It is believed that the best of medical aid could not ave changed the result. George was at his friend's home. where he had gone to spend the day. The boys found the shot gun in the dshed and George was examining it when young Murray took the weapon and pulled up the hammers. The Gutke boy was sitting in the doorway of the shed when the shot rang out and he Whon pliched forward unconscious. When help came, the Murray boy was lying on the prostrate form of his companion, trying to stop the flow of blood.

Wright was hastily summoned but before he reached the scene the boy vas dead. The mother was driven almost fran tic with grief when she learned of the sad affair. A. F. Carelessness on the part of workmen in not closing the steam valve when they rumoved the radiator from the Star Grocery store resulted in a very painful if not really serious accident early yesterday morning. Roy Scheid, a young man, has been sleeping in the rear room of the grocery store pending the settlement of legal proceedings against the Star Grocery company. Saturday night he went to bed as usual and was awakened some time later by heavy pounding on the front doors of the store. The room was full of steam and in his haste to get to the door, the young man fell on his side and arm and was terribly scalded. He finally reached the door, where a number of people were gathered. These assisted him to a room in the Harmon block and Dr. Benedict was summoned. While not of a dangerous nature, the young man's wounds will require several weeks to heat, his side, arm and feet being terribly scalded. It seems when steam was turned on as usual, early yesterday morning, it es-caped from the open valve into the room. Much scalding water also leaked out and when the young man was awakened by persons who noticed the steam escaping through the doors and jumped from his bed there was at depth of three inches of water on the floor.

WANT THE BURLINGTON. Action Taken on Thursday Night by

Business Men of Laramie.

Just to show the Burlington officials where they stand, says the Laramie Boomerang, the business men of Laramit at the regular Thursday evening meeting last week passed a resolution, which, if adopted generally by the busi-ness men of the city will certainly have the desired effect of showing Laramie's good will toward a great railroad com-pany whose wonderful success in the upbuilding of the country through which it lays its rails has been noted and commented on by the press of the United States many times. It was resolved that the business men of Laramie would route all consignments of freight from points east of the Missouri river to that city over

Burlington lines to Omaha. The resolution was strengthened by the appointment of a committee of three instructed to interview stockmen and other shippers who send cat-tle, sheep, wool, etc., to eastern mar-kets and solicit their co-operation in favoring the Burlington system east ager of the Burlington system. This action on the part of the busi-ness men has been caused by the persistent rumors which have been persistent rumors which have been especially numerous lately to the ef-fect that the Burlington contemplated extending its line from Guernsey to Salt Lake City, and smaller railroad building enterprises, all of them re-ferring to Laramie prominently as the probable point where the big system will cross the tracks of the Union Pacific. FRIGHTFUL FATALITY.

One Eleven Year Old Boy Kills Another With a Shotgun.

Another, "I-didn't-know-it was-loaded," fatally occurred between 4 and 5 o'clock on Saturday afternoon at Camp's Lane, west of the city, with George Gutke, a lad of 11 years, the victim. He was shot to death by a double-barreled shot gun held in the hands of his playmate, Joseph Murray, 11 years old. The boys were playing with the old gun, ignorant of the fact that it was loaded until a sharp report rang out and the Gutke boy fell with a frightful wound in his shoulder that ranged down into the lungs. The gun was loaded with No. 2 bird shot and the little vis-

DELVECCHIO GUILTY.

He Will Receive His Sentence On October 28th.

The jury in the Delvecchio case, after weighing the evidence from noon till 5:30 o'clock on Saturday, returned a verdict of guilty of rape. Sentence will be pronounced on Monday, two weeks from today. The sentence for rape is from five years to life. The crime of which the nineteen-year-old Italian, Vedo Delvecchio, has been convicted is having on the night of Sunday, July 21st, criminally assaulted Bertha Westlind, a 17-year-old Swede servant girl, who was employed on the Cannon farm. Bertha and Josephine Edling, her roommate, were returning home to the farm late on Sunday night when they were followed up by the young Italian, who, after making in-decent proposals, assulted both of the girls, threatened them with a knife, and finally threw Miss Westlund to the ground, stunning her, while her friend ran off to secure help.
