We composed of 230 ministers, and requestion very much whether a dozen out of that 230 persons, eager for the employment of national force against the " Mormons," could give an iutelligible answer to the question, "What is Mormonism." By look ing at the signature to the docu ment the whole tenor of it is explained. It is Lyford's report, adopted by the body of which he was a member, without knowledge as to the correctness of its assumptions. Lyford is the man of unblushing impudence who invented the story that in Utah he had to go into the pulpit ark Conference in asking the religi with a Bible in one hand and a revolver in the other, a tale that was plagiarized by a Presbyterian preacher who, like Lyford, stumped the States to raise money on hobgoblin tales about the awful "Mormons." Lyford was exposed in his the publication of this report in our willainy, and now hates the Latter-day Saints with all the bitterness of a black heart and an unscrupulous mind. We do not wish to be personal, neither do ... e want to arouse any feeling of animosity towards the society which attempts in such an unchristianlike manne to destroy our religion by arousing popular fury and national forms. We are perfectly willing to leave them in the hands of Him whose name they take in vain when they perform coremonies in His behalf without the shadow of legitimate authority. But we have the right of self-protection. It is our privilege to take lawful measures in our own behalf that the lesigns of our enemies may not be effected. These professed represen tatives of the loving Savior who was the embodiment truth and charity, as we have previously set forth have designs pen our children as well as sche against us. Put the parents in prison, get control of the youth; that is their programme. Sectarian errors, mingled with secular tuition for the juveniles, special laws forcibly exe-cuted against the adults.

We place this Methodist libel on "Mormonism" and expression of intolerance and hatred on the adverlising list with other similar productions of plous "Chris-stian" preachers, that our that our people may ponder upon the
