FRAGMENTS.

G. W. THATCHER, Esq., was down from Logan to-day.

One of the inmates of the Territorial Asylum at Provo, Major Trumbo, made his escape yesterday.

Tickets for the Young concert will be on sale at the Theatre box office, at 10 a. m. to-morrow.

FATHER HYMUS WINTERS, an old veteran in the church, is very ill at his home at Pleasant Grove.

A reward is offered for the recovery of a ladies' jacket which was lost on Saturday evening. See advt.

J. E. CLINTON, Esq., left for the east this morning in the interest of the Southern Utah Wool Growers' Association.

An order of return of real estate was made in the Probate Court yesterday, in the matter of the estate of John McGuire.

Another member has been added to the firm of White & Sons, butchers. Yesterday Mrs. D. H. White presented her husband with a fine boy.

Prof. STEPHENS' classes will resume their studies next week. Those who are musically inclined should make a note of this. See the Professor's advertisement in to-day's issue.

A SKITTISH horse created a little stir at the Wasatch block this afternoon, by backing the cart to which he was hitched into the ditch and tipping it over on a case of beer bottles, breaking quite a number.

A CORRESPONDENT states that Messrs. Clark Bros' theatre hall, at Pleasant Grove, is being crowded ahead finely. The rock work is almost finished. The building will be a credit to the town as well as to the proprietors.

SOME steps should be taken to prohibit target practice within the city limits. Yesterday a bullet from a small calibre rifle passed through the window of Dr. Bryant's rooms on Fifth Street. A little girl was standing at the window at the time and the bullet passed through the glass just over her head. The missile came from the direction of the Utah block. Unless this foolish practice is stopped, there will be a fatal accident some day.—Ogden Herald.

Notice to Secretaries. The secretaries of the Primary Associations of Salt Lake Stake are requested to send in their reports immediately. It is earnestly desired that every ward be reported. Address Miss Beattie Dean, No. 77 Peach Street, Salt Lake City.

Re-arrested.

W. N. Thomas, of Beaver Can on, whose discharge for unlawful cutting of timber on government lands was made by Commissioner Bixby last week as mentioned in the News, was re-arrested Monday on the same charge and bound over by Commissioner Fisher at Pocatello to await the action of the next grand jury. Mr. Thomas has instituted a damage suit of $2,500 against special land agent Temple for unlawful seizure and detention of lumber at his place. In these two important cases we shall soon see what we shall see.—Blackfoot (Idaho) News.

Visiting Tourists.

Yesterday we had a pleasant call from Senator John John and D. H. Gordon, Esqs., of Abilene, Kansas. The former is State Senator and the latter is connected with the Abilene Bank and other prominent institutions in that city. They have been in this city several days looking about and expressing themselves well pleased with the outlook. It is their intention to visit California and inspect some of the western booms before returning to their home in Kansas. We wish them bon voyage.

Kindergarten Classes.

The kindergarten training class began its fall term on Monday, Sept. 5th, at the Deceit University. The advance class will meet on each Saturday from 8 to 9 p. m. The beginning class will meet each Monday and Thursday from 8:30 to 9:30 p. m. In connection with the training class a model kindergarten class will also be formed of children from 3 to 10 years of age.

For further information apply to Mrs. M. E. Jones, 125 west Third South Street.

Retirement of Judge Henderson.

The Ogden Herald of this morning has an article in which the early retirement of Judge Henderson from the bench in Utah is intimated. The Herald, in that connection, reproduces the following from the Lansing Journal, a Michigan paper:

"It is altogether probable that the judge will retire from the bench in the course of a few months. He is suffering seriously of returning to Michigan and resuming the practice of his profession in Lansing. His best of friends in central Michigan, where he has won all his laurels as a successful lawyer, will rejoice to learn of his decision. Michigan County certainly has no warmer or better loved son."

A Friend's Crime.

On Sunday evening a terrible crime was committed at Sandy, Salt Lake County, the particulars of which, and the names of the parties, are withheld at the request of the officials, until after the examination, which was set for this afternoon, before the Justice of the Peace at Sandy, when County Attorney Moyle will appear for the prosecution. The defendant, who was arrested, is charged with having outraged a married lady, who was in delicate health. Her husband was absent from home at the time the awful crime was committed. If the charge be substantiated, speedy justice should overtake the perpetrator of the diabolical deed.

A Remarkable Well.

In the many artesian wells that have been driven in this vicinity, the variations in volume, temperature and quality of the water secured have been numerous, furnishing in various amounts, hot, cold, hard, soft, sulphur and other kinds of water while others produce quite a flow of natural gas. Perhaps the most remarkable well yet described is one recently sunk in the centre of Hooper's valley, north of this city. The citizens of that place have driven a number of wells in that vicinity varying in depth from 100 to 200 feet. Among others Mr. Henry Manning of that place drove one down about 150 feet which secured him a good flow of water. But the changes in this water have been most unaccountable. Ordinarily the water does not differ materially from that on the surface in the vicinity, but whenever the wind rises the water immediately changes its color to the complexion of milk. As the well is situated several miles from any large body of water, and as it was driven through two other distinct strata at different depths before reaching the present supply, Mr. Manning is at a loss to know what causes the changes.

SHOT HIS FATHER.

Fatal Result of a Drunken Spree at Stockton.

A deplorable event occurred at Stockton, Tooele County, yesterday afternoon. James Donelson, a young man who resides with his parents at Tooele City, was on a visit with them to other members of the family who were working in the mines at Stockton. Young Donelson was standing in the door of a saloon, and being somewhat excited owing to the influence of liquor he had been drinking, drew his pistol and fired it about his head. Mr. Donelson, Senior, was standing outside of the saloon. Some one called the constable to disarm the young man, and as the officer stepped up, the weapon in Donelson's hand was discharged, the bullet entering his father's body. The ball struck the unfortunate man just below the navel, ranging downward and passing entirely through the body. The wound inflicted was necessarily fatal. A physician was summoned, but gave no hope. Mr. Donelson died at 3 o'clock this morning, and his body was taken to Tooele City to-day for burial. He was sixty-one years of age last Saturday, and his reputation was that of a quiet, inoffensive citizen. The young man who fired the fatal shot is about twenty-five years of age, and is a native of the place. He is a member of the local militia and has been in the militia since he was a boy. There is nothing against his character except that occasionally he would get on a spree, as in this instance. The shooting was accidental, being the result of the reckless handling of the pistol by young Donelson when he was drunk.

SUNDAY SCHOOL MEETING.

Last Evening's Session of the Union Interests.

The Sunday school officers and teachers of the Salt Lake Stake held their regular monthly session on Monday evening, Sept. 5th. Representatives were present from all the city and a large number of country wards.

According to appointment the Fourth Ward Sabbath school choir, led by Brother Robert R. Irving, Jr., rendered the singing for the opening and closing of the meeting.

Brother Willford Smith, a teacher in the Fourth Ward school, delivered a brief address on the subject of Sabbath school teachers, showing in a plain manner, the responsibilities that rested upon them, and the importance of their faithfully performing their duties. He said there were many temptations placed before the youth. Evil was presented to them in many forms; and while these things were permitted, they might have the privilege of choosing for themselves between right and wrong, their teachers should not fail to benefit them by taking a proper course in life and rejecting all that is evil.

Three boys of the Fourth Ward Sunday School repeated a dialogue.

A song was then sung by the congregation.

Sister Annie Erickson, a teacher of the Fourth Ward Sunday school, read an essay on the "Formation and Influence of Character."

Master Wm. Irvine of the same school gave an address entitled "Forming Habits." He stated that the habits of a person are formed by the choices he makes in life. He said that the habits of a person are formed by the choices he makes in life. He said that the habits of a person are formed by the choices he makes in life.

PETTY OFFENDERS.

Who Receive Legal Enlightenment at the Bar of the Police Court.

Yesterday's lively business for Justice Piper continued over to-day, and quite a number of obstreperous individuals were made to feel the weight of the law.

Abraham Hunter, who was arrested on the complaint of P. J. Johnson, on the charge of battery, was brought yesterday afternoon to plead to the complaint. The complaining witness interposed and informed the Court, that he desired to withdraw the complaint. The Court looked at Johnson's disfigured countenance, the result of Hunter's pugilistic efforts, and suspecting there was something "crooked," refused to permit that course; whereupon Hunter pleaded guilty. The desire of Johnson that Hunter should not be prosecuted had the effect of causing the Court to let the accused off with a light fine of $15. The astonishment of the justice was greatly increased when Johnson drew out a $20 gold piece to pay the fine; but a light broke in on the transaction when a policeman remarked that Hunter had given Johnson the $20 to have the matter hushed up. The officer had known "Abe" of old.

This morning Richard Parsons, a soldier who had not been a "defender of his country," would have had to answer to the charges of drunkenness and trespass, was ordered turned over to the military, and was taken off by a detail sent to the Hall for him.

John Shields and Wm. McCarthy each pleaded guilty to having been drunk, and paid $5 for their diversion.

John Williams, for being drunk, profane and obscene, was fined $10. He will spend ten days at bur-picking, so that at the end of that time persons driven six feet in height may hope to be able to catch a glimpse of Pioneer Square from across the street.

An individual who gave his name last night as John Williams, but who wanted to be known as McDonald to-day, was arrested in company with the notorious Mrs. Passey, and held on the charge of lewd conduct. The couple alleged that they were husband and wife, but as there is no record of their marriage in the Probate Court, either the justice at Bligham, whom they said married them, failed to comply with the Edmunds law, or the twain have invented the story in the hope of keeping out of jail—most likely the latter. Their trial was deferred till this afternoon.

Robert McFarlane, "Liverpool," was convicted on the charge of vagrancy and petty larceny, the stolen property in the latter case being a pair of pants. The term given him for vagrancy was 90 days, while 60 days will satisfy the judgment on the other conviction. He will spend the next five months at the guard house, under the fatherly care of Guard Burton.

On motion of Mr. McCormick, the treasurer was instructed to give the subscribers ten days' notice of a meeting to organize a railway company. This meeting will be held at 8 p. m. on Thursday, Sept. 15, at the Chamber of Commerce building.

MASS MEETING CALLED.

The Chamber of Commerce Proposes to Cope with the U. P.

The Salt Lake Chamber of Commerce has issued the following call for a mass meeting of business men to-morrow evening:

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, September 6th, 1887.

The committee on railroads having utterly failed to secure from the Union Pacific Railroad any favorable consideration of the freight interests of our city, it has been considered imperative necessary to secure the cooperation of all our business men for the settlement of the difficulties which said committee has tried in vain to adjust and which weigh so heavily on our community. To the end that there, that concert of action may be secured, a meeting of all the members of the Chamber of Commerce, and the merchants generally, is hereby called for Wednesday, the 7th instant, at 8 o'clock, sharp, at the Chamber of Commerce building. It is earnestly hoped that all our business men will be present.

W. S. MCCORMICK, President.

M. J. FORAN, Assistant Secretary.

Brigham City.

A gentleman from this city happened to be in Box Elder's capital to hear the new organ in the Tabernacle there played for the first time. He returned in the highest praise of the appearance and tone of the instrument. He states that there seems to be quite a boom in the improvement line there. A number of very fine reed organs are going up and being sold. The court house has just been getting a new suit, in the shape of sanded paint, the work of Mr. M. Faulkner, which makes it look like another building entirely.

DEATH OF A MISSIONARY.

Elder Brigham W. Young dies in New Zealand.

On Saturday last, the 3d inst., Brother Lorenzo D. Young's family, who reside in the First Ward, this city, were shocked by the receipt of a telegram from San Francisco conveying the information that Brother Young's son, Elder Brigham W. Young, had died July 19th, in New Zealand, and that his remains had reached there. This was the first information the missionary's family had received that he had been seriously ill, though they were aware that his lungs were not strong.

Since the receipt of the telegram Brother Lorenzo D. Young has from Elder M. S. Marriott, dated Waikato, August 2d, 1887. The writer having been the companion of the deceased, gives particulars of his sickness and death. He was taken ill on July 8th with lung disease accompanied by a high fever. He grew steadily worse until the 19th, when he breathed his last, notwithstanding that all was done for him that could be by Elder Marriott and wife, with whom he was staying at the time.

Elder Marriott states that deceased was a straightforward, true, faithful and affectionate young man, and much esteemed by Morries and Europeans whose acquaintance he had formed while on his mission. He had begun to preach in the language of the natives, and was making good progress in his missionary labors. Elder Young often spoke of his parents, brothers and sisters, especially during his sickness, and requested Elder Marriott to write to his father "that his son died."

FIRM IN THE FAITH.

As he had lived, the young missionary further declared that he had kept himself pure, and his covenants inviolate, and that if God wanted him to, he was willing to go.

Elder Marriott and his wife were the only two persons from Utah who were with Elder Young at the time of his death, but after the event, other Utah Elders in the mission came to their assistance.

On July 22nd funeral services were held at Nubaks, the place of his demise, at the home of a native family. Next day the remains were conveyed to Waikato, from which point they were shipped for home on July 30th.

THE FOLLOWING TESTIMONIAL

from two native Saints, is enclosed in Elder Marriott's letter, by their request, being translated by him:

To the Parents and Relatives of B. W. Young.

As our departed friend has made his home with us while at the Waikato, we take the pleasure of writing you a few words.

We, in connection with the Saints of this branch, greatly deplore the departure of our friend and brother, and as he is about to depart for Zion we say unto him go in peace, although we greatly mourn his loss. Ourselves for him is like unto that of our own child. We send you a few tokens through our respect for our esteemed brother. If convenient we should like to hear a few words from you. From Bro. TOMA and his wife ELLEN.

Contemptible Conduct.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. Panter, of Cottonwood, was returning from a beautiful in company with her young sister in a single buggy, they were overtaken by three young men driving a wagon. The young men drove up alongside and abruptly bantered the occupants of the buggy for a race, to which they made no reply and turned their vehicle to the outside of the road in order to be out of the way. The young men drove their team across in front of the buggy, when the ladies turned their horse to the opposite side of the road. The young men repeated their antics by again driving their team in front, slowing up and at times stopping entirely in order to harass the ladies as much as possible. They kept this mode of operations up for about a mile. Another team driven by a small boy and belonging to one of the young men in the first wagon was behind the buggy, and when they had satisfied themselves by tormenting the ladies, they called to the boy to whip up his horses and come ahead, which he did. In passing the buggy he ran into one of the hind wheels of it breaking every spoke and throwing the inmates out in the road. The young men stopped, looked at the wreck, laughed and drove on, leaving the ladies helpless and miles from any acquaintances. Passers by on the road assisted in putting a pole under the axle and fixing up the outfit so it was brought to the city. The names of the parties guilty of this dastardly conduct cannot be ascertained but they ought to be identified and severely punished.

The Midland.

Our Pleasant Grove correspondent learns from Mr. Don C. Driggs, who arrived there by Saturday's D. & R. G. train from the Midland Railroad camps, that the work on the Midland Railway, so far as jobs are let, is almost finished up. But new work will be let along the White River this fall. The C. C. & I. Co. are building a branch road from Setank, 15 miles to coal mines. Messrs. Orman, Crook & Co. have a contract to construct the track to State line in Utah, 75 miles from the present terminus. The big tunnel between Leadville and Glenwood will be finished in about three weeks, when trains will move up to the latter place.

Mr. Driggs reports the most atmosphere of those camps as decidedly bad. Garbage in human shape is brought out from the east by the car load and dumped out to be employed as railroad hands. But they will not work more than a day or so when they pull out for better fields. It would be hard to imagine the depth of depravity to which these "chaws" will descend. They are "going West." Quite a number of Utah men are coming home. The outlook for future operations this fall is not very flattering at that way. The citizens in the vicinity of the Utah troubles were very much excited. This was Mr. Driggs' first trip from home. He feels glad to be once more among family and friends; the contrast is quite agreeable.
