THE DESERET NEWS.

AND PONY EXPRESS.

FROM THE ATLANTIC STATES.

The Pony Express from the east arrived here on Monday shortly after ten o'clock, with advices up to the 25th.

There was nothing very interesting in the dispatches received. To keep up the chain of connection, we subjoin the following summary.

Mr. Sherman appeared in the Senate on the 23d, and took his seat as Senator from Ohio. The Senate had done nothing but consider Douglas' resolution, and speechify over the election of a few officers.

THE SOUTHERN FORTS.

The following nominations had been made for the Territory of Colorado: Wm. Gilpin, governor; Lewis Wells, secretary; B. F. Hall, of New York, chief justice; S. Newton Pettis, of Penn., and Chas. Lee Ashbur were made associate judges; Copeland Townsend, marshal; Wm. L. Stoughton, of Michigan, attorney; Francis M. Case, of Ohio, surveyor general. Marsh E. Dunnell, of Maine, consul at Vera Cruz. J. R. Gidding, of Ohio, for consul general to British North America; Mr. Farmer, minister to Equador.

H. J. Raymond, of the Times, was spoken of as consul to Paris.

CONFIRMATIONS.

The Senate had confirmed E. W. Leavenworth, commissioner to New Grenada, and Chas. W. Davis, of Maryland, secretary; Calvin Huson, of New York, commissioner to Fort Sumter had not yet been evacuated, Costa Rica: Chas. Howe, collector at Key and no order to that effect was known. A West, and Samuel Long, consulto Lahina, and Washington correspondent of the New York Thomas Corwin having withdrawn his decli-Herald reports that inconsistencies in the dis- nation had been confirmed as minister to patches of Major Anderson, before and after Mexico; General Nye, governor of Nevada; the inaugural, had led to whisperings in ex- Rufus King, minister to Rome; Bradford R. game, minister to Austria; Elisha O. Crosby, minister to Guatemala; John O. Putnam, to Hartstien, had visited Major Anderson, but Havre; Freeman H. Morse, consul to London; Joseph H. Anderson, of Ohio, consul to Ham-

FOREIGN.

European dates had been received up to the 6th of March.

The London Times says the new tariff bill of the United States established protective duties on a most extravagant scale and the result would be an almost absolute prohibition of imports from Europe and would be more detrimental to the interests of America than of Europe.

Perfect tranquility had been restored in Warsaw after serious political disturbances, of which details are not yet given. Warsaw presented a gloomy appearance; over 100,000 people attended the funeral of those killed in some late disturbance. Troops were kept in the barracks, and everything was orderly.

A petition had been signed for the re-establishment of the Polish Constitution.

The Russian serf emancipation question was to be settled during Lent.

The Denmark and Holstein question had elicited the interference of England, France and Russia.

The bombardment of Jovitilla commenced on the 20th.

Gen. Fergola notified Gen. Cialdini that the works commenced against the Citadel were a violation against the Convention between Pin and Garibaldi, and he would bombard the city. Cialdini responded that for every inhabitant killed he would order an officer of the garrison of the citadel shot, and that he considered Fergola a rebel.

From Correspondents.

By last mail, a letter was received from Elder John L. Smith, dated at Geneva, Switzerland, February 11th, at which place he arrived on the 4th of January last, and succeeded Elder Jabez Woodward in the Presidency of the Swiss and Italian missions. His health, which had not been good during his journey over the plains, through the States and across the ocean to Liverpool, was improving.

Elder Muller, from the Valley, was laboring in Germany, Elder Gerber, in Canton Bern, and Elder Ballif, in Cantons Neuchatel, Vaud and Geneva. They met with much opposition; but the work was progressing steadily, and the Elders were baptizing more or less every week.

The mission included about 700 Saints, many of whom were preparing to emigrate to Utah the present season, under the direction of Elder Woodward. The times were unusually hard, many were out of employ, faetories were closing up business, and the prospects for the future were gloomy-a general European war at no distant day appearing to. be inevitable. The Elders, both American and native, were laboring faithfully to warn the people, while they had opportunity. We have also recently received a letter from Elder George F. Hendry, written from Pomeroy, Meigs County, Ohio, on the 18th of February, in which he states that he left this city with the company of missionaries on the 27th of Sep., and arrived at that place on the 21st of November last, in poor health, having been afflicted with ague and colds during the entire journey. His health had somewhat improved. He was kindly received by his relatives and old acquaintances in that place, and also James Graham, who was found guilty of on the opposite side of the Ohio river, in Vir-ocutive circles that the Major might be in Wood, minister to Denmark; Anson Burlincomplicity with the secessionists.

Dr. Fox, of the navy, accompanied by Capt. the nature of his mission was unknown.

The Charleston Courier of the 21st reported burg; Francis H. Moody, receiver of public that Major Anderson was in daily expecta- money at Little Rock; Lieut. Horduff, assisttion of receiving orders to evacuate the fort. ant adjutant general, with rank of captain. The supply of provisions and fuel was nearly A number of post-masters had also been conexhausted, and if he was not speedily relieved, firmed, among whom was Sydney F. Fonderhe would be compelled to burn some of the hurst for Pittsburg; also W. H. F. Gurley, gun carriages. He states, says the Courier, attorney for Iowa, and Geo. A. Norse, for that the fort would be given up up the South Minnesota; C. F. Burk, marshal for Minne-Carolina authorities, after examination by sota; H. Harris, marshal for Iowa; A. C. authorized officers, and their receipts taken Sands, marshal for southern district of Ohio. for the property.

On the following day, the same paper notices the arrival of Ex-Congress-man Holmes, who said that Mr. Seward desired him to say to the people of Charleston that he was for a peaceful settlement, and would do everything in his power for an amicable arrangement; also, that Gen. Scott gave similar assurances; the President favored such a policy, and a majority of the cabinet desired the evacuation of Pickens, as well as Sumter.

It was rumored that Col. Lamon had been sent to Fort Sumter by the President with the order to Major Anderson for its evacuation, in case Col. Lamon should find, after careful inspection, that evacuation was unavoidable. If not, he was not to deliver the order.

The cabinet was reported to have had under consideration dispatches from Lieut. S'emmer. which stated that, unless supplied with provisions soon, he would have to abandon Fort Pickens. Gen. Bragg, in command of the Confederate forces near Pickens, had issued a proclamation prohibiting all vessels furnishing supplies to vessels off Pensacola or Pickens, under a forfeiture and confiscation. He had notified Slemmer that supplies could not be landed at the fort, unless by permit of Prest. Jeff. Davis.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The evidence in the Armstrong court martial case indicated that there was sufficient force to defend the Pensacola navy yard at the time of its surrender.

The President's first levee was crowded; all the foreign ministers were in attendance.

The government had received information of a plot to revolutionize California and Oregon, implicating Gen. Johnston and other officers.

The vessels chartered by government which recently sailed southwardly, took sealed orders.

There had, as yet, been no determination for an extra session of Congress.

The President had submitted to the Senate a proposition of the British government to refer the San Juan question to the arbitracy of some foreign government. The committee on foreign relations recommended Switzerland. Thirty-five mail bags had been burned on a train on the Pennsylvania Central railroad. They were St. Louis, Louisville, Cincinnati, Toledo, Columbus, Pittsburg, Philadelphia and Washington bags. The Harrisburg mail was saved. The baggage of eighty passengers had also been destroyed. The accident occurred near Altona, the train having run off the track. The Southern commissioners had received advices that affairs looked more peaceable, and that collision was almost impossible. Senators Mason and Hunter had gone to Virginia to urge immediate secession. The Georgia State convention adjourned on the 23d. They adopted a State constitution, to be ratified or rejected by the people, at the next July election. The administration was shortly expected to reply to the Southern commissioners, stating that it had no power to treat with them, and they could be regarded only as gentlemen representing a dissatisfied people, but would refer them to the next Congress. Holloway could not be confirmed as commissioner of patents, and his name would probably be withdrawn.

Count Cavour had brought under the notice of the governments of Europe the necessity of settling the Roman question.

Popular demonstrations were constantly taking place at Rome.

Extension of Executive Clemency.

larceny in the Probate court for Weber coun- ginia, although the most of them were greatly ty, sometime last fall, and sentenced to the opposed to the principles of the Gospel, and penitentiary for one year, soon after being did not wish to hear him say anything about incarcerated, made an ineffectual attempt his religion. He had preached about thirty to regain his freedom by suing out a writ of times in that vicinity and some were believhabeas corpus, alleging that he was unlaw- ing, among whom was his brother; but none fuily restrained of his liberty. Failing to ob- had been baptized. tain that which he sought after in that | The majority of the people on both sides of instance, he next, in company with five the river were much interested in the revoluothers, effected his escape from prison, some tionary movements that were being made, and six weeks ago, and, for a time, was supposed men of all classes expressed a determination to have left the country; but subsequently, to fight for their principles-slavery and antiby the advice of some of his friends, he re- slavery, in the event no compremise was turned to the penitentiary and sued out an- effected between the contending factions, and other writ of habeas corpus before Chief war should ensue, which was by far, the most Justice Kinney; but, on being brought before probably result. the Judge in chambers, on the return of The coal oil fever was raging ex ensively in the writ by the Warden, his attorneys failed that part of the country, and there were not a few who said, if they could only get an oil we'l on their farms, they did not care whether the Union should be broken in pieces or not, and, if they could only make money, they did

The Brooklyn, St. Louis, Sabine and Wyandotte were off Pickens.

MISSOURI.

On the 22d of March the Missouri Convention adjourned till the 16th December, previously providing for the holding of another Convention, should any emergency arise in which such a measure shou'd be deemed expedient, previous to the time specified. The Convention elected seven delegates to attend any Border Convention, should one be called by Virginia. The communication from Georg a to the Convention was unfavorably reported on as Missouri was unfavorable to her own aecession.

TEXAS.

The Texas Legislature met on the 18th, involve so much expense as his doings have coach came along the next day, thus by climbing one mountain on one day and the other when the House and Senate took the oath of incurred within the last six months. allegiance to the new government, a few on the next, he would better endure the fa-Col. Barbour, superintendent of Harper's No BEEF IN MARKET .- Most of the meat tigue attending their ascent through the deep. members doing so under protest. Gov. Hous-Ferry armory, had resigned. Markets in this city, of which there are too snow that had recently fallen, than by passton and the Secretary of state, retired and The N. Y. Commercial's Washington dismany, have been recently closed up, because ing over both in the same day. surrendered the archives. Houston had pubpatch states that Mr. Seward had written a there were no beef eattle to be bought-as A journey over the mountains and across lished an appeal to the people, denouncing letter to the southern commissioners, reviewing alleged. What has become of all the beef the plains to the Missouri river, at this stormy the Convention. The latter body passed a the entire grounds of the misunderstanding, merchants? season of the year, is attended, at best, with substitute to the army bill, raising only one and closing with the recommendation of a considerable hardship and fatigue, as to make mounted regiment. WHAT IS WANTED .- A few cords of wood, time, the stage has to be kept in motion alnational convention. NOMINATIONS. The N. Y. Herald's Montgomery corres- and a load or two of hay, are absolutely most continually, night and day. Chas. D. Wilson, of the Chicago Journal, had been nominated Secretary of Legation to pondent states that the Southern confedera- needed by the hands engaged in the News Our best wishes accompany the Judge and London; William S. Pennington, of N. J., tion would be recognized by France and office, before Conference, and either before or his fellow travelers for as pleasant and as secretary of legation to Paris, and John J. Spain. There was as yet no confirmation of after, two or three fine pigs would not be re- comfortable a trip as the season and circumfused on subscription accounts. stances will permit. Edgar, of Tenn., consul to St. Thomas. the report.

to make it appear to the satisfaction of his Honor that the imprisonment was illegal, and no relief was extended to the petitioner, who then, after all the kind offices of his friends, and the payment by them of heavy not care whether there was peace or war in fees to attorneys for services in the premises the land. had failed to produre his release, had but one chance left for obtaining his liberty before the expiration of his term of imprisonment, and that was to obtain a pardon from the Governor. No time was lost in getting up rence, and W. S. Godbe, of this city, were and circulating a petition to His Excellency passengers by the last eastern mail coach, Governor Cumming, praying for the extension which left for St. Joseph on Friday last .of his pardoning prerogative to the unlncky, Judge Kinney is returning to his family in Nebut persevering, young man, and, although the braska to remain during the summer. Mr. prayer was not very numerously signed, it Lawrence is on business connected with the was, upon due consideration, favorably an- mercantile firm of J. B. Kimball & Co., of swered and, on presentation of the Govern- which he is a member, and Mr. Godbe is exor's letters patent to the Warden, on the pecting to visit London before his return. afternoon of the 27th ult., the prison doors opened and Graham walked out, to his own the Little and Big Mountains, which the joy and that of his friends, if not of others. we know nothing, but presume that his sen- on Thursday in a special coach, accompanied tence was just and that, whatever his procliv- by one or two others, intending to reach ities may have been, he will now betake himself Hank's station at the foot of the Big Mounto some employment that will not be likely to tain that night and remain there till the mail

Departure for the East.

Hon. Chief Justice Kinney, H. W. Law-

In anticipation of having to walk up both Judge thought would be too much leg service Of the guilt or innocence of the individual, for him to perform in one day, he left the city