the good name of the University, there are dangers that arise with going too far. Some of them come from the fact that the State support to the institution may be endangered. We have to go before the Legislature and ask for money. Many of the memstate, and know little of the University except what they see in the nesw-papers, and accounts of riots and disturbances hurt our chances of get-ting their support financially to this institution. Another harm comes from the fact that parents situated so far away as to gain a wrong idea of what goes or, prefer to send their children to other schools and thus hurt the University, because they do not know what it means when college spirit breaks loose.

Not all the speeches showed an ap-Not all the specches showed an ap-preciation of the spirit of the students in their joyous outbreak. Prof. George Q. Coray, the registrar, de-mounced them in no uncertain terms. He referred to them as a mob, and demanded to know wherein they were better than the mobs of revolutionary times who broke up governments and destroyed property. "Do you want to destroy your University?" he said in emphatic manner. "If you do a mob is the best way to do it? I confess that I took some part in correcting the error, and I ain going to talk of cold facts. It was claimed there was no intention to do wrong, and that a mob was sometimes unnecessary to effect a result. What good result did the mobs of revolutionary times ever effect? Will the people support the University of Utah with a record of lawlessness? When a faculty makes a ruling, it wants that ruling to hold, and the majority of the faculty stand in the majority of the faculty stand in a solid body against any such law-assness as was practised Monday. The University buildings are not the place for the rough, disorderly conduct,--I will not say disorderly because that sort of conduct would not be allowed on the grounds,--but I believe the faculty will demand the expulsion of the next student who participates in insubordin-ation and lawless disorder in the halls. I hope you will take me at my word."

PREST. BROWN TALKS.

He then called on J. C. Brown, presi ient of the student body, and leader of the demonstration to which exception was taken, to make a statement of the future policy of the student body, in regard to celebrations. Mr. Brown said that when he had first come to the University he had recognized the fact that spirit there was dead, and that it ought to be improved by the support of stu-lents to all things intended to better he college. For that reason he had ofned his class organization as a fresh folded his class organization as a fresh-man, and other societies this year. For that reason, too, he had organized and helped along a big demonstration in honor of the first victory ever won by lis college over a team from another state. It was the first celebration the University had ever had a chance to in-bulge io, and they were ignorant of the Sulge in, and they were ignorant of the proper way to carry it out. The next cletory they would celebrate differently, oy a big fire on the campus at night, The next and speeches from appointed speaker who wauld do justice to the occasion They would no justice to the occasion. They would have a parade and a raily out in no way would interfere with the rules of the University or the profes-sors in the conduct of their classes. In conclusion, he stated that he had not been coerced by threats into his statement, and whatever he said was the re-sult of his own convictions.

There is a dispute in progress between Chinese Inspector James Mclabe, and a Chinaman named Chin Wing, as to where Chin was born, and McCabe has Called U. S. Commissioner Twomey to help him establish his side of the case. McCabe sees a chance to deport the Mongolian, and apparantly is going to make the most of it, unless the Chinaman can show good reasons why his birth certificate is dated so recently as Sept. 5, 1904, declaring that he was born 27 year previous, and in the United States.

The Mongolian is a new addition to The Mongolian is a new addition to the Chinese population, McCabe spot-ted him yesterday as a stranger, and asked for his papers. The recent cer-tificate was produced, and when an ex-planation was demanded he stated that his uncle in San Francisco had had charge of him since he was how and charge of him since he was born, and that he had taken out the certificate last month because he was ready to depart for the Orient, while prior to hat time he had always been here to swear as to the child's birth. Inspector McCabe, who is a believer with Bret Harte in the Chinese code of 'ways hat are dark," refused to believe the story, and swore out a complaint. It was served on Chin Wing by Deputy U. S. Marshal H. S. Page who found the man with his queue wearing broth ers, and transferred his place of resi-dence to the county jull.

Get the Most Out of Your Food You don't and can't if your stomach is weak. A weak stomach does not digest all that is ordinarily taken into it. It gets tired easily, and what it fails to digest is wasted. Among the signs of a weak stomach are uneasiness after eating, fits of nervous headache, and disagreeable belch-

ing. "I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla at different times for stomach troubles, and a run down condition of the system, and have been greatly benefited by its use. I would not be without it in my family. I am troubled especially in summer with weak stomach and nauses and find Hood's Sarsaparilla invaluable." E. B. HICKMAN, W. Chester, Pa.

"My stomach was so weak I could not retain food. I found I could take three drops of Hood's Sarsaparllia and not throw it up. Increased the dose dally for three weeks. When I had taken two bottles I could eat anything, and six bottles made me well." Mas. LOTTLE E. NEWMAN, 31 Lewis street, Hartford, Conn.

As election day draws near the mathematicians of both parties are doing some strenuous figuring in the hope of placing victory in the proper column. To both the situation looks "good,' and both are claiming the state by from 5,000 to 10,000 majority, their figures, of course, being based on reports brought in by party workers. The Republicans are not saying much but they are none the less sanguine that the entire state ticket will be elected, while the Democrats are offering odds on the election of Judge Powers, and hope also to land a large number of legislators and perhaps, the presidential electors, they say,

The "Americans," while wide awake from a party organ standpoint, are virrually in a state of coma and reports from reliable sources indicate that the outlook is not what it once seemed. In fact, there are some who say that the "new" movement is suffering from something akin to locomotor ataxla, and that with the body blow to be delivered on Nov. 8 next, the political weakling will give up the ghost and fade away. It is a well known fact that never at any time have they expected to do much in the way of winning, but they have cherished the hope that the defection caused by the organization would per-haps defeat their enemies. Their plans, however, have not been as successful as they desired, and the result is that many of those who "got in on the ground floor," expecting a revolution in Utah politics, are quietly slipping back to their first love and renouncing all allegiance to the "American" move-ment. Verily the way of the transgressor is hard, in politics as well as in other walks of life, There is no doubt that the party is weaker-much weaker-today than at any time since the new organization was launched; and there is little doubt that it will continue to dwindle. It is an open secret that the men who are foremost in the movement are being disappointed at the results. Not a few who had a half hearted sympathy with it have no longer a friendly word to express. On the contrary, they make their views plainly understood that they are uncompromisingly opposed to it now.

"It is the present intention of Vice President Schlacks to abolish the position of manager, made vacant by the resignation of J. A. Edson, and to di-vide the duties of the office between imself and the general superintendent Especially will this be so if General Supt. Coughlin resigns. There is a pos-sibility, however, that if Coughlin remains. Welby will be practically man-ager, even if he does not get the title.

'Arthur Earl Welby's connection with the D. & R. G. dates back to the Dodge-Palmer administration in the early '80s. He began as stenographer the office here and worked his way up to be assistant to the general super-ntendent. Then Col. D. C. Dodge took him to Utah and made him general superintendent of the Rio Grande Westwith headquarters at Salt Lake He held this position until J. N. itv. srbert came to be manager of the D. & R. G. system.

Leaving the service of the D, & R. G., Welby went to Lima, Peru, where he operated a road into adjacent min-ing districts for A. W. McCune of Utah. He did not like the country, however, and left at the expiration of his first year's contract. Since then he has been lving on his ranch in California. About four months ago he left his vife and went to Pittsburg, Pa., where e stayed for six weeks, when he rehe stayed for six weeks, when he re-turned to this city. On Oct. 1, 1904, he again applied to the county clerk's office for a license to wed Lurain Jensen aged 19. This time Chapman gave his age as 21, notwith-standing the fact that it had been only a year since he applied for the first license and gave bin age and hed icense and gave his age as 19 and had o secure the consent of his father before the license was issued. So it seems that he is not only guilty of bigamy, according to the records, but has evi dently perjured himself in order to se cure the second license. The second time he signed his name as Albert J Chapman, but the signatures are so near alike that a child could tell that he same man wrote them. The sec-nd ceremony was performed by Bishop W. J. Beatle of the Seventeenth ward.

Chapman now resides with his secon on Grape street, near First North and First West streets, within a block of where his first wife lives with her mother. Some time ago Mrs. Chap-man heard that her husband was living with another woman, but it was no until this morning that she becam satisfied of that fact.
