

THIRD DISTRICT COURT OF IDAHO.

Resolutions of Respect.

On the 4th of June, A. D. 1878, a meeting convened in the office of Mr. Jos. C. Rich, deputy district attorney, consisting of the officers of the court, county officers and a number of the citizens of Bear Lake County, Idaho Territory.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. Joseph C. Rich, who stated the object of the meeting.

Gen. Charles C. Rich was appointed chairman. It appearing to the meeting that the Hon. Judge Prickett, of the Third District of the Territory of Idaho, now holding court in Paris, Bear Lake County, Idaho, had, by order of the Supreme Court, been assigned to the Second Judicial District of this Territory, and that the present is the last term of court to be held by the Hon. Judge previous to his departure, it was, on motion, resolved that a committee be appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the general feelings of the officers and citizens of the county concerning the present incumbent, the following gentlemen were appointed by the chair as said committee, viz:—Hon. William Budge, Joseph C. Rich, Esq., and James H. Hart, who reported the following resolutions:

Whereas, The Hon. H. E. Prickett, Judge of the Third Judicial District of the Territory of Idaho, has, by an order of the Supreme Court, been assigned to the Second Judicial District;

Resolved, That as officers and citizens of Bear Lake County and of the United States of America, we appreciate the honest and straightforward course of the honorable gentleman as judge of this district, and we believe his eminent, just and impartial proceedings and decisions to be worthy of admiration; and we endorse Judge Prickett as a good citizen, an able and impartial jurist and an honest man; and while we regret his removal from this judicial district, appreciating as we do, his sound judgment and correct interpretations of the law, we most sincerely wish the honorable judge unbounded success in his future labors on the bench, and that his judicial labors may always be as fully appreciated as by the officers and citizens of Bear Lake County.

2nd. Resolved, That the chairman of this meeting present the foregoing resolution, to the Court before its adjournment, and ask that it be entered on the minutes of the District Court of this session, and that the proceedings of this meeting be published in the DESERET NEWS, the Ogden Junction, Idaho Statesman and the Salt Lake Herald.

WM. BUDGE, JOSEPH C. RICH, JAMES H. HART, Committee.

C. C. RICH, Chairman. To which the Hon. H. E. Prickett responded as follows:

Mr. Chairman, Gentlemen of the Committee, County Officers and Citizens:

Your very complimentary resolutions were entirely unlooked for, and modesty compels me to say that they are more generous than my merits warrant, yet I would not have you think that I am indifferent to your good opinions and praise, entertaining the belief, as I do, that no person should be insensible to the opinions of others, I heartily thank you for this voluntary expression of your good will and esteem, and am highly gratified to be made the recipient of such testimonials.

When I came to this district as its presiding judge, I was fresh from the fields of active practice as an attorney whose duty to clients had been to examine most closely and prepare their side of a given case. On entering upon judicial duties, I found it necessary to school the mind to view questions impartially and in all their phases and bearings, and, rising above all personal considerations, with the law as my chart and guide, to make such rulings and render such decisions as the justice of the case in hand required. At the risk of laying myself liable to the charge of egotism, I will say that I am conscious of having endeavored to do this, and no more—no less. Mistakes and errors may, and probably have occurred, but if so they have been those "of the head and not of the heart." Here let me say, by way of advice, let us all, in our respective spheres, whether resting under the responsibilities of official position or occupying the walks of private life, pursue the line of duty as it comes to our knowledge, swerving neither to the right nor to the left; then we may rest assured that we shall have the good will and approbation of all whose opinions are worth caring for.

I desire on this occasion to express my thanks to the people of this county for the hospitable and uniformly kind treatment that I have received at their hands; also to the officers of the court for their respectful conduct and strict attention to duty during my official visits.

I take pleasure as requested in ordering your resolutions to be spread upon the minutes of the Court and I shall carry them with me and prize them highly as mementoes of your friendship and esteem.

WALTER HOGE, Deputy Clerk Third District Court. Paris, Bear Lake County, Idaho Territory, June 6, 1878.

Never Forget Anything.

Charge your mind with your duty. That is largely the true definition of faithfulness. Bad memory and mistakes are used as apologies a great deal oftener than necessary. A boy beginning business life will generally lose his place who pleads such an excuse more than once or twice.

A successful business man says there were two things which he learned when he was eighteen, which were afterwards of great use to him, namely, "never to lose anything, and never to forget anything." An old lawyer sent him with an important paper, with certain instructions what to do with it.

"But," enquired the young man, "suppose I lose it; what shall I do then?"

The answer was, with the utmost emphasis, "You must not lose it."

"I don't mean to," said the young man, "but suppose I should happen to?"

"But I say you must not happen to! I shall make no provision for any such occurrence. You must not lose it!"

This put a new train of thought into the young man's mind, and he found that if he was determined to do a thing he could do it. He made such provision against every contingency that he never lost anything. He found this equally true about forgetting. If a certain matter of importance was to be remembered he pinned it down on his mind, fastened it there and made it stay.—Youth's Companion.

Josh Billings.

Pills may sometimes fail to act on the liver, but sawing wood never will.

Make yourself necessary young man, and your success is certain.

Anger always hurts us more than the one we get mad at.

About as low down as a man can get and not spoil is to live on his wife's reputation.

Everybody seems to think himself a moral half bushel to measure the world's frailties.

I don't bet on precocious children; the huckleberry that ripens the quickest is the quickest to decay.

When you strike oil, stop boring; many a man has bored clean through and let the oil run out at the bottom.

Next in point of meanness to doing an injury is, is to do a man a favor, and every now and then remind him of it.

The man who is honest from policy needs as much watching as a hive of bees just ready to swarm.

VARIOUS CAUSES—advancing years, care, sickness, disappointment and hereditary predisposition—all operate to turn the hair gray, and either of them inclines it to shed prematurely. Ayer's Hair Vigor will restore faded or gray, light and red hair to a rich brown or deep black as may be desired. It softens and cleanses the scalp, giving it a healthy action, and removes and cures dandruff and humors. By its use falling hair is checked, and a new growth will be produced in all cases where the follicles are not destroyed or glands decayed. Its effects are beautifully shown on brashy, weak, or sickly hair, to which a few applications will produce the gloss and freshness of youth. Harmless and sure in its operation, it is incomparable as a dressing, and is especially valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts. It contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil or color white cambric; yet it lasts long on the hair, and keeps it fresh and vigorous. For sale by all dealers. 3.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE For CATARRH

A purely vegetable distillation entirely unlike all other remedies.

IN the preparation of this remarkable remedy every herb, plant, and bark is subjected to distillation, whereby the essential medical principle is obtained in vapor, condensed and bottled. What remains in the still is inert, valueless, and totally unfit for use in an organism so delicate as the nasal passages. Yet all snuffs are insoluble compounds of woody fibre; all tinctures, saturated solutions.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE

Is a local and constitutional remedy, and is applied to the nasal passages by insufflation, thus allaying inflammation and pain and at once correcting, cleansing, and purifying the secretions. Internally administered, it acts upon the organs of circulation, keeps the skin moist, and neutralizes the acid poison that has found its way into the stomach and thence into the blood. Thus acute progress in both directions, and it does not seem possible for human ingenuity to devise a more rational treatment.

SURPRISING CURE.

Gentlemen.—About twelve years ago, while travelling with Father Kemp's Old Folks Concert Troupe as a tenor singer, I took a severe cold and was laid up at Newark, N. J. This cold brought on a severe attack of Catarrh, which I treated with every known remedy for four weeks without avail, and was finally obliged to give up a most desirable position and return home, unable to sing a note. For three years afterwards I was unable to sing at all. The first attack of Catarrh had left my nasal organs and throat so sensitive that the slightest cold would bring on a fresh attack, leaving me prostrated. In this way I continued to suffer. The last attack, the severest I ever had, was terrible. I suffered the most excruciating pain in my head, was so hoarse as to be scarcely able to speak, and coughed incessantly. I thought I was going into quick consumption, and I firmly believe that had these symptoms continued without relief they would have rendered me an easy victim. When in this distressing condition, I commenced the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, very reluctantly, I confess, as I had tried all the advertised remedies without benefit. The first dose of this wonderful medicine gave me the greatest relief. It is hardly possible for one whose head aches, eyes ache, who can scarcely articulate distinctly on account of the choking accumulations in his throat, to realize how much relief I obtained from the first application of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE. Under its influence, both internal and external, I rapidly recovered, and by an occasional use of the remedy since, have been entirely free from Catarrh, for the first time in twelve years.

Respectfully yours,
