Burlesque Opera.—The Colville Burlesque company, which is billed for two performances at our Theatre, on Monday and Tuesday of next week, includes 40 artists, and comes heralded as one of the finest combinations of the kind now traveling. The names of the performers appear elsewhere in our columns.

Of the star cantatrice, Miss Emu Roseau, a Virginia City paper has the following:

Miss Emu Roseau sang magnificently and fully confirmed the impression of Saturday night last that she is an artist of high merit. She had to do double work last evening. Her song and musical performance were encored in a manner so decided and pronounced by a delightful audience that refusal was entirely out of the question, and she sang, naturally, gratified her admirers. Our people like her especially for her ease and grace, understanding that they do that the qualities of good acting and superior singing are rare, by combined in a cantatrice. To it in her rescue, grand opera or any musical production, and Miss Roseau is the happy possessor of both these qualities she must at all times command success. The rest of the troupe were excellent, as usual, and fully justified the encomiums they received.

Annual Fire Report.—Geo. M. Oltinger, our enterprising chief engineer, has just had printed his annual report of the Salt Lake City Fire Department, which makes up a neat little pamphlet full of useful and interesting statistics. The report contains a statement of all the movable property, belonging to the department; the monthly expenditures for the year just closed; a detailed statement of fires during the year—the date and cause of each, together with the loss of property and amount of insurance; the location of the city water tanks and fire hydrants; the average water pressure of our mains and a complete roster of the Fire Brigade of the city.

The up-town citizen, who owns much real estate in the neighborhood of Main Street, will scan this little report with an air of deep satisfaction as he notes the incomparably small amount of property destroyed by the fire flood last year, and will repose upon his downy couch with a feeling of greater security after contemplating the present prosperity and efficiency of the fire department.

These reports may be productive of good to our citizens in another way, too, as their circulation may perhaps have the effect of bringing down insurance rates, which, though not exorbitant, might be considerably lessened in view of the excellent working order of our water works.

In the meantime it devolves upon our Chief Engineer to exercise the same precautions as if the city were continually harassed by fires, for although past experience may induce him to expect little difficulty in subduing the destroying element in the future, yet it is better always to be prepared for the worst. "Eternal vigilance is the price of safety."

Home Theatricals.—There is a fair probability that in a few weeks our Theatre will be thrown open more frequently, and the public be treated to a feast of legitimate theatricals by a new home company. It will be composed of young ladies and gentlemen who stand high in the community, as public and private members of society, and who, with one or two exceptions, have not heretofore embraced the stage as a profession, nor indeed design doing so now, but are impelled to the venture of going before the footlights occasionally, by a desire to make of the stage here, what it ought to be everywhere, a virtuous instructor of the people, a source of innocent and beneficial amusement, and of the Theatre, a place where respectable people may delight to meet, to spend an evening with profit and pleasure. To this end they will aim to produce none but the best of plays and comedies, pure of tone, high of merit, and attractive in character.

Although the company, as said, will be entirely of home talent, being mostly amateurs, they are well advised that they are of a class possessing natural ability as interpreters of the drama, who will, ere long, elevate our home stage to its former level of dignity and refinement. And having made the stage respectable, their purpose will be to keep it so, that the name of actor may cease to be a term of reproach, and that the histrionic art, in this city at least, may assume its proper place in the high rank of intelligent and refined professions.

The troupe has been organized in response to a popular demand from all classes of our citizens, at the solicitation of the theatrical management, who wish to encourage home talent, and by the expressed wish of President John Taylor and the heads of the Church, who all desire that the Theatre be kept open at intervals, in order that pure and wholesome entertainment may be furnished to the amusement loving public.

Another reason for the new enterprise is, that the management are frequently embarrassed, when negotiating for the engagement of first class stars, on account of the present lack of dramatic support at home, which compels them to decline their propositions. The projected organization will obviate this difficulty, by acting in concert with the local management, and prepare a stock company, similar to that of earlier days, that shall be of efficient assistance to the leading tragedians and actors that are engaged by the managers, and thereby be instrumental in making the Theatre of benefit to the community as an incubator of truth and morality and an arena for intellectual display.

Due notice will be given of the dates of performances, when the names of those who compose the company will also be made known.

Solid Merit will Tell.

For all the bitter opposition of jealous rivals, no better illustration could be had of this fact than the immense sale already attained by the great Throat and Lung Remedy, Dr. Aug. Kaiser's German Elixir. For the cure of Coughs and Bronchial Affections, it is truly wonderful, even those suffering from Consumption in advanced stages find great relief, and numbers of patients have found, to their delight, not only relief, but cure. It being perfectly harmless, makes it at once popular with mothers, who of all others have felt the necessity of such a medicine. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the fac-simile signature of Dr. Aug. Kaiser, and has his name blown on every 75 cent bottle. A trial size may be had for 25 cents.

For sale, wholesale and retail, by the Z. C. M. I. Drug Department and Moore Allen & Co., Salt Lake City.

For Pure Liquors for medicinal purposes and the best 5 cent Cigars in the city, go to

GOODE, PITTS AND CO.

IT IS TRULY WONDERFUL

TO SEE what improvements now exist as compared with railway travel only a few years ago. To become convinced of this, one has only to select for his route East, the popular and well-known

CHICAGO & NORTHWESTERN RAILWAY.

You are lured by the Union Pacific R.R. in the Union Depot at Council Bluffs, where stands the C. & N.W. Peace train, composed of Pullman Hotel Cars, Pullman Sleeping Cars, elegant Day Coaches, Smoking Baggage, Postal Cars, etc., ready to convey its passengers over the superb track of steel rail through thriving cities and villages, comfortably seated in this train, one scarcely discovers the high rate of speed which he is riding. Trains of this road are always on time, connections sure, and passengers seeking pleasure, comfort, safety and ease in traveling, will find the "North-Western" in excess of their expectations, and the greatest of all routes to Chicago and the East.

Fastest upon Ticket Agents selling you tickets via this road; all Agents sell them. Examine your tickets, and refuse to buy if they do not read over this Road. If you wish the best Traveling Accommodations, you will buy your tickets by this route, and WILL TAKE NO OTHER.

MOORE, ALLEN, SMITH & Co. will resume their public auction sale of Buggies, Carriages, Spring Wagons, etc., etc., on Saturday next, February 14th, 1886, at 1 o'clock p.m., second door east of Deseret Bank, at McKinnin's old Livery Stable. The firm have removed to more commodious quarters, formerly occupied by A. J. Johnson, on State Road, between First and Second South Streets.

Don't forget to attend the sale and secure a bargain. Sale positive—no reserve.
