FORTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS.

EXTRA SESSION.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 22.—There was a full attendance of the Senate and in the galleries.

Sherman called up his resolution for the report of James F. Meline.

Farley moved to include the testimony taken during the investigation.

Dawes and Sherman opposed the amendment, which was lost, 23 to 21, and the resolution was adopted, a party vote.

Davis, of Illinois, voted with the republicans.

McPherson presented a petition of certain members of the New York legislature, against the titles of Lapham and Miller; referred. After which the Senate readjourned.

The President pro tem. laid before the Senate a communication from the Secretary of the Treasury in response to a resolution adopted March 24th, calling for a complete list of books, papers, pamphlets, etc., published by the various departments from March, 1879 to March, 1881. The communication, which states the records of the Treasury Department fail to give the information called for, was laid on the table, and the Senate went into executive session, and when the doors opened, adjourned.

AMERICAN.

Confirmations.

WASHINGTON, 22.—The Senate confirmed Alva S. Alexandria, of Indiana, Fifth Auditor of the Treasury.

The Senate military committee, this morning, agreed to report favorably on all army nominations referred to them this session, except those of Carter Reymond and Maddo, of New York, and Johnson, of Minnesota, to be assistant surgeons. These nominations are withheld, not because there is any objection to the appointees, but the committee thought New York seemed to be getting more than its share, and the appointments should be better distributed.

The opponents to Dudley give up the fight, and he admits he will be confirmed. The Southern senators refused to put themselves in the attitude of voting against a crippled Union soldier, and Dudley was confirmed by a decided majority. The opposition was weak. The Southern democrats voted for him.

The Senate confirmed W. W. Dudley, commissioner of pensions; Robert Crowell, of Minnesota, deputy sixth auditor; John Cromb, of Minnesota, register of the land office at Crookstown, Minnesota; Geo. Wilkinson, of Nebraska, Indian agent at the Omaha and Winnebago agency, Omaha; Frank M. Tracy, postmaster at St. Joseph, Missouri; Captain Montgomery, second chief of the Bureau of Ordnance, Navy Department; Captain John G. Walker, chief of the Bureau of Navigation; commodores, James H. Spotts, A. Nicholson, of Pennsylvania, admirals; Captain Samuel R Franklin, Edward McCauley and John C. P. Decraft, commodores.

Capital Conjecture.

It is now stated with considerable positiveness, that only two cabinet nominations will be made at the present session of the Senate, and they will be Morgan, of New York, Secretary of the Treasury, and Howe, of Wisconsin, Attorney-General. There is evidently some guessing, however, for it does not seem to come from presidential authority. The prominent republicans who back Longstreet, maintain that Longstreet's friends have a pretty good assurance that he will get a cabinet position.

A member of the present cabinet said this morning that his opinion was that Arthur would appoint all his cabinet now. He said that all the members of the present cabinet who go out are very anxious to get out immediately and they have urgently requested the President to relive them as soon as convenient.

Gen. Grant, it is rumored, brought to the President information of Morgan's willingness to accept the Secretaryship of the Treasury, but as to cabinet matters Grant maintains his characteristic reticence. On one point, however, he is not reticent. He makes no secret of his friendship for First Assistant Postmaster General Tyner, and of his sympathy with Tyner in his present fight to retain his position. Tyner had another interview with Arthur this morning, which Grant arranged.

It is conceded that Lincoln will remain in the cabinet, but with another port folio. Attorney Gene ral. One of the present cabinet, James, will continue for a time at least.

A prominent stalwart says: Grant warmly favors Conkling for the cabinet, and not a few believe he will go in, and his name would not cause surprise here. It is believed Conkling himself is the only obstacle to his appointment. It is believed Grant comes on a mission connected with this and possibly brings Conkling's acceptance.

At 8 p.m. Grant left Gen. Beale's residence, and took Logan and Cameron into his carriage and went to the President's rooms. Soon after Allison and Edmunds arrived and these gentlemen have been with the president all the evening, probably concerning the cabinet. They are all stalwarts. Grant favors Beale as Secretary of War.

A delegation of southern republicans representing seven States, headed by Gov. Hawkins, of Tennessee, called on the President this afternoon. They requested him to place in his cabinet a true representative of Southern republicanism and select for federal office men of the same class. They claim that four southern States can be wrested from the democratic party if proper recognition is given faithful republicans, namely, Tennessee, Virginia, North Carolina and Florida. They did not name any one for the cabinet, but could be satisfied with Gen. Longstreet. The President heard them with attention, and thanked them for their call. He said he would remember their wishes, but gave no assurance of specific action.

Memorial.

The National and International Garfield Memorial Hospital Fund amounts to $316, the contributions of three States and the District of Columbia.

The committee on ways and means and the committee on finance of the memorial decided to-night that an appeal be prepared by the Secretary of State and sent to the clergy of all towns and cities of 1,000 or more, requesting them to present the subject to their congregations. They also decided to make an effort to enlist the Masons, Odd Fellows and other charitable orders throughout the country in the enterprise.

The pastors throughout the United States are recommended with singular unanimity by the representatives of every religious denomination in Washinton, who append their names to an appeal dated Washington, October 22. The executive committee charged with the work of establishing at the capital of the United States a National Garfield Memorial Hospital, as being the most enduring beneficial monument to the memory of our late President, whose life was so silently and tragically ended, assumed that the various religious organizations throughout the country will be desirous of contributing to such a memorial, do therefore appeal to all pastors, and suggest that Saturday and Sunday, November 5th and 6th, or the nearest available date, be set apart for discourses and collections in all those places throughout the land for this fund, and that contributions be forwarded to the Hon. James Gilfillan, treasurer of the United States, who is treasurer of the fund.

(Signed) GEN. W. T. SHERMAN, Chairman.

Damaging Disclosures.

Many democrats think the republicans made a mistake in voting against calling for the testimony taken by the Treasury investigation and they call the attention of the country to this vote as one intended to suppress the facts. They will introduce another resolution which will bring out discussion.

It is stated the Assistant Secretary will accompany the report with a defense of himself.

The report called for the Senate to-day, is said to be interesting reading, but by no means legal proof, some of it being more street gossip. Other parts are however, of a dangerous character.

New York, 22.—The Tribune's Washington special says it is evident that Farley, democratic Senator from California, does not read the democratic newspapers very carefully; otherwise his attention would have been arrested by some of the innumerable accusations against Senator Sherman and Secretary Windom, with which those journals have teemed during the last four months; against Sherman because of damaging disclosures contained in the report, and against Windom for his turpitude in suppressing that document in order to screen the guilty ex-Secretary. Farley's amendment was defeated by a vote of 32 to 31. The original resolution was adopted without discussion. Neither Sherman nor Windom has ever seen the testimony taken by the Commissioner or by the treasury clerks. It is voluminous, and is of that character that would render its publication in its present unfinished condition an act of injustice. Certain subordinates testified to the performance of work by direction of other subordinates, which work witnesses believe to have been for the personal benefit of Sherman. No evidence was taken in corroboration or rebuttal. These and similar stories form the bulk of the sensational part of the testimony. All the transactions involved were of a petty character, and all are doubtless fully explainable in a way that would leave no stain upon the reputation of any high officials whose names have been mentioned in connection with them. Manifestly a committee of Treasury clerks is not the proper tribunal to investigate such matters. If they are to be investigated at all, it should, and probably will be by a committee of the Senate.

Howgate.

Washington, Oct. 22.—The grand jury indicted Captain Howgate for embezzlement of $90,000 from the Government, and his bond was forfeited on his not appearing. His bond was for $10,000. The bondsmen are W. B. Moses, W. M. McCullough, and Motley Anderson.

Subsequently Captain Howgate's counsel called the attention of the court to the fact that Howgate's bond was given to abide the judgment of the court, not the action of the grand jury. Justice Cox, ascertaining such to be the fact, directed the execution of the warrant for Howgate's arrest suspended, and the forfeiture of the bond set aside. This leaves Capt. Howgate at liberty on the original bond given by him.

Captain Howgate to-day entered a plea of "not guilty" to the charge of embezzlement, and was committed to jail in default of $30,000 bail, his counsel promising, however, to come into court with securities next Monday.

Coal Claims.

Secretary Kirkwood has given a decision upon the entry of coal lands near railroads, and their proper prices. The Secretary says the price of the land depends wholly upon the distance from a completed railroad at the date of entry, and if at the date of proof and payment, which constitutes the entry of lands more than 15 miles from such road, the price should be less than $10 per acre, and if 15 miles, the price should be not less than $20 per acre. This decision is intended to meet cases which may arise where the original location of a claim for such land was made before the construction of a railroad within 15 miles, but where entry and payment are not made until after the completion of the road.

Tyner.

First Assistant Postmaster General Tyner had another long interview to-day, with the President.

Tyner, in his interview with the President in relation to his talked of relessement from office, reached no conclusion, and the interview will be resumed to-morrow or Monday. Judge Tyner to night said he could not properly talk about what took place until the matter should be definitely settled. He had not yet tendered his resignation.

It is stated that First Assistant Postmaster General Tyner has prepared a long statement of the action taken by him in the Star route contracts. This statement Tyner will present to the President on Monday next.

Christiancy Case.

In the Christiancy divorce case to-day, Charles Goodman, of New York, corroborated the statement of Miss Mary Chamberlain about her visit to Washington, her meeting Giro in the hall of the residence of Mrs. Christiancy, her visit to the St. James Hotel with Giro, their return to the Christiancy House, and her return to New York in company with Goodman.

In the Christiancy divorce suit, Mary Chamberlain, who, it is alleged, personated Mrs. Christiancy at the St. James Hotel, occupied the entire evening giving details of her life.

Ports.

A circular relative to the transit of important merchandise to Mexico was to-day issued by the Treasury Department. In addition to the port of Brownsville, Baltimore, Boston, New York, New Orleans and Philadelphia are designated as ports from which imported merchandise may be shipped in bond in transit through the United States to Mexico.

The President's Advisers.

NEW YORK, 22 —The Tribune's Washington correspondent says: At a conference last evening between the President, General Grant and Senators Cameron and Logan, it was decided that the names of E. D. Morgan and Senator Howe should be sent to the Senate as members of the Cabinet.

Anxiety.

The steamship Bolivia, of the Anchor line, which sailed from London on the 5th inst. has not been heard from. There are about 400 immigrants and 100 cabin passengers mostly returning tourists on board, and many inquiries are being made at the office by the friends of the numerous passengers.

High prices and Hard Times.

The Times' special says: We shall open the winter with almost every kind of household necessaries higher, and every producer suffering under short crops. The drouth has cost this country hundreds of millions of dollers, and reduced the purchasing capacity of large classes. It is not improbably that this severe blow will give the first check to the wild speculations which is going on in stocks, products and railroad securities. The shock was sure to come, and it will be first felt by the most uncertain values such as the enormous extension of railroads in the Southwest. High prices and hard times will enforce the call for readjustment of the tariff. The farmer who has lost this year fifty per cent. of his products and has not as yet been able to recoup himself by higher prices, will begin seriously to object to paying from thirty to fifty per cent tax on his clothing, furniture or machinery, for the sake of filling a treasure which has already more than it knows what to do with.

Mines.

The Mining Associated Press reports that for the past seven days the mining stock market has been dull and weak, and business show a large falling off. Nearly all stocks have declined from last week's prices.

The total bullion receipts in New York for the week from mines were $237,319. Total sales of mining stocks at both exchanges about 750,000 shares.

Job for Jones.

The Herald's Washington special says: It is conceded that a brother of Senator Jones, of Nevada, will be nominated for comer of the New Orleans mint. Drury of New Orleans, who was suggested by Senator Kellogg, withdrew his claims as soon as he heard that the friends of Jones would ask for the place.

Rates.

CLEVELAND, 22.—The committee which had in charge arrangements of the Garfield obsequies, desiring to comply with the multitude of requests from all sections for relics, have organized a bureau, and are preparing a great number of souvenirs from the floral decorations and draping of the catafalque, which will be sent to all applicants as long as they last. Each memento is to have a card bearing the signatures of the committee and an engraving of the catafalque to authenticate the article. These relics will not be sold under any circumstances, but applicants should send stamps for postage. Money contributions will not be refused, and all such will be placed to the credit of the monument fund. Requests should be addressed "Relic Bureau, Cleveland."

Wool.

BOSTON, 22 —The demand for wool is steady and a good average business has been done. Sales in part exceed expectations, as a quiet week was very generally looked for. Transactions of all kinds amounted to 2,650,000 lbs., of best XX and above have been taken at 45. We quote Ohio and Pennsylvania X 43 @ 44, and XX and XXX are above 43½ @ 45; Michigan and Wisconsin fleeces have been selling principally at 40 @ 42½, good average lots are firm at these prices. No. 1 Michigan and Ohio has been selling at 45 @ 50, the latter price for choice selections. Unwashed fleeces have been in demand, and sales were 6,625,000 lbs. of all kinds, including considerable fine wools at from 24 @ 32½ per pound, and medium wools at 28 @ 35. Coarse carpet wools are in demand, and are wanted at 15 @ 20. Combing and delaine selections, very fine and in demand, with sales 42 @ 50 for unwashed fleeces. Sales ranged from 55 @ 32 for coarse and medium grades. Pulled wools firm at 33 @ 50 for common and very choice supers. There has been more doing in foreign wool, and sales of Cape were at 32 @ 33½, Montevideo 36, Australia 41 @ 42½, and carpet wools full prices, as to quality.

Vinnie Vanderbilt.

CHICAGO, 22.—Vanderbilt recently in contempt of court, voted sufficient shares of the C. C. C. & I. railway to make it a part of his system. Jewett, of Erie, has now moved to commit him for contempt of court. A great fight has begun between these two men, and there will be war to the knife. It would not be strange if Vanderbilt, whose contempt in violating an injunction was plain, should bring up in jail. The Erie proposes to take possession of the road, if necessary vi et armis, and under the direction of the court. Vanderbilt is determined on shutting off the Erie connection with Chicago, and the Erie is equally determined to remain a thorn in the flesh to that magnate, by not only keeping in connection, but by making a through line to that city.

Red Rumor.

DENVER, Col., 22.—Information is received here that four ranchmen, named York, Purdy, Baker and Moore, living on the Lower Gila River have been killed by Indians. The indications are that the murders are by the White Mountain Apaches.

FOREIGN.

Ireland's Land League.

DUBLIN, 22.—The Attorney-General and law officers advise the suppression of the United Ireland, the League organ, but the Irish Privy Council have not yet acted upon the advice.

The Land League's manifesto, "No Rent," created a sensation inside Kilmainham prison. The wardens have been changed, and Warden Barrier has been instructed to prevent the approach of visitors.

Justice O'Hogan's speech at the opening of the Land Court was well received in the agricultural districts.

The Duke of Abercrombie is meeting the magistrates.

The county of Donegal has censured the government for delaying action against the League. All meetings of the League for Sunday are prohibited.

"United Ireland, the organ of the land league, advises holders of the Bank of Ireland notes, to demand gold, to create a run upon the bank. It is expected the offices of the paper will be seized.

There are two arrests under the coercion act near Longford.

A canister which recently contained powder and the remains of some burned paper was found close to the magazine, in Castle Athalm. Double sentinels were placed around the magazine.

Visits to Parnell, O'Reilly, Dillon, Sexton, Brannan and Kettle are prohibited for one week. Parnell will be removed to the county prison.

The Bishop and clergy of County Kildare adopted a resolution endorsing Bishop Croke's letter.

The clergy generally approve Archbishop Croke's letter protesting against the manifesto of the land league.

Wrecks.

DUNDEE, 22.—Two hundred vessels have been bound in the Firth of Forth, among them 12 large sea going steamers. Many vessels lost all their canvass and partially dismasted. Much wreckage coming ashore.

Loss of Life.

CORK, 22.—The gale continues. A Norwegian vessel went ashore at Ballycotton this morning; all hands except two were lost.

Sailed on Saturday.

LIVERPOOL, 22. — Hon. Lionel Sackville West, the newly appointed British Minister to the United States, sailed to-day on board the American line steamer Indiana, of Philadelphia.

Disasters.

LONDON, 22. — Accounts of the shipping disasters continue to be received from all around the coast, a brigatine being wrecked near Fulmont; and all hands drowned.

Mexican Memorial.

CITY OF MEXICO, 22.—The Garfield memorial services, organized by Governor Fernando and the United States Consul, were the most impressive ever held in Mexico. The attendance was extremely large.

Hammeke, in behalf of Mexico, representing the city, said the City of Mexico lays a crown of laurels on the tomb of the virtuous citizen, soldier and statesman, James A. Garfield, and expresses its profound sympathy for his widow and orphans.

Legation.

BERNE, 22.—The Federal Council intend to propose to the Federal Assembly that the Swiss Consul at Washington be transformed into a legation.

Kilmainham — Collision — Carter, Etc.

Walsh and Simpson, suspects, have been released from Kilmainham on account of ill health.
