The Semi-Weekly News

THE GREAT COUNTRY PAPER

OF THE WEST.

Is issued Mondays and Thursdays and contains all the cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Mrs. Fanny Hauke, wife of Joseph Hauke of the Cullen hotel, died yesterday of paralysis.

Joseph Strickley got too near a spring-riding cart last evening, and a wheel ran over his foot. Fortunately his injury is not serious.

Paul Nelden, son of W. A. Nelden, has been successfully operated upon at St. Mark's hospital for appendicitis. The young patient is recovering nicely.

The Junior choir of St. Mary's cathedral will repeat its successful St. Patrick's day concert, for the benefit of Mrs. Charles Smith, the unfortunate woman whose husband has neglected her.

James Jones died at the Keogh-Wright hospital yesterday, from injuries sustained in an accident in the May Day mine at Tintic. The Odd Fellows will bury Jones, who leaves no family.

Commissioner Charles De Moisy of the state bureau of statistics has just published the third annual report of the bureau. The collection of statistics published therein is of great value, and the tabulated statements cover over 90 pages.

J. M. Christensen & Co., and Kahn Bros., creditors of John R. Norris, proprietor of Ford's hotel, have filed a petition in the Federal court, asking that Norris be declared bankrupt. The Christensen account is for $500 and the Kahn claim is $323.30.

A number of applications have been filed already with Supt. Webster of Z. C. M. I. for the chief engineering of the institution now that Mr. Bywater has been made chief of the first department. It will be some time, however, before a successor is appointed.

Fish Commissioner John Sharp will take 100,000 trout fry tomorrow to Cache county for distribution in the local waters; and during the week following he will distribute 100,000 fry in the waters of Wasatch county. Mr. Sharp will also send a bunch of quail to Deweyville to be set loose in the vicinity.

Ralph Woolley, son of Bishop Woolley of the Twenty-first ward, is recovering at the Holy Cross hospital from an operation for appendicitis. The young man returned from Los Angeles Friday evening, suffering from the trouble, and Dr. C. M. Benedict performed the operation.

Street Supervisor S. M. T. Seddon is now in charge of his office, and is looking after the work of the department of which he was the head several years ago under Mayor Clark's administration. Mr. Seddon stated that there would be no changes in the department at the present time.

H. W. Parker has filed suit in the district court against G. R. Walker to recover $1,500 alleged to be due as the purchase price of a rare collection of birds' eggs, together with a cabinet for the same. Defendant agreed to pay for the eggs on the installment plan at the rate of $100 per month, but has failed to make any of the payments.

The report of the city schools for the six months ending March 4, shows the total enrollment to be 12,329 pupils, of which number 43 are colored children. There were 1,364 cases of tardiness in the schools during the month, 16 cases of corporal punishment and 54 cases of truancy. The average per cent of attendance was 92.5, and the average per cent of punctuality was 99.5.

A literary program has been arranged for this evening's meeting of the Unity club, where Miss Boettcher will read a paper on "The End of the Holy Roman Empire," and Judge Howell of Ogden will read a paper on "Goethe and Schiller—Goethe's 'Faust' and Its Lesson."

Prof. Radcliffe will furnish the music for the evening. Miss Boettcher's paper will be illustrated with a stereopticon.

A number of Chinese restaurants are being opened in this city, to the dismay of Caucasian restaurateurs, and the latter are particularly aggrieved because, as they claim, members of trades unions patronize these "China joints."

Chinese restaurants are more cheaply conducted than the others, hence the large patronage, and hence, likewise, ejaculations of woe from the "white" establishments.

There have been quite a number of applications filed with the local agency of the board of Pacific underwriters for examinations of buildings whose electric wiring it is feared may be faulty.

Inspector C. A. Gaines is at present in Montana, but will be home in a day or two, when these applications will be acted on. There is a general feeling of relief, however, at the postponing here of an electrical wiring inspector.

Chinese Inspector A. W. Payne leaves tomorrow for his new post in Portal, N. D., the only port of entry for Chinese between Puget Sound and Malone, N. Y., on Lake Ontario. The change is a promotion for Mr. Payne, and a tribute to his efficiency, after having twice here, the time the Salt Lake office has been operated. His many friends are sorry to see him go. His place will be filled for the present, and perhaps permanently by W. H. Webster.

The Utah Fuel company continues to register a heavy output for coal from its various camps, as much as can be found a market for. Even the output at Castle Gate is within two-thirds of its ante-strike records. At Sunnyside, there are not so many men at work as fewer miners are required now that the coal crushers have got to work, the slack thus made being sent to the coke ovens. The company is satisfied with the outlook.

Dr. J. F. Millspaugh, formerly superintendent of the Salt Lake schools, has been made president of the Normal school at Los Angeles to succeed Edward T. Plens, resigned, and will have a salary of $3,600 per year. Dr. Millspaugh resigned the Salt Lake superintendency in 1899, when he was elected president of the Winona, Minn., normal school. The doctor is 48 years old, and a graduate of the University of Michigan, class of '79. He was a member of the University club of this city.

A day or two ago Chief of Police Lynch received a telegram from Topeka, Kan., asking him to look out for a man named Charles Wallace, who was wanted there for embezzlement. Yesterday the chief learned that Wallace saw a man on the streets who answered the description and he was placed under arrest. He admitted that his name was Wallace and that he was wanted at Topeka. He was on his way to San Francisco when arrested. The Topeka authorities have been notified and will send a man here for Wallace.

The "fake" assessor who worked his graft so successfully in this city has probably flown to Los Angeles, where he has been successfully engaged in his "profession." However, the police there on the watch so that the fellow is likely to come to grief. At one house in Los Angeles, the housewife discovered a sum of money missing after his visit; but at another house, where he tried to force an entrance, a woman pulled a gun, and the rascal fled. At one place, the fakir collected a poll tax from a sick man, after threatening to levy on the mattress upon which the latter was lying.

SALT LAKE DIES

AWAY FROM HOME

William B. Smedley, a Young Actor, Plays His Final Role At Detroit.

WAS SICK AND DESPONDENT.

Had Been Operated on for Appendicitis And Recently Recovered from Typhoid Fever.

The sad intelligence reached this city yesterday afternoon, of the sudden death of William B. Smedley, son of William E. Smedley, the well known insurance man of this city, at Detroit; and his father's family was the more overcome because they had had no intimation that anything was the matter with the young man.

The facts of the affair seem to be these: He had been reduced in physical condition by appendicitis and typhoid fever, and in finances through consequent inability to engage in his profession, that of an actor and playwright. He became weak and despondent and failed to see that there was much left in life. The last seen of him was Thursday night, at his Detroit lodging house, and Saturday the unfortunate young man was found dead in his room with the jet turned on. Upon the table was found this explanatory note:

"My only request is that I be buried here at the expense of the city. I have no money. I have spent many hundreds of dollars while here as a member of the University club of this city. Don't notify my parents. It is unnecessary."

On the back of the note he had written of an operation for appendicitis and an attack of typhoid fever had incapacitated him for work. He stated that he played a leading role in "The Chaperons" last season. Young Smedley's family were notified yesterday, and he was afterwards sent to the Riverside military academy at Poughkeepsie with a view to entering West Point later; but decided for himself that the stage was more attractive for him, and concluded to enter the theatrical profession, although his father's family were opposed to it. While at home young Smedley was prominent in local theatricals, and was a member of the Howells club which included Miss Frances Lincoln, Susan Park, George Westervelt and other social lights. This experience no doubt strengthened him in his intentions. Mr. Smedley proved successful in his stage ventures, becoming a leading man in several troupes, made money as a playwright, having written "Her Fatal Sin," and was also a theatrical manager. Although having been away from Salt Lake for some years, people prominent in society 10 and 12 years ago will remember the young man very well, and his bright, cheerful ways. He was a favorite.

Why he should fail to communicate with his father during the hour of his trouble, is only explainable by the supposition that he was too proud to ask assistance from home, and because of a disinclination also due to the knowledge that his folks had been much opposed to his becoming an actor.

It Never Disappoints. F. J. William, proprietor of the Hamilton Drug Co., Hamilton, Iowa, says, a Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is practically the only remedy he sells for cramps, diarrhoea and colic, for the plain reason that it never disappoints. For sale by all druggists.
