GARDEN CITY NOTES.

PROVO, Aug. 23.-Elder Reed Smoot vas the speaker in the tabernacle yesterday. He referred to the new religion advocated by Dr. Ellot, and made a strong argument for the divinity of the Scriptures and for inspiration from God or the guidance of His children.

A complaint has been sworn to in Justice Noon's court charging Lars Johnson of Santaquin with assaulting Joseph Tietjen, and Mr. Johnson will be brought here for a hearing. The trouble grew out of a reprimand given a son of Mr. Tletjen by Mr. Johnson for taking some cherries. Tietjen went to see Johnson about the matter and was struck on the head, receiving an ugly scalp wound. Tietjen claims John son struck him with a shovel, while Johnson states he only used his fist and that Tietjen attacked him first. "Mayor C. F. Decker is back from a
