BY TELEGRAPH.

WASHINGTON, 26.—Grover presented the credentials of Delph, his successor as Senator from Oregon.

Garland, from the committee on Judiciary, reported the bill to punish false personation of officers and employees of the United States by fine of not more than $1,000 or imprisonment not longer than three years.

The House bill to prevent the importation of adulterated or spurious teas passed.

Garland insisted upon proceeding with the unfinished business.

The bill to pay the "Four of July" claims was taken up and passed.

Edmunds moved to take up the Utah bill.

Mitchell moved to proceed to the consideration of the pension bills on the calendar.

Several bills granting pensions to individuals passed, among them bills granting pensions of $50 a month to the widows of James H. and John H. Reardon.

Van Wyck called up the resolution requesting the President to communicate any information in his possession touching the alleged agreement of the Ministers of Great Britain, France and Italy, at Lima, to make a joint effort to restore peace between Chili and Peru.

Washington, 26.—The Senate amendments to the District of Columbia appropriation bill and the legislative appropriation bill were non-concurrent in, and conference committees appointed.

Cassell submitted the conference report on the post-office appropriation bill.

The House resumed consideration of the conference report on the post-office appropriation bill.

Under instructions from the committee on foreign affairs called up the Senate joint resolution providing for the termination of articles numbered from 19 to 25, and article 30 of the treaty between the United States and Great Britain, concluded at Washington, May 8th, 1871.

Notwithstanding the fact that this was the last Monday in the session, there were 94 measures introduced under the call of the Speaker.

The Speaker recognized Reed, who called up the resolution reported by him on Saturday on the committee on rules.

Blackburn raised the point of order against the resolution, raised the question of consideration, and Randall demanded the yeas and nays.

The House determined, yeas 134, nays 130, to consider Reed's resolution.

Reed demanded the previous question.

A long discussion here ensued without any definite action, and towards the last resulted in a confused, unsuccessful effort to obviate a night session.

The House evening session took up the Senate amendment to the naval appropriation bill; non-concurrent in, and conference committees appointed.

The House proceeded to the consideration of the resolution reported by the committee on the tariff bill.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.

New York, 26.—The Herald prints half a page exhibit of the relations of the saloon to the city with diagrams showing the amazing proportion of rum and beer shops to other places of business.

The various shops and stores which trade in liquors and other articles can be procured, foot up 7,338; in other words, there are more rum shops than food shops in New York.

The statistics have been taken from the census of the city, and are the result of a new temperance movement, whose first public meeting is held this evening at St. John's Hall.
