Mrs. Van Patten of Salt Lake Wants $450 She Loaned.

MONEY IN THE BUSINESS.

She Now Sets Up as a Rival to "Jim" The Newsboy of Des Moines, Iowa.

Among the creditors of George Quinn, a harness maker at Ephraim, who are petitioning the United States court that he be adjudged an involuntary bankrupt, is Mrs. Emma Van Patten, the woman who dispenses current events in the form of daily papers at the southwest corner of Second South and East Temple streets every night and morn-ing. Her claim against Quinn is for $150 loaned.

The other creditors of Quinn are Meyer Bannerman & Co., St. Louis, $256; National Bank of the Republic, $220; Mayne & Winchester, $165; S. H. Frank & Co., $343; W. Davis & Sons, $243. The last named three firms are doing business in San Francisco.

It is said that Quinn is insolvent and committed an act of bankruptcy in executing a real estate mortgage last October for $966 in favor of the Manti Savings bank, making the bank a pre ferred creditor. Quinn has been served with papers at Ephraim by Deputy Marshai Smyth. Mrs. Emma Van Patten is apparently net the only affluent vendor of newspa-pers in America. While the business is not generally conceded to be one that is a means of sudden and great wealth. at the same time there is a larger percentage of profit in pedding papers than in almost any other business, with the possible exception of a soda four-

There is a "news boy," who peddles New York, Chicago and other eastern papers in Des Moines, Ia. To look at him you would not suppose he had money enough to pay his week's board, but he lives well and supports his mother. He owns a brick terrace in Des Moines and is said to have saved about $50. When the Iowa editors went to the Atlanta exposition, "Jim" was an honored guest, stopping at the Coates house, in Kansas City, where the party laid over for a day, and generally lived on the fat of the land. There are many other instances of news vendors having amassed fortunes by frugality and long sightedness.

Wilmer B. Hallowell was examined today as to his sanity before Judge Hall, and committed to the state insane asylum. The examining physicians were Drs. Mayo and Chas. G. Plummer. The supposed cause of insanity is a hold-up which occurred last June, when Hallowell thought he was going to be murdered.

WILL SURVEY LAKE.

T. P. Rigney to Take Bearings in Interest of Mining Partles.

Civil Engineer T. P. Rigney of this city, who recently made a survey of the great lake, will make another partial survey in a few days, this time limiting his operations to the center of the lake, where he will take bearings for measurements with reference to ob-jects on the shore in the interest of me mining parties. Mr. Rigney expects to have a dreary time of it. But he will take along a Sibley stove, a meerschaum pipe and the Odes of Pindar in the original to read, so that time will not pass so drearily after all.
