STREET CARS TO OGDEN CANYON

Rapid Transit Extension to Sanitarium Now Completed—Regular Service Begins Sunday.

WILL SELL UNUSED BUILDINGS

School Board Has no Further Use for Broom's Bench and Chipp's Schoolhouses.

Ogden, June 30.—The extension of the Ogden Rapid Transit company's car line to the mouth of Ogden canyon and the sanitarium has been completed, and the first trip to be made over the route will be run this afternoon, when a complimentary ride will be given the business and newspaper men of the city, and it is expected the regular service will begin tomorrow morning at 6:45 o'clock.

The company has decided to make the fare to the canyon from any part of its lines but 5 cents, or 10 cents for the round trip, with a 30 minute very stop. This will no doubt be one of the most popular lines in the city, as it affords a very pleasant ride along the Ogden river, with some good scenery, providing easy access to the mouth of Ogden canyon, one of the loveliest canyons in the country. Not alone should this route be popular for local passenger traffic, but hundreds of tourists will avail themselves of the ride to the canyon in order to get a view of the magnificent scenery, while they are waiting between trains. They will also have an opportunity to visit the sanitarium, which is one of the best health bathing places in the west, having the warm mineral water which possesses exceptional medicinal properties. Just when the company will extend its lines through the canyon is uncertain.

MEETING OF SCHOOL BOARD.

Decides to Sell Sites and Buildings at Broom's Bench and Chipp's.

Ogden, June 30.—At a meeting of the board of education held last evening the board decided to sell the school sites and buildings at Broom's Bench and Chipp's, as the same are not used for school purposes. Asael Farr was appointed to negotiate the sales.

The matter of having the annual report printed was referred to the supply committee.

The building committee reported the work on the Lewis school as progressing very slowly, on account of the contractor being unable to get a sufficient supply of the kind of stone desired.

The clerk was instructed to renew the contract with the Remington Typewriter company for machine for use in the schools during the coming year.

When J. E. Retherford left the school without fulfilling his contract, and giving the board sufficient notice, he decided to hold back $200 of his salary. At the meeting last evening the differences were adjusted by the board agreeing to pay him $25 if he will accept in full.

The finance committee reported having received $131 from all sources during the past week. The resignation of Miss Inez Kitchen was accepted. Henry De Bruy was appointed janitor at the Madison school during the summer at a salary of $10 per month. Eight applications for positions as teachers were received, and ordered filed.

POLICE COURT BUSINESS.

Cases of Many Delinquents Heard by Judge Murphy.

Ogden, June 30.—Judge Murphy had a heavy police judge yesterday. At 4 o'clock in the afternoon the case of Ogden City against John Lynch, and John Lynch, the two prisoners who brutally assaulted Guard Thomas Lever in the corridor of the city jail, came on for trial. The prisoners both entered a plea of not guilty. The evidence of Mr. Lynch, Officer Layne, who was bitten on the fingers by Lynch; Sergeant Pincock and Toul was heard, they testifying as to Mr. Lynch's conduct. The evidence of Mr. Lynch, they testified to on him and kicked him in the face. The court found the men guilty as charged and sentenced each one to serve a term of 30 days on the rock pile, with the admonition that they must obey the prison rules or suffer the consequences. Officer Layne's fingers are very sore where they were bitten.

A fine of $54 was imposed by the court on Wung Wah, a Chinese gardener who lives near the Ogden river bridge, for having given beer to two small boys named Hansen and Poulsen, for having permitted them to take a few "pulls" on his opium pipe. He admitted his guilt.

Joseph Carr and a colored woman were up before his honor on a charge of immorality, and were found guilty. Carr will serve 30 days in the city jail and the negro 10 days.

John Miller, who was charged with carrying a dangerous weapon on May 25, near Thirty-second street and Pacific avenue, Miller, a large colored man, was up before his honor on a charge of carrying a dangerous weapon. The evidence produced by the prosecution was insufficient to warrant a conviction, and the court discharged the defendant.

Barlo Ferrado and Ed Bell were found guilty of fighting and disturbing the peace of the residents of Grant avenue Thursday, and were fined $10 each, which they paid.

Several drinks and vags were given light sentences.

LADY INJURED IN ROAD ACCIDENT.

Mrs. Cowles, while driving home to Harrisville in a buggy, met with quite a serious accident, caused by the horse getting frightened at a box lying in the wagon road. When the horse came close to the box, it lunged to one side, throwing Mrs. Cowles forward against the front of the vehicle, and a blood-vessel in one of her legs was broken, which bled profusely. On her arrival home the flow of blood could not be stopped with ordinary remedies, hence Dr. C. A. Dickson was sent for, and succeeded in stopping the bleeding.

FRANCIS-LORD ENGAGEMENT.

Miss Elizabeth Francis, sister of Editor Frank Francis of the Ogden Standard, who for a number of years has been society editor and proofreader on the paper, has tendered her resignation, which goes into effect tonight, and Miss Bertha Stone, a well-known young schoolteacher, has been appointed to fill the vacancy.

Miss Francis will be married the early part of July to Mr. Walter N. Lord, a popular employee of the depot commissary department, and formerly with the Pacific Express company. The prospective bride and groom are among PRETTY HOSPITAL ROMANCE.

Miss Amelia Robins, who has been employed as nurse at the Ogden General hospital, has left the institution after a few weeks' rest with her invalid mother, to marry a former railroad man of this city. There is a bit of romance attached to the prospective marriage. Miss Robins is a prepossessing young lady from England, who came here for her health principally. She had been given a good education by her parents, and could have had much better employment so far as wages is concerned, but she had a desire to learn something about nursing, and to help those who were suffering, hence entered the hospital. While employed at the institution a young railroad man met with serious injuries and was taken to the hospital for medical attention. Miss Robins was appointed to nurse him, and through her kindly treatment and attention to her duty won his admiration. On his recovery he went to Denver and opened up a correspondence with Miss Robins with the result that they will be married next month, and expect to go to England to visit her parents.

The city engineer was instructed to give the grade and property line from the city limits on the south to Dan Simper's corner.

The bids for the printing of the revised ordinances were held over for one week.

parents, returning to Denver to make their home.

BIG DAM PROJECT.

The Utah Light & Railway company has not given up all hope of yet securing the proposed dam site at the head of Ogden canyon, and has decided to make appeal to the next Legislature to have the law amended which provides that in order to change a public highway the vote of the freeholders in the district affected must be had. The Light company is desirous of having the law provide that a majority of the voting population of the county will be all that is necessary to change a public highway.

Local Manager Wade says he does not anticipate that the company will have much trouble in buying out the owners of the several fish hatcheries that have been established in Ogden valley on sites that the water backs up from the proposed dam would inundate.

DEFECTIVE STREET PAVEMENTS.

P. J. Moran, the Salt Lake contractor, was Ogden yesterday to inspect the Twenty-fourth street pavement between Washington and Grant avenues, which has not been accepted by the city. In some places the pavement is not as it should be under the contract and is wearing into holes already. It may be that it will have to be resurfaced. The pavement on Twenty-fifth street and Wall avenue, which were also guaranteed for five years, have commenced to break in places and will also need repairs.

BIDS OPENED AND REJECTED.

The bids for the construction of the addition to the Weber State academy were opened last evening by the board of directors and Architect Woods, but as they were all too high they were rejected, and new bids will be called for. Most of the contractors are very high, but now, as there is a great amount of building going on this summer in Ogden, and all kinds of materials are very high at the present time.

LEHL.

M. I. A. EXCURSION TO LAGOON.

Suburbanite Taken in by Stranger and Loses $80.

Special Correspondence.

Lehi, Utah, June 29.—The M. I. A. officers of the Alpine Utah and Nebo stakes are planning a grand excursion for all M. I. A. workers in this county to Lagoon, July 1st. Quite a number of athletic contests will be given and a program of sports, dancing, etc., will be the feature of the day. The bands of the different towns of the county are also planning a grand band excursion to Lagoon.

TAKEN IN BY STRANGER.

Lehi is on the road to become as much of a "civilized" town as much larger cities, and the experience of Charles Solberg of Cedar Fort is an evidence. When he was here last week he fell in with an entertaining stranger who took him to dinner and treated him in the best of style; however, after the stranger had boarded a train for the east in the afternoon, Solberg found that he was short $80 and now he would like to know more about his friend and especially where to locate him.

At a special meeting of the city council Wednesday, it was decided that Lehi City would not take up its portion of new stock in the Utah County Light & Power company amounting to $2,354.

Mrs. Reynolds nearly lost her home the other day through a boy stepping on a match on the floor. The carpet curtains and window frame were burned before the fire was put out.

Some of the material for the salting station of the Mount Pike company has arrived and rock is being hauled for the foundation.

Pett jurors for the July term of the court.
