Working the Hattie Group. J. M. Davis, the well known mining man who came up from Salt Lake a few days ago, left for Hattie, says the Hattie, Times, Mr. Davis came here to look at the Hattie group of four claims, which are situated about half a mile north of the Hattie group, and upon which he has a bond. Being familiarly known to the four men to work and will return in about a month to see how the thing looks and to acquire the property. It is then said he will take it and begin sinking a shaft to a depth of 300 feet, with the view of building the kind of a mill adapted to the ore to be treated. He will then build a mill for ore, but if he gets ore he will push developments for all his property in worth.
