

Last night at 9 o'clock Henry Hirschman a youth 19 years of age shot and killed his step-father, Michael Boylan, at Hyde Park, where the parties resided. It appears that Boylan came home drunk on Saturday night and as was his custom began to abuse the family, when an altercation followed. The prisoner claims the shooting was an accident, that the pistol exploded when knocked off the porch by Boylan.

St. Louis, 30.—The Supreme Lodge of the Knights of Pythias will hold the next biennial session in Detroit in 1882.

LOUISVILLE, 30.—The examination of Arnold's brother for drawing a revolver on Bronston, concluded Saturday evening. He was fined $1,000 and sentenced to the State prison for a year.

READING, Pa., 30.—Returns received up to midnight make it appear that State Senator Ermentrout will be the democratic nominee for Congress to succeed HeisterClymer.

BOSTON, 30.—In a speech at Faneuil Hall, Saturday night, General Butler declared he is not and shall not be a candidate for any office, elective or appointive, at this election or under the incoming administration.

NEW YORK, 30.—George C. Harvard, a young lawyer, was murdered in Brooklyn yesterday morning, Harvard and Peter J. Larkin were returning home between 1 and 2 a. m., when their protection was requested by two women who were being followed by three rough characters. After Harvard and Larkin had walked with the women several blocks, the strangers approached and an altercation ensued, blows followed, and Harvard was stabbed to the heart. Larkin was cut about the neck, but his wounds are not serious. Walter J. Best, a bottler, was subsequently arrested on the charge of murder, and Joseph H. Hurley and Thomas Terney as accessories.

Miss Neilson's will disposes of £30,000; her mother receives £3,000, Mr. Knight, critic of the Athenaeum, £1,000; Compton, who acted with her in America and watched her during her illness, £1,000; the residue she leaves to Admiral Carr Glynn, but it is thought he will decline the legacy, as Lee, the divorced husband of Miss Neilson, may make trouble. It is supposed, however, that the legal protection accorded to Neilson by an English court may defeat him.

PANAMA, 21.—Since the departure of the last mail for New York, there have been no arrivals here either from South or Central America. Dates are from Bogota to July 28th; on the 25th the anniversary of the Columbian independence, Deichman the United States minister, in addressing the President, said that the conduct of the United States had been erroneously interpreted by the people of Colombia, that the desire of the United States was to forward the interests of all Spanish American republics. President Nunez replied, thanking the minister for the good intentions of his government towards Colombia.

The ship Belle of Avon has arrived at Buenaventura from Cardiff with 1,400 tons of material for the railroad and wharf. The work of construction on both railroad and wharf is in active progress and the first section of the road, that between Buenaventura and Cordova will soon be opened to the public. This will do away forever with canoe navigation on the Dagua.

A party of bear and deer hunters, from the Third Ward, will start out on a two-weeks' trip for the hills on Monday.

Mr. Ralph Pidecock, who is engaged in "braking" on the Utah & Northern, came into town this morning with a strained back, the effects of overlifting.

Severely Injured.—Escaped Prisoners Caught.—From Saturday's Enquirer:

Tuesday evening last, David, a son of Mr. David John, of this city, was severely injured by being struck with a stone on the back, just above the hips. Swelling immediately began, and the poor boy suffered terribly during the night.

Two of the three bravadoes who broke jail at Evanston, and escaped with heavy shackles, have been captured by Sheriff's Turner and Fowler of this county. The two are McBride the Indian, and Butler the negro. When brought together at the Court House, they endeavored to conceal recognition of each other, but they began snickering and twittering thus (in a "polite" phrase) "letting the cat out of the bag." Sheriff Pepper, of Evanston, Wyoming, is expected to arrive by this morning's train. He will take charge of the prisoners.

OBITUARY.

Died, at 3 o'clock a. m., August 18, 1880, at Farmington, Davis County, JONATHAN H. HOLMES.

Deceased was born March 11, 1806, in Georgetown, Essex County, Massachusetts; was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints by John F. Boynton, in 1832; gathered with the Saints in Kirtland, Ohio, in 1834; made his home with Joseph Smith and was much beloved by the Prophet and everybody else who knew him. He remained with Joseph and was married at his house, April 13th, 1837, to Miss Rosetta Carter Wilford Woodruff was married to Miss Phebe Whitmore Carter at the same time. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Frederick G. Williams, and both couples were blessed by the Patriarch Father Joseph Smith. Bro. Holmes remained with the gathered Saints until their expulsion from Nauvoo. While on his way to the mountains, he enlisted in the Mormon Battalion and served through the campaign. When he was discharged he rejoined his family at Salt Lake City. He resided at Farmington over thirty years, and was a member of the High Council in the Davis County Stake of Zion. He left a wife and four daughters (all of whom were at the funeral), also twenty grand-children and one great grand-child.

Brother Holmes could be numbered among the few men on earth that had not an enemy living. He was one of the most innocent, harmless, true and faithful men, to his family, his friends, and his God, that has lived in our day. His funeral was attended by a large assembly, which was addressed by Elder W. Woodruff, who had been associated with him for 47 years, and was qualified to speak of his life as it had been manifest among the Saints.—Com.
