UTAH BRANCH OF MINING CONGRESS

An Organization Effected at Meeting Held in Commercial Club Last Night.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS NAMED

Much Interest Manifested—Mining Temple and Other Subjects Were Discussed.

The Utah branch of the American Mining Congress was organized at a meeting held in the Commercial club last evening, of which John Derr, president of the Consolidated Mercur Mines company, was chairman. The attendance was fair, but the enthusiasm great. There seemed to be an air of determination about those who participated; a determination to make the organization felt in promoting the general welfare of the mining industry in this state.

A board of directors was named consisting of D. C. Jackling, Samuel Newhouse, David Keith, C. E. Loose, Dunham MacVehle, N. A. Dunyon, James E. Talmage, E. A. Wall and John Derr. A committee on by-laws consisting of J. H. Turner, Joseph P. Merrill, W. E. Vignas, N. Lehman and N. Treweek was appointed.

Addresses were made by Chairman Derr, Dr. Joseph P. Merrill, dean of the Utah school of mines, Dr. J. T. Kingsbury, president of the University of Utah, and H. L. Thompson, general organizer for the American Mining Congress. There was some discussion of the matter looking towards securing for Salt Lake the headquarters of the national organization, the project to build a mining temple in this city and to aid in securing for the University of Utah a mining experiment station.

WEEK ON EXCHANGE.

Iron Blossom and Carlsbad Made Substantial Gains—Today's Sales.

The mining stock market has been somewhat irregular the week prices were weak at the beginning, but in a few instances there was a marked improvement noted. Iron Blossom and Carlsbad made substantial gains. So did Black Jack. The Uncle Sam Consolidated directors posted the usual dividend of 5 cents a share, or $25,000; but the May Day directors failed to come through and as will be noted elsewhere, the Colorado company has taken a vacation as far as dividends are concerned; while the management of Sioux Consolidated has made good the promise to share profits with shareholders this month.

Quite a little activity has been noted in the unlisted shares. Silver King, Col. Copper, Utah Treasure Hunt, Bingham Standard participating in the sales.
