

PEACE SOCIETY FOR STATE OF UTAH

Governor Cutler Proposes to Take Steps Towards Organization of Association.

FAVORS SUCH PROPOSITION.

Will Probably Call a Meeting in This City on May 18, Anniversary Of Hague Conference.

Following the international peace congress, which closed its sessions in New York a week ago, Governor Cutler today stated in conversation with a "News" representative, that in all probability he would take steps towards the organization of a permanent peace society in Utah.

The governor said he looked with entire favor upon such a proposition, and would likely call a meeting of the more prominent peace advocates of the state to be held in this city on May 18, the anniversary of the opening of the Hague conference. He is of the opinion that if the question is put fairly before the people, that they will launch a regular peace society here for the purpose of keeping in touch with similar organizations in this and other countries. His excellency stated that he had not yet worked out the details, but that it was his present intention to invite the strongest and ablest speakers obtainable to address the meeting and to present its purposes squarely before the public.

DIPHTHERIA VICTIM.

Son of M. L. Wilkinson Succumbs to Ravages of Disease.

The 5 years old boy of M. L. Wilkinson, floor walker of Keith-O'Brien's, died at 3 a. m. today from diphtheria, after only two days' illness. The funeral was held at 3 p. m., both funeral and burial were of course strictly private. Employees of the firm sent up quite an assortment of flowers in token of their sympathy.

LATEST FROM OGDEN.

John Crosby Gets 100 Days—Utah Construction Co.'s Suit Settled.

(Special to the "News.") Ogden, April 26.—John Crosby, who had been charged with robbery, was today taken before Judge Howell, where the complaint was changed to read assault and battery, and Crosby was sent to the county jail for a period of 100 days. The defendant was arrested for holding up a Chinaman.

Frank Denman was this morning arraigned before Judge Murphy, charged with a statutory offense. He was held to the district court in bonds of $50, which he furnished.

The Utah Construction company's suit to recover over $10,000 from the Oregon Short Line for work on the Leamington cut-off, has been settled out of court.

TWENTY GIRLS WANTED.

Steady work, good wages. No experience necessary. Apply Sweet Candy Company, 13 East First South.

U. OF U. VALEDICTORIAN.

J. Percy Goddard Chosen by the Faculty for College Classes.

J. Percy Goddard has been chosen by the faculty of the University of Utah valedictorian for the college classes, and Miss Florence Rosenberg will represent the fourth year normals, the selections having been made yesterday.

The seniors have registered a protest against meeting in commencement exercises with the normals, and the matter will be taken up by officials of the school. The faculty had already provided for a single commencement meeting for both departments, which arrangement was displeasing to the seniors.

HOLM DECLARED SANE.

Is Returned to the County Jail to Await Preliminary Hearing.

After an examination by County Physician Calderwood and his assistant, Dr. Bailey, Charles F. Holm was declared sane yesterday afternoon by Judge Armstrong and was returned to the county jail to await a preliminary hearing before Judge Dichi upon the charge of larceny. When Holm's case was called in the police court yesterday morning he attempted to argue a de-murrer to the complaint without the assistance of an attorney. His actions appeared rather queer so Judge Dichi thought it advisable to look into the man's mental condition. The examination was held yesterday afternoon before Judge Armstrong and Holm was declared sane.

WALKED OUT OF THE WINDOW

Walter Green of St. Anthony, Idaho, Fell From the Fourth Story.

The death of Walter Green, whose home was at St. Anthony, Idaho, occurred under peculiar and unusual circumstances. On Wednesday of last week he was admitted as a patient at the L. D. S. hospital, suffering from Bright's disease. Examination also revealed the fact that Green had a severe stroke, and he had not been at the institution long before his face broke out with virulent erysipelas. So infectious was the last named phase of the man's illness, that his wife, who in the meantime had arrived at his bedside, was advised against remaining in the room with him.

Green was taken to a private room to be cared for. The nurse, who had taken his temperature, stepped into the supply room for some needed articles, and upon returning a moment later found that the patient was missing.
He was soon found, lying in a heap on the ground outside, having jumped from a window of the fourth story. He barely missed the cement pavement, and landed on comparatively soft ground.

When picked up, Green was conscious and in explanation of his action, he said, "One of my customers (he was a saloon keeper) wanted some time water and I stepped out to get it, but missed my footing and couldn't touch bottom."

The man grew rapidly worse and died a few days afterwards. It was subsequently learned from his relatives and friends that he had acted queerly on a number of occasions. But of this nothing was said at the time admission was sought at the hospital. Two friends had accompanied him from his home in Idaho to Salt Lake, but Green went to the hospital alone, and his condition seemed little different from that of other patients seeking relief at the hospital.

The remains were taken to St. Anthony for interment.

BOY BADLY HURT.

Hans Jacobsen Caught Between Freight Cars Near Rio Grande Depot.

While playing in the yards near the Rio Grande Western depot, a 13-year-old lad named Hans Jacobsen was crushed between two cars, and though it is not known yet how serious his injuries are, it is feared that he may have been badly hurt internally. It seems that the cars were without bumpers, and the boy was between them when they were forced together by a switch engine. Attracted by his screams, trainmen tried to pull him from his position, but the cars had to be drawn apart before this could be done.

The injured boy was carried into the baggage room and the police were notified. It is stated that the desk servant tried to get the county physician to attend to the case, but that Dr.
Calderwood refused to go, saying that it was not a matter for the county to take up. The railroad people, it is alleged, feared to act for the reason, it was stated, that it was none of their affair.
Meanwhile the boy was lying unattended and suffering intense pain. It was an hour before he was finally carried home and received proper attention.

Mrs. K. Raby, the boy's mother, resides at 27 Gale street. The red tape of the county and the railroad, with the failure to locate either of the city physicians, necessitated the calling of another doctor, and Dr. Waite responded.
The boy had a restless night, but seemed somewhat improved this morning, and it is confidently expected that he will recover.

WILL INITIATE MANY CANDIDATES

This Evening Will be One of Interest in Salt Lake Jewish Circles.

GEORGE N. BLACK IS TO SPEAK

Visiting Officials Will Introduce a Number Into the Order of B'nai Britch at Temple.

This evening will be one of interest in Jewish circles. Geo. N. Black, president of the Order of B'nai Britch at Los Angeles is to speak in the Jewish temple, and the second vice president of the order, Lucius L. Solomon of the Constitution grand lodge at San Francisco, is expected here this afternoon, to speak also in the temple. The visiting officials will initiate a large number of candidates for admission to the order Sunday at 2 p. m. in B'nai Britch hall.

The order in the United States is divided into seven jurisdictions, with a total membership of 35,000. This district, the fourth, has a membership of 2,600. The order maintains hospitals, orphans, homes for the aged and infirm, libraries, agricultural societies, and immigrant protection societies. The order proposes to establish agricultural colonies for Jews, and there is one now in operation in the Dakotas. There are 10,000,000 Jews in the world, and Mr.
Black claims only a small part of them are even well to do.

DIES ON THE TRAIN.

Old Soldier, En Route From Los Angeles to Colorado, Expires.

Edwin Green, an old soldier from Los Angeles, died on Salt Lake Route train No. 2, on the divided just above Caliente, last night. Mr. Green was from the Soldiers Home in Los Angeles, and was enroute to Colorado. He was a member of the Pacific coast branch of the National Home of Disabled Veterans Soldiers, and was en route to Ignacio, Colo., but further than this nothing could be learned of the man. His dead body was discovered by one of the train crew, and was brought to Salt Lake and taken to the undertaking parlors of Joe Wm. Taylor. It is not known what the cause of his death was. The Soldiers Home at Los Angeles has been notified of Veteran Green's death, and instructions as to disposition of the remains will probably be received during the day.

IS CHAS. F. HOLM INSANE?

Resumes His Old Feats in Dichi's Court This Morning.

Is Charles F. Holm insane?
Or, is he just "stalling" to escape punishment for a crime committed some time ago?

Yesterday a lunacy commission pronounced the man sane. This morning he showed unmistakable signs of insanity, and his attorney, George Euchle, stated in open court that the defendant was not capable of advising him properly.

In the district court Holm pleaded guilty to burglary in the first degree. He was arrested for stealing a quantity of supplies from a restaurant. He begged Judge Armstrong to send him to the state prison at once, but the court refused to accept the plea and another complaint, charging Holm with petit larceny, was filed.

against him and the burglary charge dismissed. When he was called upon to face the lesser charge, he pleaded not guilty and filed a long incoherent and absurd demurrer to the complaint.

Yesterday he was examined as to his sanity and pronounced sane. This morning in Judge Dichi's court, he demanded a hearing and filed an affidavit of imbecility. He then asked that a large number of witnesses be summoned to testify in his behalf, at the expense of the state. Among the witnesses are Judge George G.
Armstrong, the county clerk, Deputy Sheriff Sharp, several county officials and two convicts at the state prison.
Atty. Buckle would not consent to this and the matter was continued for further investigation.

Holm acts like an insane man but insists that he is in his proper mind.
He has had two lawyers to defend him but insisted in trying to conduct the case himself.

GIRL STRUCK BY FOUL BALL.

Blanch Williams Rendered Insensible
On the High School Campus.

Blanch Williams, a high school student, was hit on top of the head by a ball yesterday afternoon, while she was watching the game between members of her school and the university.
The ball had gone "sky high," as the boys term it, and descended upon the young lady's head with such velocity as to render her unconscious for nearly an hour. Dr. Wright was near by and rendered immediate assistance, and after she regained consciousness, Miss Williams was taken home.

A second baseball accident happened yesterday, this one in Liberty Park.
Two teams of school boys were busy on the diamond, when a batted ball struck an hour, whose name was not learned, squarely in the abdomen. He was so severely hurt that he had to be taken home by his companions.

STATE FAIR THIS YEAR.

Association Reorganized and Official Announcement Forthcoming.

The directors of the State Fair association held a meeting last evening, when it was officially announced that there would be a state fair this fall, Sept. 20 to Oct.
5, with admission at 25 cents for adults, and 10 cents for children. This meeting of the board was the first since the adjournment of the legislature, and a reorganization was effected by the following: President, James G. McDonald; vice president, M. K. Parsons; second vice president, Fred J. Kiesel of Ogden.
This last office was created by an amendment to the by-laws of the association.
Joseph R. Bingham was re-elected secretary, and Elias A. Smith, treasurer.
It was decided also to hold a state fair next year, deprecating premiums and racing purposes will be offered.

UNCLE SAM ON CURE.

Sensational Ascent Continues This Afternoon on Local Exchange.

Uncle Sam continued to climb during the regular call in the local mining stock exchange this afternoon.
From $1, its closing forenoon price, it jumped to 55, blocks totaling 2,800 shares going at this price. At a cent loss 2,700 shares sold. The news that the Uncle Sam may have the Beck Tunnel vein has created a big demand for the stock. This afternoon's quotations follow:

MALAD NATIONAL BANK.

Application of Jeffs and Others Approved by Comptroller of Currency.

Washington, D. C., April 26.—The application of Jeffs, Griff Davis, Jones Bros., Roberts Bros. and R. T. Owens, to organize the First National Bank of Malad city, Idaho, with $50,000 capital, has been approved by the comptroller of the currency.

PILGRIMAGE OF THE UTAH PIONEERS SIXTY YEARS AGO TODAY.

MONDAY, APRIL 26, 1847.

About half-past 3 o'clock a. m. an alarm was sounded in the pioneer camp. Three guards stationed to the northwest of the camp had discovered a horde of Indians crawling toward the wagons. Alarm had been first manifested by one of the horses. Noticing this, the guards had proceeded towards the spot, and, listening intently, had heard something rustling in the grass.
It was at first believed that the noise was made by wolves, and a gun was discharged in the direction whence came the sound. Instantly six Indians sprang up and ran from the place.
Another gun was then discharged at their retreating figures and the camp was alarmed. A stronger guard was placed around the camp and a charge of canister was placed in the cannon.
The day was breaking when this took place, the moon having just gone down.
After daylight the footprints of the Indians could be plainly seen, where they had come down under the bank and sometimes stepped into the water.
No doubt their object was to steal horses.

The company started out at 8 o'clock in the morning. As there was no road, Presidents Young and Kimball, with George A. Smith, Amasa M. Lyman and others, traveled ahead on horseback to point out a way for the train.
The horse teams traveled first in the train to break down the strong grass so that it might not hurt the feet of the oxen. The hunters started out in different directions, keeping only a few miles from the wagons. The travelers journeyed about seven miles before noon and then stopped to build a few little holes of water to rest and feed teams.

They traveled slowly in the afternoon, making only about seven miles in 12 hours. They crossed two sloughs, the first encountered since leaving Winter Quarters. The land was more uneven than on the other side of the river, and they were obliged to make new road all the way. They camped at night in a deep hollow where the wagons were almost out of sight from the surrounding country.
About a mile from this spot were the remains of an Indian village.

About 8 o'clock at night Joseph Mathews came into camp after a search for his horses. He reported that an Indian had just ridden away on a horse which Mathews believed to be one of Mr. Little's animals, which was found to be missing. A mare belonging to Dr. Richards was also gone.
As soon as the alarm was given, five or six of the men mounted their steeds and gave pursuit, but without avail, for they could find neither horse nor Indian. When this party returned, Presidents Young and Kimball, with a number of others, went out on horseback to continue the search. They hunted until 11 o'clock, but failed to find the missing animals. These horses were among the most valuable the pioneers had.

Excitement at Derr's Home—There was considerable excitement at the residence of George Derr this morning when a defective electric wire caused a slight blaze. The department was called out but before the apparatus arrived the fire was out and no damage whatever was done.

Will Sing at Organ Recital—It was learned this afternoon, that a special feature of tomorrow afternoon's tabernacle organ recital, will be a mezzo soprano number from Mme. Carolla, the Paris Opera company, who is in this country on a vacation. She will sing "There is a Green Hill Far Away" by Gounod; and she says that she has sung that to Gounod's own accompaniment. Mme. Carolla is a personal friend of Melba.
