

VARSITY WORKS TO BEAT BOULDER

Season's Effort This Year Centered in That One Hope.

TEAM HOPEFUL OF VICTORY.

But Fear is General That Condition Will Not be Good in Case of Several Players.

The ambition to beat Boulder, which seems to have infected every nook and cranny of the University of Utah this year, is a growth about two years old. It began back in the years when Mud-die first came here, and put out in those days there was a genuine interest in getting that team to promise much. In team football, among old players in Salt Lake, who wanted the state they lived in to have a good university and a good team.

MORRILL, RIGHT HALF.

He is fully as heavy as Russell of Utah, against whom he will play. He displaces the Mighty Caley who was the team's star last year.

Utah's measure after the upward trend in football.

TEST IS DECISIVE.

Saturday the trial comes, and this time all the advantage is with Utah. There have been no hard games, to break up the team's condition, and only training could bring charity horse and stables at this date.

The rules of the faculty have been known all season, and there has been little chance for the real student, who is the only one with a legitimate license to play football, to fall desperately behind. The defense admitted that the paraphernalia of a bookmaker consisted of stools and a cash box, and that a definite location was assigned to each bookmaker in the betting ring.

TRAINING RULES.

The tender regard the genuine player holds for his Alma Mater hardly broke a breaking of training rules the week before the season's critical game. To have a critical game is the privilege of Yale when it meets Harvard, Stanford when Berkeley is the foe, and Michigan when the journey to Chicago. Those universities have every effort for these particular games, caring little about other games, and training their men for the pink of condition in the big game week. This year Utah has had an opportunity of that kind for the first time, and her team tonight should be in the finest of fettle.

What condition it is actually in will be proven by the showing Saturday, and, of course, the confidence of the community is behind it to the fullest extent.

SOME RUMORS.

Barton is said to be out of shape. Russell is said to be suffering from stiffness. Bryant is reported as a dead one as far as form is concerned, and Scrimm is said to be a cripple. Pome, a new recruit, goes into his first big game at the head of the line, and with these exceptions the team is the same old eleven, with Capt. Bennion, Pitt, and Varley as its most reliable trio.

The Boulder team is expected Friday night, and between now and then the sentiment at the University can be counted on to remain at fever heat. The game will be called at 3 o'clock Saturday, and if the weather permits fast playing, Utah should do some remarkable work.

BEATING BOULDER IN WASHINGTON

Bookmaking Declared Against The Law in Court Decision.

AFFECTS BENNING COURSE.

William Davis Defendant in Test Case Was Found Guilty and Given Short Sentence.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Bookmaking, as it has been carried on at Benning race track, was today declared illegal, and William Davis, who volunteered himself a defendant to test the law, was declared guilty and sentenced in criminal court today to imprisonment for two hours. The case turned on the construction of the law prohibiting "setting up a gaming table" in the District of Columbia. The defense admitted that the paraphernalia of a bookmaker consisted of stools and a cash box, and that a definite location was assigned to each bookmaker in the betting ring.

The trial has been matter of great interest to the racing world, in view of the fall meeting of the Washington Jockey club, to begin on Friday next. How far-reaching the decision is regarded by the club was indicated in the following statement given out for publication tonight by S. T. Walton, secretary of the club:

"The meeting of the Washington Jockey club scheduled to commence on Friday next will be carried through according to program. While bookmaking has been declared illegal, betting between individuals is not punishable under the act, and the Jockey club will strictly carry out the court's decision in the matter pending the settlement of the question on final appeal."

Secretary Walton added that certain kinds of betting had been carried on upon the grounds of the club since 1899 upon authority of a decision of Judge Bradley, of the supreme court of the district. The decision today only went to the manner of betting heretofore prevailing.

It was held to be an offense, he added, for a person to make bets; that of this purpose he might have a sheet or program, or even a number in his hat, although he might not have a place assigned him in which to do business.

PURIFYING SPORT.

Men Who Make a Living at Game Meant for Recreation Are Barred.

London, Nov. 14.—At the annual meeting of the English Lawn Tennis association held today at the house of Cecil C. Wright was proposed as the representative of the United States on the committee to be formed to consider the question of the ruling of the National Lawn Tennis association of America on its amateur status was passed.

Fifty-three of the delegates voted for and thirty-five voted against the proposed rule forbidding any one engaged in the manufacturing or retailing of tennis requisites, either as employer or employee, from acting as referee, handicapper, secretary, or manager of any prize meeting proposed by the lawn tennis association or affiliated organizations. The discussion brought direct reference to Archdale Palmer, secretary of the All-England club and manager of the championship contests, who is also manager of a firm which manufactures tennis requisites. The meeting passed a resolution that no person acting as referee or handicapper in an open meeting for a fee or to whom money was paid for traveling or living expenses, be allowed to compete in such a meeting.

HYLAND-THOMPSON BOUT.

Boxers Ready for Sound of the Gong At Ogden Tomorrow Evening.

The chief sporting event in many weeks is booked for tomorrow evening at Ogden in the opera house when "Fighting Dick" Hyland and "Cyclone" Thompson will engage in a ten-round boxing bout with padded mitts.

That Salt Lake will be well represented in the ring is no secret. Several hundred tickets have been sold and the demand for seats continues, which demonstrates the popularity of the fight.

Salt Lake ringsters say the only drawback to the fight is that they have to go to another city to see it, but they live in hopes that a bout can be given here.

Summy McClinton stated today that Hyland had quit work; that he is down to the required weight, ready to engage in the fight, and that he has no intention of getting into the ring with Thompson, and confident of wiping out a defeat at the hands of "Cyclone" Hyland when a questionable decision was rendered.

Thompson has also "cut out" training and is asking his friends to play him to the limit.

Jim Williams will see to it that both boys get a square deal and that each performs according to the terms of agreement. Jim is so well versed in the game that there is no change of a wrong decision if it comes to a decision.
