LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THE BLONDES.—The popularity of the Blondes continues undiminished, the performance last evening being the best yet given. Miss Heathcote, Miss Thompson and Messrs. Beckett and Chapman in the farce set the audience in the exact mood to receive one of the most popular and successful burlesques of the day. "The 40 Thieves," as it was produced last evening by the "British Blondes," was as fine a performance as we have witnessed for a long time. The singing, dancing and mirthful puns were well received. Rose Massey was indeed the bravest of robbers, but Miss Weatherby, as the faithful slave, "Morgiana," was the feature of the evening. Her bright, piquant and graceful manner during the entire piece, received a large share of well-merited applause. Miss Heathcote and Messrs. Keckum, Beckett and Chapman contributed largely to the success of the piece.

Mr. Schreiner and the Orchestra also deserve great praise for their brilliant execution of the difficult music incidental to the burlesque.

The following from the "Nursery Rhymes," brought down the entire house, the parquette and first, second and third circles joining in the most uproarious laughter.

"A Doctor had visions of assassination, Through being bitten by a bull dog pup; He thought it required a trip to the East, So he packed up his things and cut."

To-night the great burlesque of "Toll," abounding in local hits, puns, splendid music, &c., &c. Go, everybody, and have a splendid time. Remember it is the last night but two of this famous troupe.

UNUSUAL.—The weather in the southern portion of the Territory continues unusually hot. Two cases of sun-stroke occurred at Fillmore lately.

FRIOTFUL.—During one day last week there were seventy-one cases of sunstroke reported in New York, of which the newspapers got an account, forty-six of which proved fatal!

THE IMMIGRATION.—The following paragraph came over the wires of the Western Union line this morning:

"Two hundred and eighty Mormons have arrived per the steamer Manhattan, from Europe, en route to Salt Lake. Four hundred more follow in the Minnesota."

The following dispatch from Elder W. C. Staines, was received by President Young this morning:

"Now York, 27.
BRIGHAM YOUNG:
Manhattan company has arrived; leave this morning. All well.
W. C. STAINES."

MEETING OF LAND OWNERS.—Hay is being cut in the Seventh Ward pasture by the owners of land, and it is expected that they will be so far advanced with this work in a few days as to admit of stock being turned in there. The feed is said to be very fine, and it will afford a fine range for the stock of the land owners. To make proper arrangements, therefore, for turning in the stock it has been thought best by the committee to have a meeting of all who are interested in the pasture at 7.30 on tomorrow (Friday) evening, at the 14th Ward schoolhouse. It is absolutely necessary that parties owning land there, and who wish to receive benefit from the pasture, should attend, as none will be allowed to turn in stock unless they have arranged for tickets with the committee.

MR. BECKETT.—We were pleased to receive a call from Mr. Harry Beckett, to-day, the manager of Beckett's British Blonde Troupe, who was the bearer of a letter of introduction to us. We were surprised to find that he was so young a man; we had supposed, from the reputation of Mr. Beckett in the theatrical world, that he was a much older man. To find a man so young in years with a reputation so well established shows, as plain as anything else can do, that he is a man of more than ordinary ability in his profession. We wish him and his troupe a pleasant and profitable sojourn among us.

THE "MONSTER" AGAIN.—Bro. Milando Pratt has just reached this city from Rich county. While traveling on the borders of the Lake, to the south of Fish Haven, on the evening of last Tuesday week, in company with Thomas, son of Elder C. C. Rich, conversation turned on the "monster," in whose existence Bro. Pratt had never believed. They each said how gratified they should be by a sight of his scullion. They had not traveled far before their attention was attracted by an unusual commotion in the waters of the lake, and looking in the direction they presently saw the head and a portion of the body of a creature larger round than the body of a man, the head resembling somewhat the pictorial representations of the walrus, minus the tusks. The portion of the body out of the water was about ten feet long. Several shots were fired, but missed the creature. It swam away in the direction of the east side of the Lake, its track being marked by a wavy, serpentine motion. Its entire length was apparently about forty feet. The young men had a view of this denizen of the deep for about fifteen minutes.

Bro. Pratt informs us that one enterprising citizen, determined if possible to capture one of these animals, has a large rope, to which is attached a very strong hook well baited, tied round a stout tree, so that we shall no doubt hear before long that the Bear Lake "monster" is caught at last.

THE MAILS AT FILLMORE.—Some days ago we published a synopsis of the complaints of "Junius" in relation to mail matters at Fillmore. Yesterday morning we received a communication on the other side of the question, written at Fillmore, by Mr. John Kelly, on the 24th. There are always two sides to a story, and having given space to one we shall do so to the other. Mr. Kelly says:

"I perceive from the EVENING NEWS that some one under the nom de plume of 'Junius' has been making serious complaints respecting the manner in which postal matters are conducted here. I think it would be a hard matter for 'Junius' or any one else to show that any previous postmaster of this place ever attended to his duties more faithfully than does the present incumbent. True, he has recently adopted the practice to give out mail matter only within stated hours, viz: from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m., every lawful day, and on Sunday from 12 m. to 4 p.m. I would ask could any person, on reflection, expect a postmaster to keep his office open every hour of the day and night? As to parties having to wait twelve or sixteen hours longer than is necessary for their mail matter, I would simply say, such a statement can be substantiated only in this way: The northern mail sometimes arrives after business hours, as for instance, it came in last night at 8 o'clock. Then the postmaster has to make up the southern mail, which departs the same evening. In such cases can we blame the postmaster because he does not deliver the mail matter until next morning, or if it be Sunday, until noon? A postmaster's duties are at best, rather arduous, and they have often to attend to business at unreasonable hours, and I think the public whom they serve, and frequently for a very small remuneration, should be just and not impose upon them burdens which they themselves would be unwilling to bear."

"Let us not murmur without a cause."

Wied.
