

LET THE BAIRNIES PLAY.

Oh! let the bairnies play themselfs,
I like to hear their din,
I like to hear each restless foot
Come trippin' oot and in.
I like to see each face sue bright,
And each wee heart sue gay;
They mind me o' my noo young days—
Oh! let the bairnies play.

Oh! dinna check their sinless mirth,
Or make them dull and wae
Wi' gloomy looks or cankered words,
But let the bairnies play.
Auld duncie folk should ne'er forget
They ance were young as they,
As fu' o' fun and mischief, too—
Then let the bairnies play.

And never try to set aheid,
Wi' auld age grim and gray.
Upon a wee saft snawy neck—
No! let the bairnies play.
For, oh! there's mony a weeny nicht
And mony a wae'f' day
Before them, if God spare their lives—
so let the bairnies play.

PAROWAN POINTS.

PAROWAN April, 26, 1887.

Two old time residents of Parowan were gathered in this morning—Edward Ward and Nells O. Mortensen—by Deputies Thompson, McGarry, Nowers and others.

The "crime" charged is the usual one of acknowledging their wives and families and not being "like the rest of us."

No other news of importance. Very dull times. A few faces of the brethren are conspicuous for their absence, and no doubt some children would be glad to see their fathers. However, the wicked will not rule for ever.

ALEXANDER MATTHEWS.

Provo, April 29.

THE FIRST DISTRICT COURT

ends the term to-day, and will begin in Ogden on Monday. A batch of convicts are to be sent to the penitentiary this afternoon, as a winding-up scene—Reuben McBride for murder, Geo. J. Perry, Joseph Clark and Jas. Smith, for unlawful cohabitation, and probably some others.

The Tintie lynchers are to receive sentence on the 14th of May. A motion for a new trial will probably be made.

The Court decided that defendants may have the surplus water, in the case of Miller vs. Price.

In the divorce case of Higginson vs. Higginson, of Santaquin, the divorce will be allowed and the complainant (Maria Higginson) receive a good share of the property.

Orlando Herrin and William Wadley, indicted for unlawful cohabitation, pleaded not guilty upon arraignment.

Mr. Thurman will argue a motion for a new trial in the case of the U. S. vs. Jos. Clark to-day. The jury have twice found him guilty.

A MASS MEETING of the citizens of Provo was held in the court house last evening. Mayor Dusenberry was called to the chair, and Rev. F. R. Lincoln acted as secretary, for the purpose of taking action as to the Colorado, Utah & Midland R. R. coming via Provo.

Judge Dusenberry moved that it be the sense of the citizens of this municipality to offer every inducement in their power for the Colorado, Utah & Midland Railway to locate here. One point is that nature has placed in our vicinity an easier grade than by way of Salt Lake, and we want to urge them to come here.

Mr. Reed Smoot endorsed the remarks of Judge Dusenberry and for one would be pleased if the City Council would donate the old adobe yard for work shops and the west square for a depot, and assist them in a right way, etc.

W. C. A. Smoot said we should meet together and show them that there is a spirit of enterprise here; let them know we are wide awake in this matter.

Mr. A. A. Noon had seen the first rail laid in different countries, and they were all encouraged under the advance and freedom of the age.

Mr. George Kenn said he had received a letter a few days ago from Colorado, from a business man there, that the road would come to Provo, and they expected to establish work-shops, etc., here.

Mr. Dan Jones, S. S. Jones and others made remarks, and the chairman announced that there would be no difficulty in getting a right of way from the month of Provo Canyon into the city. The question was put and carried unanimously.

Mr. J. C. Graham moved that a committee of four be appointed to confer with the railroad men on the matter. Amended to seven as follows: Judge W. N. Dusenberry, A. A. Noon, Reed Smoot, J. C. Graham, S. S. Jones, George Sutherland and George H. Abbott.

It is said that ninety-eight women recently descended upon a saloon in Ellsworth, Illinois, and persuaded the proprietor to close. They did not descend to entreaty nor rely upon prayer after the manner of the crusade, but they smashed in his barrels and bottles and wrecked the bar by splitting it into kindling wood. The saloon man was no fool. He could take a hint, and so he closed up his shop.

CORRESPONDENCE.

SALT LAKE CITY, April 26, 1887.

Editor Deseret News:

I desire, through your columns, to commend the services of Sister Humphries, of our city, to those who may be unfortunate enough to need such help as she can afford. One of my little girls was afflicted with dropsy; my wife and I did the best we could for her, but the disease became so serious that we called in medical aid. The medicines failed to effect any favorable change, and the physician (than whom none hereabouts has a better reputation) intimated that our little one could not recover. Hearing of Sister Humphries' success in dropsy cases, we sought her services. She came; and this I do know, that my little daughter presented a most pitiable sight; that Sister Humphries worked faithfully with her, and that, with the blessing of the Lord, our little girl, who had been given up as a hopeless case, is now hearty and well.

BOX ELDER STAKE CONFERENCE.

BRIGHAM CITY,

April 26th, 1887.

Editor Deseret News:

The Box Elder Stake Quarterly Conference was held in the Tabernacle at this place April 23d and 24th, President O. G. Snow presiding.

The meetings were very well attended. We had highly instructive addresses from Apostles L. Snow and John H. Smith. Hon John T. Calne, our Delegate, addressed the Saints both days on unity, politics, fidelity to God, our religion and to one another; he gave the Saints some assurance that the vicious and vindictive course which has been pursued by the U. S. officials of the Territory in prosecuting offenders of the Edmunds law was not approved by the national authorities at Washington; this law, however, would continue to be enforced, but not with that rash and persecuting spirit as in the past.

The wards were represented as usual and reports were rendered of their spiritual, financial and sanitary conditions, which were gratifying. The statistical reports of the Stake and Sunday Schools were read. The general Church authorities and local Stake authorities, were presented, and all were unanimously sustained. Hon. O. G. Snow, President of the Church Association of this Stake, presented a resolution conferring authority on its board of directors to sell or otherwise dispose of certain personal property of the association. On motion it was unanimously adopted.

Apostle John H. Smith's remarks were directed to our everyday life. Precept and example, pride and humility, waywardness and the penitent's return to his father's counsel, were interestingly presented, leaving wholesome impressions on the minds of all. Apostle Lorenzo Snow pointed out some of the changes which time had wrought in the Church since he was ordained an Apostle. That time would still continue to roll on, changes according to Divine Providence take place, and the youth of Zion would shortly fill the places of Israel's veterans, who would soon pass away.

A very pleasing feature of our conference was that of the congregation rising to their feet and joining with the choir in singing some of the soul-inspiring songs of Zion.

JAMES RYBATER, Stake Clerk.

Born in Hawkins County, Tennessee, December 23, 1803; baptized May 30th, 1843, by Elder Zachariah Wilson; was a member of the Nauvoo Legion and a missionary with the Emmet Company; came to Utah 1850; settled in North Ogden, and afterwards was the first settler in Ogden Valley. By desire of his son, Isaac Riddle, he removed south to Kanosh about thirteen years since. He was a man of solid faith in the Gospel, sound in principle, and respected by his neighbors, and was a great worker up to the day of his death. On the morning of the 12th, after eating his breakfast of bread, butter and honey, he complained of pain in his chest, and sent for the writer and another member of the High Priests' quorum (to which he belonged) and requested them to bless him, talking and reading conference news, he occasionally making comments, until about 4:30 p. m., when he walked from his chair, laid himself on the bed, gathered up his feet, and died while he held his hands. Would that all could die as free from pain and fear as this ripe old seaf.—[COM.]

He was baptized and confirmed a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints by his cousin, John S. Car-

GENTS:—I purchased from your house last July, one of the J. I. Case Threshers of the California style. I consider that the principle of concaves in this machine is so arranged that they clean the grain like a man would by rubbing between his hands. This grain is cleaned before it reaches the teeth, and will be cleaned even if damp, just as well. The elevator is one of the greatest saving arrangements that I have ever seen; it is finer, closer and prevents the straw and lucern from dropping and clogging as in other machines. This elevator did not clog on me once last year. There are many other small points that I would take pleasure in explaining to any one calling on me. I say after long experience with Threshers, that the Case California Attachment Machine is a World Beater.

GENTS:—I have given your South Bend Reversible Shear Chilled Plow a thorough test. I have no hesitation in recommending it as a wonderful invention, worthy of all the points of excellence claimed for it, having four points with each plow instead of two, makes it an economical plow. The ease with which I can interchange the point by the uncraving of one single bolt hook, makes it so simple; then it has not a bolt-head or hole on its face. The "Modern Marvel" is a wonder.

Yours truly,

GEORGE H. STEED,

ds&w Farmington.
