From the American Messenger. GIVE. BY MRS. L. H. SIGOURNEY.

"It is more blessed to give than to receive." Give prayers: the evening hath begun; Be earlier than the rising sun; Remember those who feel the rod; Remember those who know not God. His hand can boundless blessings give: Breathe prayers; through them the soul shall live.

Give alms: the needy sink with pain; The orphans mourn, the crushed complain. Give freely: hoarded gold is curst, A prey to robbers and to rust. Curist, through his poor, a claim doth make; Give gladly for thy Savior's sake.

Give books: they live when you are dead; Light on the darkened mind they shed: Good seed they sow, from age to age, Through all this mortal pilgrimage. They nurse the germs of holy trust; . They wake untired when you are dust.

Give smiles, to cheer the little child, A stranger on this thorny wild; It bringeth love, its guard to be-It, helpless, asketh love from thee. Howe'er by fortune's gifts unblest, Give smiles to childhood's guileless breast.

Give words, kind words, to those who err; Remorse doth need a comforter. Though in temptation's wiles they fall, Condemn not-we are sinners all .. With the sweet charity of speech, Give words that heal, and words that teach,

Give thought, give energy, to themes That perish not like folly's dreams. Hark! from the islands of the sea, The missionary cries to thee: To aid him on a heathen soil, Give thought, give energy, give toil.

From the Evening Post. A glorious star, when skies were bright,

Hung forth its golden beam, And poured its flow of brilliant light Above a gentle stream. But when the stream arose, and clouds

Upon its bosom lay, And wrapped it in their darksome shroud. The star withdrew its ray.

Oh! fickle flatterer of the hour, To friendship's calls untrue, When clouds of care and sorrow lower-Was not this star like you?

Auditor's Report.

AUDITOR'S OFFICE.
G. S. L. City, Jan. 2, 1852. To the Honorable Council and House of Representa-tives of Utah Territory in Legislature Assembled: GENTLEMEN:—In presenting to your Honorable body, the general report of Public Accounts, for the by human agency, have rendered it impossible to present all the statistics which are ever desirable to those upon whom devolve the responsibility of directing and governing the affairs of nations, and especially of this young but rapidly growing territory. These circumstances are many and various, one or two of which I will mention, viz: The organization of new counties, and consequent appointment of new officers, who have not had time to understand in full the duties on the property of the best of his ability, and furnish him with any information he is in possession of, in regard to his duties, and matters pertaining to his office. With these observations I close, holding myself ready to obey to the best of my ability, any instructions duties, and matters pertaining to his office. With these observations I close, holding myself ready to obey to the best of my ability, any instructions and the property of the best of his ability, and furnish him with any information he is in possession of, in regard to his duties, and matters pertaining to his office. ioined upon them. The removal of officers, such as Justices of the Peace, from one county to another, and consequent disarrangement of their accounts &c., upon whom the Auditor has to depend in some mea sure for reports to be embraced in the general manifest at the close of the year. But the greatest difficulty has arisen from the apparent scarcity of money, which has delayed the collection of nearly the whole of the years taxes to within the last two mo and even now, at this late period, the weekly receipts amount to from five hundred to one thousand dollars, in wolf bounty, wheat &c., in consequence of which fact, it has been considered advisable to keep the Collector's Books open a few weeks longer, in order that the vast delinquency which appears on this report may be diminished, and a better prospect afforded for the commencement of the husiness for the year ensuing.

Hence, this report is not final, but is merely a state-

CEDAR FORT, IRON Co., Jan. 3, 1852.

To Geo. A. Smith, Esq.
Respected Sir:—Shortly after your departure, bro. Henry Lunt, at the head of a portion of the brethren destined for this place, went down and built a good substantial canal, mostly will the draft wood that lay scattered on the banks of the creek. This done, they next went and put a dam in the creek and turned a sufficient supply of water upon the ground destined for the building of the fort.

About this time I came down, and with the breth ren went on to build up and enclose this fort, herd ment of facts as they exist at the present date, and may be relied on as mainly correct, in all the matters herein presented. DEAR SIR;-I came into the valley on the 3rd of large enough to hold the saints that come to the Sunday meetings; but we hope to have a larger place built for that purpose as soon as the weather ill permit for us to make adobies for that purpose. We had no school house a short time back; but we have one now, and the saints want to have their children educated that they may be able to roll on teach that school free of cost, that their brethren may be able to read and write &c. We have four dom may deem proper.

The amount not accounted for by the Collector, is copied from the books as they now appear; but he has claims and demands on responsible persons for a considerable portion of the amount, which are not yet in a situation to be credited to him on his account.

The tannery in this place will be in successful operation as soon as bark can be obtained; spirit of the Lord is with them, so that brethren and the brethren are all willing to get hark and assisters speak in tongues, and have the interpretation; assist bro. Clark in carrying on the tanning husiness as soon as they can; but there is not the saints here, yea, the spirit of love and union is much nine in the kanyon where the road has with us. We have had but one person charged be-
