

DOCTOR REFUSED TO TALK TO WIFE

Whereupon Mrs. Higgins Applies To Judge Morse for Divorce.

FINALLY REACH AGREEMENT.

Hilda W. Wells Smilingly Asks for Separation from Her Husband, Hugo D. Wells.

The divorce mill ground slowly yesterday in Judge Morse's court room. Pauline M. Higgins, wife of the picturesque doctor with the flowing red beard, he with the owl peeped in singular fashion on his coat lined, charcoal, archer, driver of fast horses and in many other ways a character known all about town and far beyond its environs—she was before the court praying that the bonds of matrimony linking the pair be severed. Failure to provide her with a normal amount of conversation would appear to be her complaint. Mrs. Higgins alleges no acts of cruelty, no failure to respond to her requests for financial stimulus—none of those things, in fact, which are common to divorce complaints in general.

REFUSED TO TALK.
Mrs. Higgins complained that her husband, for some time past, has refused to talk to her and has refused to associate with her. She told Judge Morse that the "Dr." and herself had reached an agreement. The terms of the agreement being that a divorce might be procured, she would be given the house in which they now live and $100 as a permanent alimony. To this the court assented.

A SMILING APPLICANT.
Hilda W. Wells appeared smilingly before his honor yesterday and pleaded for a divorce from H. D. Wells. They were married in 1901, and for three months it appeared, he had disregarded his obligation of providing her with foodstuffs, wearing apparel and the other attentions usually accorded upon a wife by an ideal husband. On this ground she asked separation. The court gave her one week to present additional facts in an amended complaint.

RAILROAD PRESIDENT SUE.
J. G. Jacobs charged with Misdemeanor Company Bonds for Security.
President J. G. Jacobs of the Salt Lake & Merced company was charged yesterday in the Third district court with misdemeanor in failing to pay the bonds of $100,000 worth of the bonds of the company held by the bank as security for notes made by Jacobs. In addition to the value of the bonds, $1,000 is asked as damages for the alleged unlawful detention of the securities.

ASK FOR NEW TRIAL.
Notice of a motion for new trial has been filed by the attorneys for James McNeary, who will have their motion on the fact that the confession of McNeary was admitted in evidence. Failing in securing the new trial, they will probably take an appeal to the Supreme court.

Alexander Nibbel filed his petition for letters of administration in the Third district court yesterday in the matter of the estate of Constance Nibbel, who died in California May 3, 1905.

WELCOME BOYS' BAND.
Relatives and Friends Gather in Newhouse Home to Hear Them Play.

A reception attended by about 100 of the relatives and friends of the Salt Lake boys' band was tendered the organization last night, in honor of its return home, and as a personal compliment to its successful leader.

A luncheon was served and a number of selections by the band made up a delightful evening's program at the Newhouse home on North Main street. A public reception for them is being planned to occur during the first week in October. The boys who participated in the long eastern excursion were: Irvin Ford, John Aker, Owen Aker, Ross Alexander, Guy Alexander, Louis Alexander, Harold Helling, Ralph Butler, Archie Cohen, Walter Vonheim, Fred Vonheim, Wallace Eshline, Alva Baer, Glen Sinclair, Mont Hatch, Kline Brown, Ralph Brown, Clyde Hill, Lewis Hill, George Plesman, Frank Meyer, Ed Thompson, Willard Thompson, Bud Young, Jean Goss, John Oberg, Milo Daly, Hyrum Lanners, Irvin Ford, and Ole Mitchell. With the exception of the Alexander brothers, from Heber, Irvin Ford and Hyrum Lanners of Ogden, all the boys are from Salt Lake.

BUYS SITE FOR SHOPS.
Lagoon Road Acquires Property at Fifth North and Third West.

The Salt Lake & Ogden Railway (lagoon) company has purchased 10x15 lots at Fifth North and Third West for $5,000, and will use this ground as a site for its new shops. This is one of the first steps pointing towards the electrification of the Lagoon road. The present shops are in the lot behind the present depot opposite the Heber Line's depot site. A new building will be built on the site of the present structure and the shops will be moved to the site just purchased. The ground behind the depot will be used as a yard. The shops will not take up all the space on the property just purchased, leaving room for the electric shops planned. Just three miles west of Ogden, promising a connection between Salt Lake and Ogden by spring, starting from Main street near the postoffice in this city the road will enter near the southernmost, most central location. Passing through the heart of the Junction city the road will go to the mouth of Ogden canyon.

AGAINST THIRD TERM.
Senator Heyburn of Idaho Writes to The New York World.

The New York World recently wrote letters to prominent public men throughout the country, inviting an expression of views on the subject of a second elective term. The reply received by the World from Senator Heyburn of Idaho reads as follows:

"Without considering 'mere unthinking sentiment,' but with due consideration for traditions as old as the government, and having due heed for the principal which most clearly distinguished our form of government from those under which the succession of power is inherited rather than selected, and where the individual item of government comes for more than the principle which it represents, I do not think it wise to break through the rule limiting the tenure of the presidential office to two terms.

"I do not regard the instance of President Roosevelt as coming within this rule, but he has declared on more than one occasion in public and responsible utterances that he will neither be a candidate nor accept another term.

"There are a sufficient number of competent, patriotic and suitable men in the Republican party from whom to make a selection that will administer the laws in such a manner as to meet with the approval of the American people."

A Good Start is Half the Race

The best start toward a successful day is a dish of delicious, wholesome Grape-Nuts food and cream. — breakfast.

The crisp, firm, nutty granules indicate firm flesh and crackling good humor. Its food value lies in the stored-up energy and tissue-repairing material in whole wheat and barley, so prepared by slow heat and moisture and subsequent thorough baking, that "all there is" in these cereals is retained and made perfectly digestible.

Let the meat go for breakfast and supper, take on Grape-Nuts in its place, and

You Will Feel Like a New Person

A breakfast of Grape-Nuts and cream, toast, and a cup of well-made Postum Food Coffee, will put you away ahead of the meat eater at the start of the day's business, and his handicap will only increase the "gap" as the hourly "laps" are made.

By noon, lunch will be relished and the digestive organs in fine condition to give you a good send-off for the rest of the day, and the thrill of a steady nerve and a success-winning brain.

It's an easy matter for the man who "gets tired between meals" to prove that there's a reason for

PLAN REUNION OF HANDICAPPED VETS

Meeting This Year Will be Held on Oct. 3, at Fourteenth Ward Assembly Hall.

MORE SURVIVORS ARE FOUND.

Association Officers Making Effort to Secure Complete List of Those Taking Part in Memorial Trip.

The reunion of "handicap" veterans held in October last proved to be such an interesting affair, that the committee determined that such gatherings should occur annually as long as there were any survivors left to be attended. The meeting this year will be held in the Fourteenth ward assembly hall, First South between West Temple and First West streets, Thursday, Oct. 3, at 2 o'clock and 7 o'clock. The building, however, will be open all day as a headquarters for handicap people. A list of the survivors, as well as of the men now living who went out to rescue the belated immigrants of 1856, was published in the "News" of Sept. 14. Names are being sent in from time to time that were not mentioned in that issue. A request is made by the committee in charge of the reunions that the list of survivors be made as complete as possible and any persons knowing of a name not already recorded will confer a favor by sending the same to Secretary Albert Jones, Frovo.

MORE NAMES ADDED.
Robert L. Fishburn, of Brigham City, writes to Chairman S. S. Jones requesting that the name of Mr. Fishburn, as well as those of Charles Neal, of Plain City, Elizabeth Jones, of South Weber, Annie Thornley, of Smithfield, and Walter Brown, of Salt Lake City, be added to the list. These persons were in Capt. Israel Evans' company in 1856. Other names that were inadvertently omitted were John R. Twigg, James Jones and Mr. S. D. Gough, as surviving immigrants. Also, James B. W. Briggs, of Pleasant Grove, as a rescuer. Chairman Jones requests that the committee meet at the Fourteenth ward assembly hall at 10:30 o'clock, Oct. 3, for the purpose of completing arrangements for the meetings to follow.

I brought a bottle home with me and used it last of it. My mother was taken suddenly ill of dysentery and it helped her immediately. For sale by all druggists."

J. L. Corey whose wife had such a complicated experience while on her way to Salt Lake from St. Louis has joined his wife in this city. FACTS ABOUT PE-RU-NA.

Is There Any Scientific Basis For The Claim That Peruna Prevents Infective Diseases?

Contaminated Drinking Water.

It is during the months of September and October that some of the most infective diseases are at their height. Malaria and the infectious fevers of autumn find these months especially favorable to the growth and propagation of their deadly germs. Why is it September and October are the months when such diseases flourish?

There are two reasons. First, the air and drinking water and food are especially contaminated during these months by the germs that give rise to such diseases. Whether the disease germs are the cause or simply a concomitant occurrence is a matter that need not be discussed here. But the fact that a superabundance of these germs is always accompanied by an epidemic of the diseases shows that there is some relation between them, that when one is present the other always appears.

There is no way known to man yet by which the germs of these diseases can be entirely avoided. Sanitary science is gradually going away with them, but still they remain in great numbers. EVERY PERSON IS EXPOSED TO THEM CONSTANTLY.

The germs of infectious disease are about us everywhere, but only certain people succumb to their baneful influence.

This brings us to consider the second reason why September and October are the special seasons for epidemics. The fact that everybody is exposed to the germs of disease and yet comparatively few contract the disease shows beyond doubt that there must be some special reason why one person gets the disease and the other does not.

The skin, when unbroken, protects the outside of the body from disease germs, but it is well known that a raw surface or an open wound discharges the skin from protecting the interior of the body, and disease germs may enter on such occasions.

Diseased Mucous Membranes.
THE MUCOUS MEMBRANES, when they are healthy, PROTECT THE INSIDE of the body from disease germs. But the slightest abrasion of the mucous membranes, or derangement of the mucous membranes by chronic catarrh, renders these membranes powerless to protect the body from disease germs. Hence they enter through the mucous membranes of the stomach, of the lungs, the intestines, accumulate in the blood in great numbers, and set up infective diseases that may prove fatal.

Since we cannot protect ourselves entirely from the presence of disease germs, the only thing that remains for us to do is to KEEP THE SKIN AND MUCOUS MEMBRANES INTACT so that the disease germs cannot reach the blood, even though they assail us from within and without.

This explains how it is that Peruna may be regarded as a preventive to these diseases, and suggests that it should be taken during the months when they are prevalent.

Peruna has thoroughly established itself as a catarrh remedy. Many thousands of people have taken Peruna for chronic catarrh, and found themselves completely restored.

Sometimes the catarrh is in the stomach. Other times in the throat and lungs. Sometimes in the intestinal tract. Peruna seems to act as a restorative in all these different forms of catarrh, and thus produces healthy mucous membranes.

Even if disease germs do enter the stomach and lungs, the healthy mucous membranes tend to protect the blood from their encroachments. This is the claim made for Peruna, and the claim is based on science and experience.

Pathologists have been aware for many years that A HEALTHY SKIN AND MUCOUS MEMBRANE CONSTITUTE PROTECTION AGAINST INFECTIVE DISEASES. This is a well established scientific fact.

The experience of thousands of people in all parts of the civilized world has established the fact beyond dispute that the USE OF PERUNA DOES RESTORE THE MUCOUS MEMBRANES to perfect health, and thus protects the body from disease germs.
