentary to a vocal and instrumental concert, by the 15th Ward choir, at the 15th Ward Hall, on Tuesday May 5. Conductor, Mr. T. C. Griggs; accompanist, Mr. J. M. Chamberlain.

A Braid of Hair Lost.—Lost, on Saturday evening, between the Theatre and the residence of H. B. Clawson, in the 12th Ward, a braided switch of brown hair, with a piece of black velvet tied on the end of it; the finder wil be rewarded on leaving it at this office.

Called.—We had a pleasant visit to-day from Miss Tennie C. Claflin, who is spending a short time in this city, accompanied by her mother. Her sister, Mrs. Woodhull, is expected to reach here in a few days, and will probably deliver a course of lectures. Miss Tennie is a writer, but does not take to the rostrum like her sister. Both ladies wield the pen for Woodhull & Claflin's Weekly.

Theatre.—There was another excellent performance of "Cigarette" at the Theatre on Saturday evening, to a pleased audience.

This evening, for the benefit of Amy Stone, will be produced the beautiful musical and terpsichorean domestic drama of the "Pearl of Savoy," with Amy Stone as 'Marie," Miss Walters as "Choucon," Miss Cogswell as the "Marchioness," Mrs. Douglas as "Margaret," Mr. H. F. Stone as "Pierot," Mr. Sawtelle as "Arthur," Mr. Lindsay as "Lonstalot," Mr. Thorne as "Commander," Mr. Forster as "Father Lesurges."

During the play will be given the following—"Farewell Song," "When I Left My Native Land," "Mother, Dear, I'll Come Home Again," "Evening Prayer," "Dance and Duet," "Pas de Sabot," and "Cornet Solo" by Miss Amy Stone.

The "Nymph of the Lurleyberg" is announced as in preparation for revival during Conference.

Back from Kansas.—Officer B.Y. Hampton returned last evening from Topeka, Kansas, whither he had taken the supposed old man Bender. According to Mr. Hampton's account of the statements of parties who knew Bender, there can scarcely be room for a doubt about the old fellow captured here being the veritable murderer.

S. S. Peterson, of Independence, Montgomery Co., Kansas, a deputy U. S. Marshal and member of the Kansas State detective force, who pursued the Bender family as far as the lower part of Colorado, and there lost track of them, and who has been sent to various parts of the United States to identify parties who have been arrested for Bender, says that he is positive that the old fellow is Bender.

H. W. McLean, also of Independence, who rented the house to Bender in which the latter lived, and had seen the old man frequently when collecting rent from him, says he is the man. These two men, by request of Governor Osborne, met Mr. Hampton at the railroad depot at Topeka, and identified him there.

W. A. McKean, at present in jail at Topeka, for passing counterfeit money, said, before he saw the man arrested here, that if it was Bender he was minus one finger of the right hand, which was the case and he identified him immediately on seeing him. It appears that this McKean is a kind of an artist. He made a wood-cut of the Bender family, from memory, about two months after he last saw them, and the drawing of Bender resembles the old man arrested here to some extent.

Two men arrived at Topeka, from Labetta, one named Gurner and the other Deitz, with a letter from Col. York, to identify the old man. Gurner said it was old man Bender, but the other, Deitz, said he did not think it was he. The Kansas officers say that Deitz was suspected of being an accomplice of the Benders, and that the people came near stringing him up at the scene of the murders at the time they strung up another suspected Dutchman. Col. York has not seen the old man taken back yet, but says it is he from the portrait.

W. T. Hayes, traveling agent of the land department of the L. L. & G. Railroad, is certain it is Bender.

A Mr. Blanchard states that he knew Bender. He called at the latter's house on one occasion when he was trading in butter and eggs. Bender was very anxious for him to go into the house, and Kate beckoned him from the doorway, but he did not enter. He said that Bender put his hand on the edge of his wagon bed to look in and he saw that he was minus the little finger of the right hand.

Mr. Hampton says he was treated with great courtesy in Topeka. The Governor had no available funds to pay his expenses, but would send his sworn account to the county where the murders were committed, with a request that it be allowed. If the expenses be not allowed, the reward, $500, will not cover them. Col. York promised a reward, but he is out of funds.

Eleven bodies of the victims of the Bender fiends have been found, and it is said that between thirty and forty parties are missing in all, supposed to have been murdered by them. The reward has not yet been paid, and the Governor is afraid to send the old man to the neighborhood where the bloody deeds were committed, as it is probable, if he did, that the people would lynch him.

Brought to Town.—The two men arrested in Box Elder County, a few days ago, by Sheriff Brown, of Weber County, for running off with the wife of a Chinaman, were brought to this city last evening, for examination, the outrage having been committed in this County.

One of the parties is "Bob" McCausland, who, it will be remembered, was convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for horse stealing about two years since and subsequently pardoned by the Governor.

The old fellow was so disguised as to be scarcely recognizable. His hair and beard, heretofore a silvery grey, had been changed, by the aid of hair dye, to a jetty black, and the shabby clothes had been changed for a broadcloth suit. The name of the other man is Phillips.

It appears that McCausland and Phillips had been hired by a Chinaman to get the latter's wife from another Chinaman with whom she had eloped, and restore her to him. They got hold of the woman they kidnapped, at Sandy, and now it turns out that they got the wrong woman. They were running away with the wife of another man, not their employer.

Not Kate Bender.—The woman arrested in Morgan County for Kate Bender was brought to town last evening, but there is small indication of her being the notorious "Katie." She is short and not very fierce looking. She says she is originally from Smrland, Sweden, which is evidently true, for some Scandinavian gentlemen conversed with her to-day, and they say she speaks the Swedish language with the dialect peculiar to that part of the country mentioned by her. She states also that she lived lately in Evanston, Illinois, with a man named Gustavus Judson, who, she says, promised to marry her, but afterwards refused to do so, and the disappointment seems to have affected her mind somewhat. She asked for a New Testament and one was given to her. She says she walked all the way from Evanston, Illinois, and that she occasionally got food at houses on the way and at other times she carried what she wanted along with her. When speaking about Gustavus Judson refusing to marry her, she appeared to be much affected. She says she is willing to go back to Evanston to him.

Supreme Court.—The adjourned session of the October term of the Supreme Court met at the Court room, City Hall, at ten o'clock this morning, James B. McKean, C. J., and Associate Justices Emerson and Boreman on the bench.

There being no United States business to attend to, the Court was opened by the bailiff for the Territory, R. W. McAllister.

Judge Hemingray, a member of a committee appointed by the Salt Lake bar to present to the Court resolutions of respect to the memory of the late James Morris Carter, who died, in this City, Dec. 9th, 1873, read the resolutions previously presented in the District Court, and heretofore published. He then commented upon the life of the deceased and passed the highest encomiums on his character as a gentleman and a lawyer.

Judge Hemingray then moved for an adjournment of the Court, from respect to the memory of the departed member of the bar, and after Judge McKean had ordered that the resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Court, an adjournment was made till to-morrow morning at ten o'clock.

Rape.—Yesterday evening deputy sheriff Florida brought a man to town who is accused of having committed an outrage upon a young woman named Lapish. It is rumored that the affair is considerably mixed, there being a good deal of talk about it being a "put up job," and about the accused not being the right man. The facts, however, will probably be elucidated at the examination. The crime was alleged to have been committed at Bingham Junction.

Meetings at Ogden.—The meetings held at Ogden on Saturday and yesterday were well attended and a fine spirit prevailed. Presidents Geo. A. Smith, D. H. Wells and Joseph Young, Elders Wilford Woodruff, John Taylor and Lorenzo Snow were present and addressed the people. A temporary organization of the United Order was effected, the people entering into the same with great unanimity and an excellent spirit.

Firemen Attention.—The Members of Wasatch Engine Company are requested to assemble at their Engine House, fully equipped, on Friday evening next, at 7 o'clock; to participate in a torchlight procession.

THE ONLY MEDICAL FRIEND,

IN case of Diarrhea, Dysentery, Cholera Morbus and Cholera, is Maguire's Benne Plant, a thirty years' remedy in the Mississippi Valley. The acknowledged specific in 1849 and 1853. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Read the following testimonial from the late Father DeSmet, the great Indian missionary:

ST. LOUIS UNIVERSITY,
June 9, 1872.

Messrs. J. & C. Maguire:

Long experience in the use of your valuable EXTRACT OF BENNE PLANT justifies me in saying that I believe it to be an excellent remedy for any form of bowel affections for which you recommend it. On every occasion when I have given it, I am happy to inform you that it has been successful in affording relief.

Very truly, your friend,
P. J. DESMET, S. J.

From Rt. Rev. Bishop Ryan:

I fully endorse Father DeSmet's testimonial.
P. J. RYAN.
