MEETINGS AT THE TABERNACLE tomorrow at ten and two o'clock, and in the various Ward meeting houses in the evening.

OF SNAKE TALES there are a few in the city, and about this time they are on the look out for saleable fruit as well as other unaccounted trifles. An accident discovered in their nocturnal enterprises, the snake managed to master up sufficient courage to dash off into a desperate hurdle race. If they were not in such a hurry at starting they might receive an initial stoga impulse applied at the start, or a salt cartridge similarly administered, and their courage might thereby be magnified and their speed and bottom increased.

FRATERNAL VISIT.—We find a pleasant call this morning from Henry D. Emery, Esq., of the Prairie Farmer, an ably conducted eight page weekly agricultural paper, published in Chicago. The Farmer is in its thirty-third year and from the commencement of its existence has never missed an issue, although the establishment was consumed by the great fire. Mr. Emery is staying at the Townsend house, and will spend several days in the city. He had been a great deal about the great Salt Lake Lake, yet everything he sees here is much beyond his expectations. Mr. E. informs us that the burned district of Chicago is being rapidly built up, and that at the end of a year from the date of the fire that city will have more buildings and substantial in material and handsome in architecture than previous to the great calamity. We trust Mr. Emery will have a pleasant time during his sojourn here.

PROVO CITY, July 19th, 1872.
Editor Deseret News.
Dear Sir:—As my name appeared on the petition against Utah being admitted as a state, I give this explanation: I told a friend of mine to sign my name, as I was being shaved at the time, not knowing the contents of said petition until I saw it printed in the columns of the Deseret News. Had I known the contents I never would have signed or caused my name to be signed to any such document.

JOHN WILKINS.
THE FINE ARTS, a Journal of the Polite World, Edited by Laura Keane and Emma Webb Nivert, New York. This is a monthly Journal devoted, as its title indicates, to the fine arts and polite literature. It is edited with cultivated ability, and some of the engravings are attractive, but others are not so good. The editor's criticism as we should like to see them. It is well printed on good thick paper.

Artists are informed that brief notices of works near completion will be received by the Fine Arts (34 Bond St., New York), as news items for the information of art patrons.

WARMER.—We have had a very pleasant summer thus far, a few hot days, though not a great proportion. Yesterday, however, was exceedingly sultry, and to-day is like it, as if our "hot term" was just coming on. But the summer is advancing, the 24th will soon be here, July soon after will be past, the short days and long nights will be advancing, and by and by the atmosphere will be reduced in temperature to a more gettable condition. In the heat of the very hot days, it will be well if people will exercise prudence, and not unnecessarily expose themselves to the sun's rays, nor throw themselves into any needless excitement, but take things coolly and philosophically, that their health may be good and their lives long. It is a good thing that as the heat of the days increases, the length of the nights increases too, and the heat of the day is reduced into brief diurnal periods, and thus in a degree counteracting its fierceness. It is a good thing also that the national election does not come off until November, as the atmosphere then cannot be charged with the responsibility of any great or greedy policy, or any other such thing, but rather be a cooling and sedative character.

ODD INCIDENTS.—A gentleman from Ogden relates to us the following incidents connected with the late fire there. About four o'clock in the afternoon of the day of the fire Mr. Erbe, proprietor of the hotel which was consumed, endeavored to prepare supper for the passengers who would arrive by the evening train. To enable him to do so he solicited a man named Zachary, for the loan of the latter's stove, and he not only refused to loan it, but a few words passed between the two and then blows were exchanged. Several friends of Zachary and Erbe joined in the row, and a regular melee ensued, during which Erbe received a blow on the side of the head with a "billy," Sheriff F. A. Brown endeavored to break up the riot, but was manfully resisted, and he was knocked down with a chair in the hands of one of the belligerents.

Later in the evening Mr. Erbe's men, being in liquor, went to Zachary's place with the intention of "cleaning him out," and the latter seeing them, ran out at the back door shouting "murder." A number of the employees of the C. P. R. then came up to Zachary's rescue and another "melee" was indulged in, the Erbe men getting the worse of it. Several arrests were made and the parties will have an examination before the authorities on Monday morning.

Per Deseret Telegraph.

REVERE ACCIDENT.—Fountain Green, July 19th.—About two-thirty this p.m. while Richard Jewkes was cleaning out a well belonging to William Adams, of this place, the chain, which was attached to the end of a rope, broke and the bucket, or rather barrel, filled with dirt, weighing about four hundred pounds, fell on his head. The well is about thirty feet deep, and Jewkes is in a very critical condition.

CAPER SNAKE.—This is a 312 page Volume of Chit-chat about Men, Women, and Things, by Fanny Fern (Mrs. Parton). It is a collection of minor essays upon a host of subjects, such as Editors, Music, Male or Female Clerks, The Woman Question, Two Kinds of Wives, The Sin of Being Sick, Rainy Day Pleasures, Pretty Things, Nature, Men's Sins in Girls' Schools, New Clothes, Nice Little Tea Parties, Good Old Hymns, Why Don't I Lecture?, Food, Sauce for the Gander, written in a lively, well known, and generally popular style. If her writings are not deep nor thorough, they have the merits of brevity, lucidness, pith, shrewdness, wit, humor, caustic satire, sparkling vivacity, and sometimes touching pathos. Can be had at Dwyer's Book Depot.

HELD TO BAIL.—Harrington, Kelly, and three others charged with taking and holding possession of the Silver Circle mine, Camp Floyd District, by armed force, were before Judge McKean yesterday for examination. Mr. Huggan, counsel for the defense, asked a continuance of the case till Monday, to enable him to present evidence in favor of the defendants. The continuance was granted, and the prisoners were held in $5,000 each for their appearance.

DEAD.—A young gentleman, George Manners, aged 31 years, died yesterday at the residence of Mr. Warren Huxsey. We understand Mr. Manners is a relative of Lord Manners, of England, and was sent from that country to Utah on business connected with the Emma Mine. While at New York on his way here, he was struck by lightning. He was met there, on board the steamer, by Dr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Lathrop, who, although entire strangers to him, discovering that he was traveling to Utah, kindly took charge of him and his effects and brought him to this city. He was a short time at the Townsend House, but subsequently removed to the residence of Mr. Huxsey, where, as before stated, he died from the effects of sun-stroke, with which he was attacked in New York.

An announcement of his death was sent to his relatives in England, in answer to which a dispatch was received from the latter requesting that his remains should be buried. The funeral services were held at four o'clock this afternoon, at St. Mark's Church.

ARRIVED.—Colonel B. H. Bristol, Solicitor-General and Acting Attorney-General of the United States, and U. S. District Judge Ballard, of Kentucky, were among the arrivals last night.

COAL.—We have before us a small but brilliant specimen of coal, found twelve miles west of Cedar City, Iron County. The specimen seems to be of excellent quality.

BEAUTIFUL.—Our table was graced to-day by a lovely bouquet of choice flowers, from our old acquaintances, Brother Needham, of St. George.

LAND PATENTS.—We understand that the following land certificates have been received at the Land Office in this city from Washington:—

164, Jesse Towers; 237, Ammon Green; 310, John Hargrave; 318, John Neff; 541, James James; 543, John D. Reese; 680, John Shearer; 692, Daniel Hill; 712, John F. Allen; 565, John Ashworth.

GOT BACK.—Hon. Hadley J. Johnson, one of the Utah delegates to the Baltimore Convention, arrived from the east last night. Mr. Johnson was unable to attend the convention, owing to his being attacked with severe sickness when in Iowa. We are pleased to be able to state that he has recovered, and now enjoys good health.

INQUEST HELD.—Coroner Beale, this morning, held an inquest, at the residence of Mr. John Rich, 15th Ward, on the body of Mark A. Johnson, of Rich Valley, a son of the late John Johnson, who was drowned in Cottonwood canyon yesterday afternoon. It appeared from the evidence at the inquest, that the unfortunate young man, while coming down the canyon on a load of lumber, fell from his wagon and down an embankment fifteen feet high, into the river. He was found about half an hour afterward, about three hundred yards from where the accident took place. A verdict was rendered in accordance with the facts.

DIFFICULT.—The city officers meet with great difficulty in inducing coal, wood, lumber and hay sellers to keep their loads on Washington square, Eighth Ward.

The owners will permit in bringing them upon the streets that they may the more readily find purchasers. A load of hay and another of wood were marched, with their owners, to the City Hall the other day.

Both men pleaded that so far as the ordinance was concerned they were ignorant, and the Doctor, acting apparently on the principle that where a knowledge of law does not exist there is no intentional transgression, let them go "free."

PROVO.—Brother Albert Jones writes from Provo, July 18th:

"Senior John A. Logan is in our city. He visited Provo, Kansas, yesterday, in company with Col. L. J. Nuttall, Capt. J. P. R. Johnson and Warren N. Dusenbury. He expresses himself highly gratified with our improvements and our mountain scenery."

"President Brigham Young and company arrived here at 2:30 p.m. on the way to Payson to-day. It is expected there will be a large attendance at the dedication of the meeting house at Payson."

PROGRESS.—A correspondent writes from Beaver, July 10, and among other things says:—

"This will notify you that Beaver is not the quiet little city it once was. Two or at most three years ago, a child could roam at will any hour of the night. Now men are armed are unsafe."
