

The week's record is an unusually brilliant one, the weddings and other functions being notably on the increase. The opening important event was the marriage of Miss Vera Cannon and Mr. Heber Sharp on Tuesday, and this was followed by a number of other pretty nuptial affairs comprising the weddings of Miss Belle Weiler and Mr. Ernest Lambourn, Miss Florence La Due and Mr. Hugh Ward, Miss Annetta Cowan and Mr. W. J. Bywater, Miss Jeanette E. Moore and Mr. J. R. Woodridge, all of them home affairs, but delightful and artistic in detail. Among other larger events were the reception given by Mrs. Arthur Brown in honor of Miss Reese and the reception given for Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kahn at the Ladies' Literary club house. A number of interesting events are promised for next week.

The marriage of Miss Minerva May Margetts, daughter of Mr. Henrietta Richards Oster, and Mr. Harry Oster, will take place on the first of October. The event will be solemnized in the temple and a reception will be held in the evening at the home of Miss Margetts' grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Richards.

The marriage of Miss Mabel Harker and Mr. Preston J. Cannon will take place next Friday in the temple at noon. A wedding breakfast will follow at the bride's home and later they will leave for Germany. Mr. Cannon to fulfill a mission and the bride-elect to study art.

A delightful event of the week was the reception given by Mrs. Arthur Brown on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Maud Reese Davies. The rooms were beautifully decorated, pink and white asters and dahlias being used with vines and palms in artistic effect. Miss Davies delighted the guests with several charming vocal selections, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Agnes Osbourne. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. D. C. McLaughlin, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Rachel Miller, Mrs. J. L. Rawlins, Mrs. David Evans, Mrs. George A. Snow, Mrs. Ezra Thompson, Mrs. M. Shaugnessy, Miss Marjorie Miller and Miss Alta Rawlins.

Mrs. J. E. Gallagher entertained at cards this afternoon, nine tables being played. The rooms were beautifully decorated in orange and green, and were carried out in golden rod and rushes with charming effect. Tiny baskets tied with orange and green ribbons were used with corn for counters, and the colors were used in the candles and other details. Two prizes were awarded, the first a beautiful handpainted plate done in the prevailing colors, and the second an Indian basket. The hostess was assisted by Miss Preston and Miss Lena Preston.

On Tuesday Mrs. A. C. Ewing was hostess at a luncheon given in honor of her aunt, Mrs. Noel of Kansas City. Covers were laid for 14 guests who were mostly members of the Ladies' Literary club, and the club colors, pale green and white, were used in the decorations, asters, ferns and green and white ribbons being used with artistic effect.

On Wednesday Dr. and Mrs. Ewing entertained informally at the Country club in honor of Mrs. Avery. A buffet supper being enjoyed by their party of 15. Present besides the guest of honor were Dr. and Mrs. Worthington, Mr. and Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. Victor Clement, Mrs. Corning, Miss Davenport, Miss Kimball, Capt. Winn, Dr. Landenberger, Mr. Borden, Mr. McVie, Mr. George Lawrence.

Miss Emma Thornburg entertained at a kitchen shower party given in honor of Miss May Margetts. The rooms were prettily decorated with carnations and a delightful time spent. Present were: Misses Margetts, Lotte O'Brien, Florence Scholes, Melissa Smith, Carrie Richards, Nora Thornburg, Annie Sorenson, Marie Jonasson, Ella Thornburg, Hattie Carter, Clara Young, Margaret Thornburg, Miss McClelland, Mrs. Mulhall, Nellie Mulhall, Mrs. Wm. Sorenson, Mrs. G. M. Wilkinson, Jennie Mortenson, Mrs. Frank Davidson, Mrs. A. X. Thornburg, Mrs. Sadie Benedict, Barbara Brown, Hattie Furst, Anna Murray, Mattie Rawlins, Mrs. Bert Asper, Millie Oster, Mrs. H. P. Richards, Mrs. O. P. Oster.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Andrews gave a delightful musicale at their home on Wednesday night in honor of Mr. Joseph Mason Howard of Denver. Several beautiful selections were rendered on the harp by the guest of honor, and Miss Blanford of Lincoln, Neb., Miss Conway of New York, Mr. Skouton and Mrs. John Reed were others who contributed to the pleasure of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kahn were guests of honor at an enjoyable function at the Ladies' Literary club house on Thursday night. The entertainment being given by the B. F. Pakotto lodge No. 421. The evening was delightfully spent with cards and dancing and an elaborate supper was served.

On Monday night Mr. and Mrs. Victor Clement entertained at dinner in honor of Mr. Borden of San Francisco. The table was decorated with pink carnations and pink candles were used. Afterwards the party repaired to the theater to witness the performance of "The Strollers." There were present besides the guest of honor Miss Woodward, Miss Burke, Miss Judge and Capt. Winn.

there were present Mrs. Samuel C. Adams of Denver, Mrs. Pinkerton, Mrs. W. H. Cunningham, Miss Mamie Porter, Miss Bernbach of Chicago, Miss Dorn, Miss McMillan and Miss Rosalie Morria.

Mrs. George A. Lowe and Miss Lowe entertained at a luncheon on Thursday in honor of Miss Lena Preston. About 20 guests being present. The afternoon was delightfully spent, a feature being a guessing contest in which prizes were won by Mrs. Gorman and Mrs. Black.

Mrs. Joseph Grow and Miss Grace Grow gave a delightful Kensington yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss May Margetts. The rooms were prettily decorated, and delicious refreshments were served, the afternoon being most enjoyably spent.

Mrs. Christopher Diehl entertained at a pretty luncheon on Wednesday in honor of Miss Lena Preston, covers being laid for 23. The table was beautifully decorated, and those present besides the guest of honor were: Messdames Arthur Brown, David Woods, Greenwald, J. Bamberger, Oberndorfer, David Keith, Samuel Paul, Kimball, Hanchett, Dalby, Schramm, Dart, S. R. King, Henry Cohn, Martin Hook, John Dorn, Messerschmitt, and Misses Kimball, Paul and Ducker.

Misses Kate and Minnie Anderson were hostesses at an enjoyable event on Wednesday night the affair being in the nature of a surprise party tendered Mr. R. L. Anderson, previous to his departure for Europe. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and vines, and a floor was laid on the lawn where dancing was enjoyed. Refreshments were served and a delightful time enjoyed.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Young and Mr. Lucien Ray will take place on Thursday, Oct. 2.

Miss Florence Dow gave a delightful party to a number of her friends yesterday.

W. P. Beem, wife and daughter of Charlton, Ia., left last night for their home, after visiting with their old-time friend, J. W. Culley of this city, for the past two weeks.

Mrs. Percival O. Perkins and Miss Dickert entertain informally this evening in honor of Miss Maud Reese Davies.

Mrs. William Igleheart has issued invitations for a reception on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 25.

Rev. Elliott Meredith, wife and child, of Virginia, are guests of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perkins. They are on their way to Elko, Nev., where Rev. Mr. Meredith will have charge of the Episcopal church.

Mrs. E. Slade and Miss Lillian M. Slade will return to Salt Lake tomorrow, after an extended visit in New York and Washington.

Mrs. T. F. Green of Lincoln, Neb., arrived Thursday morning to visit with relatives.

Mr. Borden of San Francisco, who has been visiting Captain Winn during the past week, left Thursday for his home.

Mrs. Jack Alford and Miss Jean Alford will leave this morning for a week's visit with friends in Provo.

The Misses Guitler, who have been spending the past few weeks in the city as the guests of Miss Leonard, will leave tomorrow for their home.

Miss Alta Miller is visiting Mrs. Tarpey at Palo Alto. She will return home in about three weeks.

The many friends of Miss Inez Trent will be glad to learn that she will arrive in this city in a few weeks to visit Mrs. Rachael S. Miller and the Misses Miller.

Misses Louise and Lily Richards left on Wednesday for Paris where they will study art.

Miss Woodward entertained informally at breakfast at the Country club on Wednesday. Her guests were Mrs. Calhoun, Mrs. Robert Harkness, Mrs. Wether Jones, Mrs. G. P. Holman, Mrs.

J. T. Thompson, Mrs. McCormick, Mrs. Minor, Mrs. E. D. Plout, Mrs. Woodward.

A pleasant event of the week was the Kensington given by Miss Mary Eldridge. The afternoon was spent in sewing, dainty sachet bags being made and kept as souvenirs by the guests. About 15 enjoyed the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Spencer, who have been spending the past three weeks in Wyoming, have returned.

Miss Florence Terhune who has been absent on a trip to Manila returned yesterday.

Mrs. George P. Holman entertained at a delightful whist party on Thursday, about 20 guests being present.

Miss Leigh Block will leave the early part of October for Washington, D. C., where she will study art.

Miss Hazel Crow of Chicago is the guest for some time of Miss Leigh Block.

Miss Mamie Miller, who has been visiting her cousins Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Schiller, returned to her home Wednesday morning.

W. P. Beem, cashier of the First National Bank of Charlton, Ia., his wife and daughter Esther are in the city, visiting with Dr. J. W. Culley, 959 Third street.

Mrs. H. P. Myton is spending a few days in Park City, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Windsor V. Rice.

Mrs. Joel L. Priest and children have returned from Kearney, Neb. Mrs. Priest is at home at 275 E street.

Miss Isabel Monahan, who has been spending the summer in the city, will leave tonight for Oberlin, where she will continue her musical studies.

Mrs. W. W. Crome will be in the city from Brighton shortly to visit her mother, Mrs. H. S. Pond, at 572 south State street.

Mrs. Ezra Thompson entertained yesterday at luncheon followed by cards, about 40 being present to enjoy the pleasant affair. The decorations were in pink and white, asters being chiefly used in the scheme.

Miss Sallie Leonard gave a pleasant Kensington on Wednesday in honor of her cousins the Misses Guitler, who are her guests. A guessing game was a feature of the afternoon, which was delightfully spent.

Miss Georgia Vaden left on Thursday for Boston, where she will attend school this year.

Miss Terhune arrived in San Francisco Sept. 15, on the transport Kilpatrick after a year's absence in the Philippines.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Schumacher will take apartments at the Knutsford for the winter.

Misses Afton and Jasmine Young will pass the winter in New York.

The Fort Douglas Social club gave the first of their series of "hops" at the post hall on Wednesday evening. Music was rendered by the regimental orchestra.

Mrs. Ernest Drake was hostess at a pretty card party on Wednesday. The sunflower idea being carried out in decorations and tables. The rooms were effectively adorned and about 20 guests enjoyed the afternoon. Mrs. Gates and Mrs. Reed were the prize winners.

Mr. Borden gave a theater party on Wednesday night at the performance of "The Strollers." The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clement, Dr. and Mrs. Hephurn, Misses Donnellan and the Misses Bub.

The Misses Donnellan entertained at a delightful dinner at the Country club on Wednesday evening. The guests were Dr. and Mrs. Hephurn, Miss Clara Bubb, Mr. Borden, Mr. Carrington and Lieut. Falls.

C. W. Mulhall, who has been in New York for the past three weeks, was in the city during the week visiting his mother, Mrs. E. P. Mulhall, previous to his return to his home at Idaho Falls.

Mrs. H. H. Salisbury and daughters Marcelle and Frances, who have been visiting Mrs. Ned Kessler, left on Tuesday for St. Louis.

Mrs. M. B. Whitney left Thursday morning for a visit with Dr. and Mrs. Wallick of Kansas City. Before returning Mrs. Whitney will make a trip to New York.

Mrs. Louise Smedley Smith will leave early in the month for an eastern trip. She will spend the winter visiting friends in Kansas City, St. Joseph and St. Louis.

Miss Clara Deal is visiting her sister, Mrs. Rider, in New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Smith and daughter, Josephine, of Los Angeles, are visiting Mrs. S. B. Newman.

Mrs. M. P. Wells has returned from Rock Springs, where she has been visiting her son for the past few weeks.

Miss Fannie Breeden and Miss Agnes Sloan are spending a few days in Ogden with Mrs. A. D. E. Reynolds.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Leggett left during the week for Kansas City, where Mr. Leggett will engage in business.

Mrs. Charles Brink and Mrs. R. D. Grant, with their children, have gone on a trip to Portland and the Sound country.

Miss Anne Igleheart of Evansville, Ind., is in the city and will be the guest for some time of Mrs. William Igleheart.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dinwoodey will celebrate their crystal wedding tomorrow, and will entertain at an informal affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Kessler will leave today for a two weeks' visit to Chicago.

Mrs. George P. White, Mrs. A. E. Noble and Miss Julia Read are touring Old Mexico.

Mrs. Albert Taylor and little daughter, who have been spending the past two months with Mrs. Egbert Roberts, ful outing in Colorado. They were camped for some weeks in the mountains and later spent some time visiting in Denver.

Mrs. Botsford and Miss Josephine Botsford will leave shortly for Chicago to spend the winter.

Mrs. W. B. Whitney left during the week for an eastern trip.

Mrs. Harry S. Knight entertained at a delightful dinner last night, in honor of Miss Lena Preston.

Miss Dorn entertained informally at a Kensington yesterday in honor of Miss Preston.

Miss Nellie Cullen left for Notre Dame on Monday.

Mrs. J. T. Donnellan, Miss Marguerite Donnellan and Miss June Ditz left for Washington, D. C., on Monday.

Mrs. Dix and the Misses Dix are at home at 130 P street.

Mrs. H. T. Cleaver and mother, Mrs. Mulock, have returned from California.

Mrs. S. W. Mudd and son Harvey of Denver are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Cleaver for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. David Keith have returned from the coast.

Miss Bee Cheeseman and Miss Alleen Maclean have gone east to attend school.

Mrs. J. E. Gallagher's residence number has been changed from 502 to 518 First street.

Mr. and Mrs. De Witt Lowe, who have been in Alaska and California the

HANDSOME TAILORED SUIT.

Skirt and small coat of the new rough Zebeline cloth in brown. Seams boxed and stitched. Hem faced and stitched. Blouse waist with short basque. Wide double folds form front. Three caps form top of sleeve. Velvet collar and cuffs to match. Hat of brown and white chenille braid, with brown birds.

will leave today for their home in Indianapolis, Ind.

Miss Hannah Davidson will leave tomorrow to enter college in the east.

D. Macpherson Boyd and W. R. Townsend left for the east on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Parsons have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Hickey have moved to 924 east, Second South.

Mrs. Leslie Woodruff Snow will give a reception next Thursday.

Invitations have been issued by Mrs. H. N. Mayo for a card party to be given next Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Marks are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Solon Spiro.

Mrs. Ella Cummings Wetzel who has returned recently from a summer's eastern trip, has re-opened her studio in the Constitution building, and is full of enthusiasm for her musical work for the winter. While absent she sang at Belmar near Long Branch, and visited Boston, New York and Chicago. The studio has been enlarged and re-modeled and includes a suite of three large rooms which have been newly papered in an artistic design of purple fleur de lis with the long stems and large leaves forming a wainscot effect with a border or frieze of the flowers. Pretty cozy corners and bric-a-brac further enhance the attractive interior. Mrs. Wetzel will give monthly recitals beginning in a short time, and these will doubtless furnish a musical treat to the artists and music lovers of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Officer and children have returned from a delightful past three years have returned to Salt Lake to reside.

Mr. John Walters and daughter Hazel, who have been visiting Mrs. G. W. Stevenson, have returned to their home in Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. Shepard Benson have returned from Denver.

Harry Atkinson has returned to California.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Duncan have returned from an extended eastern trip and are at home at the Manitou.

Miss Hannah Davidson will leave tomorrow for the east to enter college.

Miss Sigrid Pederson will leave for Boston shortly to continue her musical studies.

The Misses Kinney have returned to Salt Lake and will spend the winter here.

Miss Lily Tuckett has returned from her summer's vacation.

Col. and Mrs. Clayton have returned from Detroit.

Mrs. H. C. Brownlee and son have returned from Colorado.

Miss Leta McMillan entertained at luncheon yesterday in honor of Miss Lena Preston.

Col. and Mrs. Bubb and the Misses Bubb received informally on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Joseph A. Johnson entertained at luncheon on Thursday, cards being enjoyed later in the afternoon.

TO COME TO AMERICA.

Princess Rospigliosi is anxious to visit the United States, the land of her birth. She is trying to persuade her husband, Prince Rospigliosi, to accompany her but he is at present deeply engrossed in the work of forcing the Vatican to recognize his marriage with the beautiful American.

OGDEN SOCIAL NEWS.

The marriage of Miss Florence J. Tyler to Mr. Ephraim Cravshaw, was one of the most brilliant social affairs of the season. The ceremony which made the twain one was performed Wednesday in the Salt Lake Temple. The young couple returned to Ogden on the evening train, and were given a reception for the immediate relatives at the home of the bride's parents on Twenty-fourth street.

The house was very beautifully decorated for the occasion with cut flowers evergreens and vines artistically arranged. A sumptuous repast was served in the dining room.

The following evening the many friends of the young couple were given a reception at Dignam's dancing academy. The hall was artistically decorated for the occasion with palms, evergreens, etc. The evening was spent in dancing. Dignam's enlarged orchestra furnished the music. In prettily arranged booths, dainty refreshments were served by several young ladies.

The bride wore a beautiful white gown and looked exceptionally charming. She is the accomplished and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Toller. The groom is the well known salesman in the employ of W. H. Wright & Sons company.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawshaw have a beautiful little home on Twenty-fourth street, between Monroe and Quincy avenues, where they will reside.

Bishop James Taylor and wife and Dr. John Driver returned home this week from Europe. They have spent the last three months visiting the beautiful cities of the continent.

Miss Edythe Shaw and Edgar G. Morris, two popular young people of Ogden, were married this week.

L. C. Sloan and wife of Salt Lake were Ogden visitors this week, the guests of F. C. Smith.

Mrs. N. H. Ives returned home Thursday from a month's visit with friends at Clyde, Idaho.

Mrs. M. Moss had as her guests this week Dr. and Mrs. Cowan and Mrs. Vincent of Boulder, Colo.

The musical and social given last evening at the parlors of the Presbyterian church was a grand success. The excellent musical and literary program which was rendered was greatly appreciated by the many friends who gathered. After the rendition of the program delicious refreshments were served. The proceeds derived from the evening's entertainment will go to the building fund.

Ford's orchestra gave a grand ball last evening at Peterson's hall at Huntsville.

The Pioneers of the Pacific will give another of their enjoyable dances Monday evening in the Lester park pavilion.

Miss Bertie Taylor left Thursday for California, where she will spend a couple of months.

The Child's Culture club met yesterday afternoon with Miss Wilson, and spent a few pleasant hours discussing various topics of interest to the ladies.

The hall to be given Tuesday evening by the Weber Stake Y. M. M. L. A. promises to be an enjoyable event.

Miss Marie Adams left this week for Cincinnati, where she will take up a course of study in art.

Tuesday evening at the Reed hotel Miss Mary E. Mamill of Elko, Nev., and Mr. John Furlong of this city were married. Rev. Goshen officiating. The ceremony was a quiet one, only a few friends witnessing the same. The contracting parties are well and popularly known in Ogden. The bride is an accomplished and charming lady of Elko, while the groom is the popular Southern Pacific engineer. Mr. and Mrs. Furlong will make their future home in Ogden.

A musicale will be given in the Baptist church Tuesday evening which promises to be very pleasurable. The following well known vocalists will take part on the program: Messdames F. A. Mitchell, A. Miner, E. M. Hanks, G. W. Thatcher, J. A. McAllister, J. Earl, J. F. Squires, V. Crockett, L. N. Smith, P. Affleck, R. A. Langton, G. W. Thatcher, Jr., J. U. Hendricks, R. S. Robinson, W. B. Preston, Jr., E. N. Robinson, E. T. Hyde, H. A. Pedersen, M. T. Beattie from Salt Lake, B. G. Thatcher, Mrs. M. R. Needham, Mrs. Jesse Earl and Miss Winnie Parkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cardon entertained a number of their friends most pleasantly on Tuesday evening, the Wells, Fargo Express company at Portland, Ore., were married Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the pretty home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Nye, on Adams avenue. Rev. Carver of the Presbyterian church officiating. The bride was one of Ogden's most highly esteemed and accomplished young ladies, possessing many charms. The groom occupies a responsible position with the Wells, Fargo company at Portland, Ore., and Mrs. Farrell left for Portland, Ore., on Sunday morning at 11:30, where they will make their future home.

Mrs. Daniel Hamer and her sister, Miss Halgreen, were Provo visitors this week.

PROVO SOCIAL NEWS.

Miss Fay Loose is visiting relatives in Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Fannie E. Stewart, with a large number of ladies from the "Republican club," went to Salem Wednesday evening, where a club was organized for political work.

Miss Amy Pike and Mrs. Jack Alford of Salt Lake City are the guests of the Misses Bachman.

The Nineteenth Century club met at the home of Mrs. Ephraim Sutton Friday afternoon. The following subjects were treated in a most interesting manner: "Physical Examination of Pupils and School Sanitation," Mrs. J. J. Nunn. "Kindergartens," Miss Alice Isely. Reading, "The Madness of Philip," Mrs. Beasley.

Mrs. C. E. Loose spent Tuesday in Salt Lake City.

Mrs. O. W. Powers, Mrs. W. H. Dale and Mrs. W. H. King, from Salt Lake City, attended the Democratic convention at Provo.

Miss Laura Hickman has returned and has taken up her work as teacher in the Mesner.

After a pleasant summer spent in Chicago, Prof. and Mrs. Richard B. Lyman, accompanied by the Misses Ida and Amy Lyman, have gone to Baltimore, where a year will be spent in study.

Mrs. Sam A. King entertained at dinner a large party of visiting ladies Tuesday.

Mrs. M. H. Hardy, assisted by her daughter, Vera, entertained a party of ladies from American Fork at the State Mental hospital Thursday afternoon.

Miss Sophia Packard of Springville spent Monday here with friends.

Mr. Jesse Knight has just returned from Canada, where he has spent the last three months attending his business interests.

Mr. Heber Robinson of American Fork spent Monday visiting friends before going to St. Louis, where he will continue his studies in the medical college of that city.

Mrs. John Nowers of Beaver has been visiting relatives for some time.

Mr. Phil Margetts was shaking hands with his friends Wednesday.

A festive and concert was held in the First ward amusement hall Friday night in honor of Leo Thurman, who leaves shortly for a mission in the Southern States. The program consisted of the following numbers: Address, S. S. Jones; recitation, Miss Edna Berg; Solo, E. Jorgensen; recitation, Miss Annie K. Smoot; duet, Walter Whitehead & Co.; guitar selection, Lester Pratt and Murray Snow; solo, W. D. Roberts; recitation, Walter Cluff; instrumental music, Miss Pearl Taft.

LOGAN SOCIAL NOTES.

One of the most enjoyable events of last week was the afternoon party given by Mrs. M. R. Needham at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Jesse Earl. Progressive croquet was played, the prizes being won by Mrs. P. Affleck, Mrs. Roy McAllister, Mrs. C. A. Cummings and Mrs. A. Miner. The refreshments were delicious, and punch was served in the dining room during the afternoon by Miss Winnie Parkinson. Those present were: Messdames F. A. Mitchell, A. Miner, E. M. Hanks, G. W. Thatcher, J. A. McAllister, J. Earl, J. F. Squires, V. Crockett, L. N. Smith, P. Affleck, R. A. Langton, G. W. Thatcher, Jr., J. U. Hendricks, R. S. Robinson, W. B. Preston, Jr., E. N. Robinson, E. T. Hyde, H. A. Pedersen, M. T. Beattie from Salt Lake, B. G. Thatcher, Mrs. M. R. Needham, Mrs. Jesse Earl and Miss Winnie Parkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cardon entertained a number of their friends most pleasantly on Tuesday evening, the